With health and beauty laden,
A rich and priceless thing,
To woman pale and wasted,
My precious gift I bring.

Blood will Tell.

Good blood will show its quality. So will bad blood, the one in a healthy body and ruddy complexion, the other, in ill health, blotches, pimples, boiles and sores, and frequently in intenser forms as ulcers, abscesses, erysipelas, scrofulous diseases, salt rheum, etc. Every organ of the body depends upon the blood for force and vitality, and is but scantily served when the blood is impure. No remedy is so potent as a blood purifier or more rapidly produces new and healthy blood than Burdock Blood Bitters which neutralizes the various poisons and restores the vitalizing power of this all-important fluid. As an instance of this read what Mr. J. S. Neff, of Algoma Mills, Ont., says in a recent letter.

Sirs, — A year ago I was troubled with spots breaking out all over my body, the the effect of bad blood. I consulted three different doctors, who gave me medicine but did not cure me. I was advised to try B. B. B. and after using two bottles I noticed the spots getting less. I continued the use of B.B.B., which entirely cured me, giving me, also a splendid appetite. Since then I wouldld use no other medicine.

Perhaps the most novel craft ever sailed on San Diego Bay was the one launched by J. D. Palmer, the house mover the other day. The craft in question was a five-room cottage which Mr. Palmer had taken a contract to move to South San Diego. It was loaded on two barges and drawn by a naptha launch

Mr. J. H Humphrey, 46 Bond Street, Toronto, says Burdock Blood Bitters wrought a complete cure of dyspepsia in his case after all else had failed.

"I say, Jenkins, can you tell a young tender chicken from an old, tough one?" "Of course I can." "Well, how?" "By the teeth." "Chickens have no teeth." "No, but I have."

Nothing creates more disease, discomfort and distress than constipation of the bowels, In B.B.B. we have a remedy sure to remove and cure it.

Everybody has one mouth and two ears. This shows that twice as much is heard as said. And most people have but one nose, which shows that no one nose whether more than half he 'ears said is true.

"Was troubled with continual headache and loss of appetite, but before I had taken many doses of B. B. B., appetite and health returned." J. B THOMPSON Bethesda, Ont

Young fellows do not appreciate the blessings of living in the present age. Just think what little fun Adam had as a masher. He only had a chance to be sweet on one girl, and he was compelled to take her or get left.

Mrs. Jane Vansickle, Alberton, Ont., was cured of liver complsint, after years of suffering, by using five bottles of B.B.B. She recommends it.

"I've got a pencil that will mark all colors," said Stumpleg to his wife. "What color do you want to write?" His wife suggested red. and with one foot ready for a jump, Stumpleg calmly spelled out "r-e-d," with his black pencil.

Bad blood breeds divers distressing diseases, Burdock Blood Bitters banishes boils and blotches, with every other symptom arising from bad blood.

The kind of "reading" which "maketh a full man," is probably the wine when it is read—Puck.

It is not theory but fact—that Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the weak strong. A fair trial will convince you of its merit.

Jagson says you seldom see real concentration unless you find a man who is reading his own communication in a newspaper.—Elmira Gazette.

Why squander money in expensive doctor's bills when Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for pale people offer so cheap and positive a blood builder, nerve tonic and spring reconstructor? The most marvelous remedy of the age. Cures where doctors have pronounced cases incurable. Sold by all dealers, or sent on receipt of price—50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2 50. Address Dr. Williams' Med. Co., Bryckville, Ont., or Morristown, N. Y. Beware of imitations.

There are lots of wives in the world who never know that their husbands are "jovial and whole-souled" except when they see it in the papers.—Atchison Globe.

"Johnson's Anodyne Liniment prevented my death from bronchitis," writes an ardent friend.

Do you wear your sunniest smiles when you want to get an unusual favor from your husband? No; I wear my briniest tears:—Yarmouth Register.

Whence once used, you will, like others, call for Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, and nothing else.

Singerly—Hello! What have you got that on in the house for? Strawber—It's my first silk hat and I am practising to wear it outdoors—Clothier and Furnisher.

Weak lungs are strengthened by Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, as directed with each bottle.

It is strange that people who want to commit suicide never think to blow in a shot gun to find out whether it loaded.—Ram's Horn.

The Wonderful Success

Of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a blood purifier entitles it to your confidence. No other preparation has such a record of cures of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Blood Poisoning, or other blood diseases. To try it is to know its merit. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla.

For a general family catarrh we confidenly recommend Hood's Pills. They should be in every home medicine chest.

A sign in Cleveland reads "Ise Kream Sallune," which is positively the worst cold spell of the season.

SKODA'S GERMAN SOAP, "Soft as Velvet," "Pure as Gold," that tells the whole story. Most highly medicated soap ever made. Try one cake. It is elegant. At all Druggists. Price, 25 cts.

And is your mamma still in mourning for your poor papa, Flossie? Flossie—Yes ma'am, she is, when she goes out anywhere.

The prostration after the Grip is entirely overcome by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It really does make the weak strong.

Judge—At first you stole $40, and then afterwards, $60. Are you never going to do better? Criminal—Why your Honor, I did better that time by $20.

Earth's Sweet Strains.

By shaded path in May,
I wander lost in dreams,
Through leafy bowers play
The sun's warm golden beams.

From velvet beds of moss,
The gold-white daisies spring,
The leaves above me toss,
The robins sweetly sing.

A spider here has spun,
Its web from fern to fern,
And dewdrops in the sun,
Like kingly jewels burn.

The wood beyond is lost,
In wondrous mystery,
By countless sunbeams crossed,
By shade of bush and tree.

From song of mating birds,
From tree and flowered sod,
Come the adoring words,
"How wonderful is God!"

And soul and thought respond
To nature's sweet refrain,
And joining earth's glad bond,
I echo earth's sweet strain.

Another Testimonial.

DR. BAYNES,—Dear Sir: I am sorry you have so much to contend with No doubt it is caused by jealousy I shall certainly do my best to contradict any false reports I may hear, both for your own sake and my own. I would be very ungrateful should I do otherwise, after having derived so much benefit from your medicine. You promised to cure me in six months from the time I commenced taking your medicine. But I am happy to state that I had not been taking it more than three months when a cure was effected; and after having consulted all the doctors in this vicinity without effect, the only consolation I derived from any of them was that my disease (sick headache, etc.,) had become chronic and was incurable. If this statement will be of any benefit to you, you are perfectly welcome to publish it Yours very truly

MRS. C. B. POOLE.

Lower Montague, 31st March, 1892.

The Telephone Co'y

— OF —

P. E. ISLAND.

PERSONS using the Telephone would find talking much more satisfactory if they would observe the following Rules:

1st. Speak with your mouth about four inches from the transmitter.

2nd. Speak in a moderate tone of voice, not too loud, and distinctly.

3rd. Place the Telephone so as to cover the Ear, just as if you wished to shut out all other sounds. Do not press too hard on the Ear.

It is possible to talk and be heard when standing back two or three feet from the transmitter, if you shout loud enough, but it is not a pleasant mode of conversation, is entirely unnecessary, and is a useless waste of wind and lungs, besides being very annoying to all within range of your voice.
