

Why Men Fail.

Few men come up to their highest measure of success. Some fail through timidity, or lack of nerve. They are unwilling to take the risks incident to life, and fail through fear in venturing on ordinary duties. They lack pluck. Others fail through imprudence, lack of discretion, care or sound judgment. They overestimate the future and build air castles, and fail and venture beyond their depth, and fail and fail. Others again, fail through lack of application and perseverance. They begin with good resolves, but soon get tired of that, and went a change, thinking they can do much better at something else. Thus they fritter life away, and succeed in nothing. Others waste time and money, and fail for want of economy. Many fail through ruinous habits; tobacco, whisky, and beer spoil them for business, drive their best customers from them, and scatter their prospects of success. Some fail for want of brains, education, and fitness for their calling; they lack a knowledge of human nature and of the motives that actuate men. They have not qualified themselves for their occupation by practical education.—School Supplement.

Wise Words.

The fall of a leaf is a whisper to the living. Plain words make the most ornamental sentences. Judge charitably and act kindly to each other. Truth is a rock large enough for all to stand upon. A wise man is not inquisitive about things impertinent. Speak well of your friend; of your enemy say nothing. Companions are to be avoided that are good for nothing; those to be sought and frequented that excel in some quality or other. The little I have seen in the world and know of the history of mankind teaches me to look upon the errors of others in sorrow, not in anger. With books, as with companions, it is of more consequence to know which to avoid than which to choose; for good books are as scarce as good companions. It is a very poor answer to him who asked why any man should be delighted with beauty, that it was a question that none but a blind man could ask. Kind words procure their own image. They soothe and quiet and comfort the hearer. They shame him out of his sour, morose, unkind feelings. We have never yet begun to use kind words in such abundance as they ought to be used. It is a sign of infancy when only a few beings interest us. No money is better spent than what is laid out for domestic satisfaction. No great characters are formed in this world without suffering self-denial. The bread of life is love, the salt of life is work, the sweetness of life poetry, the water of life faith. You now lay yourself out for rest, but for great patience. On a sun dial which stands upon the pier at Brighton is inscribed this most hopeful line: "Tis always morning somewhere in the world." Reflection is an angel who every day bears reports to heaven of our doings here, and when the books are opened we must answer for the record kept. If thou wouldst find much favor and peace with God and man, be very low in thine own eyes. Forgive thyself little and others much.

COMPANIONS ARE TO BE AVOIDED THAT ARE GOOD FOR NOTHING; THOSE TO BE SOUGHT AND FREQUENTED THAT EXCEL IN SOME QUALITY OR OTHER.

THE LITTLE I HAVE SEEN IN THE WORLD AND KNOW OF THE HISTORY OF MANKIND TEACHES ME TO LOOK UPON THE ERRORS OF OTHERS IN SORROW, NOT IN ANGER.

NO MONEY IS BETTER SPENT THAN WHAT IS LAID OUT FOR DOMESTIC SATISFACTION. NO GREAT CHARACTERS ARE FORMED IN THIS WORLD WITHOUT SUFFERING SELF-DENIAL.

YOU NOW LAY YOURSELF OUT FOR REST, BUT FOR GREAT PATIENCE. ON A SUN DIAL WHICH STANDS UPON THE PIER AT BRIGHTON IS INSCRIBED THIS MOST HOPEFUL LINE: "TIS ALWAYS MORNING SOMEWHERE IN THE WORLD."

REFLECTION IS AN ANGEL WHO EVERY DAY BEARS REPORTS TO HEAVEN OF OUR DOINGS HERE, AND WHEN THE BOOKS ARE OPENED WE MUST ANSWER FOR THE RECORD KEPT.

IF THOU WOULDST FIND MUCH FAVOR AND PEACE WITH GOD AND MAN, BE VERY LOW IN THINE OWN EYES. FORGIVE THYSELF LITTLE AND OTHERS MUCH.

NASAL BALM. TOTTENHAM, ONT., May 3rd, 1887. I have been troubled with nasal catarrh for the last five years. Seeing Nasal Balm advertised I procured a bottle, and although I have only used part of it, I do not hesitate to pronounce it the best remedy in the world for that loathsome disease, Catarrh. It is easy and pleasant to use, soothing and healing in its action, instant in giving relief, removes and changes the poisonous secretions to a healthy state, stops the droppings from the head into the throat, and removes all the symptoms of Catarrh and Cold in the Head. In fact, if the directions are faithfully followed, nothing but a cure and permanent cure can be the result. Yours truly, JNO. S. GEORGE, Baker and Confectioner. Sept. 23—wky

$500 REWARD is offered by the manufacturer, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, for a case of Chronic Nasal Catarrh which they cannot cure. SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.—Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and in others, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery, and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a nasal twang; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood by physicians. By its mild, soothing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh, "cold in the head," Coryza, and Catarrhal Headache. Sold by druggists every where; 50 cents.

"Untold Agony" from Catarrh. Prof. W. HAUSNER, the famous mesmerist, of Ithaca, N. Y., writes: "I was a great sufferer from catarrh for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly hacking and spitting, and for the last eight months could not breathe through the nostrils. I thought nothing could be done for me. Luckily, I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only sure remedy for catarrh now manufactured, and one has only to give it a fair trial to experience astounding results and a permanent cure." Three Bottles Cure Catarrh. ELI ROBBINS, Rungun P. O., Columbia Co., Pa., says: "My daughter had catarrh when she was five years old very badly. I saw Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy advertised, and procured a bottle for her, and soon saw that it helped her; a third bottle effected a permanent cure. She is now sixteen years old and found and hearty."
