ALL IS WELL

It is the end alone can tell if things be going ill or well, —Old Mother Nature.

A flood is a dreadful thing, it does dreadful things. While it lasts there is little that can be done to keep it from doing dreadful things. The snow in the Green Forest and back on the hills and the Great Mountain had melted too fast. It had melted faster than the brooks could carry it down to the Great River, or the Big River could carry it away down to the Great Ocean. So there had been a flood. The water rushing down Laughing Brook had made the pond of Paddy the Beaver in the Green Forest twice as big as it was supposed to be. It had threatened to wash away the dam that made the pond in which were the house and the food pile of the Beavers. But the Beaver folk are not the kind of people that sit around and do nothing. When the rushing water brought down a big log and knocked a hole in Paddy's dam, Paddy and Mrs. Paddy and two young Beavers didn't sit around over," said Paddy, between bites. "Don't be too sure. There is still a lot of snow left, and there could be another flood," said Mrs. Paddy. "That is true," agreed Paddy. "But let it come. We've done a good job on that dam. It is better than it was before."

They were sitting on the dam eating the bark from those sticks.

Now the two young Beavers had lost their home. The flood had swept away their dam, and their house, and their food pile. They were homeless.

"Would you mind if we stayed here for awhile?" asked one. "Of course not," replied Paddy. "This pond is plenty big enough for two houses, so why not build a house for yourselves? You can stay with us until it is built."

You can't go ALL-OUT

If you feel ALL-IN

These days most people work under pressure, worry more, sleep less. This strain on body and brain makes physical fitness easier to lose—harder to regain. Today's tense living, lowered resistance, overwork, worry—any of these may affect normal kidney action. When kidneys get out of order, excess acids and wastes remain in the system. Then backache, disturbed rest, that "fired-out" heavy-headed feeling often follow. That's the time to take Dodd's Kidney Pills. Dodd's stimulate the kidneys to normal action. Then you feel better, work better—work better. Ask for Dodd's Kidney Pills at any drug counter.
