BRIDE-TO-BE HONORED - On Tuesday evening, March 27, a number of friends and acquaintances gathered at the home of Mrs. Robert MacCallum, Fitzroy St., to tender a shower to Miss Audrey Harvey who is to be a participant in a very happy event in the near future. After the guests had assembled the bride-to-be was ushered in by Miss Verna Darrach and escorted to the seat of honor. Little Miss Katherine Coady soon appeared with a prettily decorated doll carriage filled with gifts of silver, cut glass, china, linen, all of which attribute to the popularity of this young lady. Miss Harvey thanked the donors for their beautiful gifts and invited all present to visit her at her home in Summerside. After singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow" the group enjoyed several games and contests. A dainty lunch was served and on retiring everyone extended their best wishes to Audrey for a long and happy married life.
