

August 10.—Lord Canning and Elgin meet in consultation, the result is said to be this: that two things are ordered to be done, which no entreaty or persuasion could bring from our governor, viz: first, compulsory enlistment in the militia of all able-bodied Christians; and secondly, disarming of all Bengal soldiery still allowed to be armed—both of these much wanted. Large meetings of armed natives continue to be held in Calcutta; the native police will take no notice of this. The European Inspectors say no breach of the peace has been committed and they cannot interfere. The native police speak their minds pretty freely to the Madras troops, four of whom are arrested, and fined for nothing. No notice is however to be taken of the seditious language used by the police.

August 11.—Lord Canning after having been worried since May, consents to take into consideration the propriety of having the Fort victualled and put in order for reception of the Christian population in case of necessity. This has been done at Madras some time ago—here, we think, they do a thing. Hazarebaugh plundered and burnt. Gya burnt and destroyed. Alonzo Money, Civil Service, and another gentleman, carry off the government treasure, 900,000 rupees, fighting hard for it; the former kills five men with his own hand. The question begins to be asked, where are this month's salaries of public servants to come from? The treasury is nearly empty, and government have neither money nor credit. Our native servants have been all tampered with, to murder or poison us, but have fortunately refused, some, very few, from fidelity, most from fear.

August 13.—Arrived, the steamer Bengal, with Sir Colin Campbell. At last permission to flog all native loiterers and lickers about the fort to the extent of 50 lashes, is extorted from Lord Canning, but he manfully resists (August 14) seizing large stores of arms and ammunition pointed out to him; will not call out the militia, will not do anything to some hundreds of native wealthy and influential people who have been named as having aided and abetted the rebellion. There is a talk of disagreement already between him and Sir Colin Campbell.

August 16.—The Mohurrum festival commences on the 20th, and from that day the Volunteers are to be on duty, half of them by day and half by night, for ten days, and perhaps until the 3rd of September. In the meantime the blacksmith opposite my house is hard at work forging pike-heads, night and day, in full sight of the police. Sir Colin Campbell goes incog. into Fort William, and finds matters so little to his liking that — and another officer are put under arrest. It is said he will not be sworn in Commander-in-Chief until he is to have his own absolute, uncontrolled will, in spite of Lord Canning's fancies.

August 17.—Various creeks and small rivers which run into the Hooghly are full of boat-loads of armed men, all making for this place, and bent on murder and plunder. The Chief Commissioner of Police at last begins to mistrust the native police, and is making frantic efforts to procure Europeans. Government have received information, in a singular manner, of all that is intended to be done in the Mohurrum. The only fear is it may not be acted upon.

August 20.—Various reports of squabbles between Lord Canning and Colin Campbell; the last not being promised his own way ordered his passage back in the Begal.

August 22.—The Council meets to-day, but we shall not know the result in time. The Mohurrum commences; and the commissioner shows how safe he thinks the town now is by frantic efforts to enlist European police and get European troops all over the town. I wish all the foregoing were more interesting; but think by next mail you will have an account of a fight in or near Calcutta; perhaps not if Sir Colin Campbell stays, otherwise there will be plenty of it.

Aggra dates are to the 11th. All in the fort well, but the force was very weak and calling urgently for relief. The Christian population was within the fort.

Bithoor was re-occupied by 4,000 mutineers, but on the 16th August Havelock attacked and carried the position.

A loyal spirit appeared to prevail not only among the Sikh soldiers, but the population of the Punjab generally.

From most of the native States in Central India the accounts are satisfactory, although, in some instances, disaffection had broken out.

The rebels at Arrah had been defeated by Major Eyre.

The Mohurrum holiday, as to which great fears were felt, had passed off quietly.

Several suspected regiments had been disarmed.

Lord Elgin had made over the Shannon and the Pearl to the Indian Government, and was about to return to China in a chartered steamer.

Martial law had been proclaimed at Belgium.

The unprotected state of the island of Mauritius, owing to the troops having left for India, attracted attention, and a French journal had started a recommendation that it should be garrisoned by French troops as long as the war in India lasts.

A telegraphic despatch from Paris to the London Post, dated September 29, says:—

"A French telegraph from Marseilles, dated to-day, says, that private letters from Calcutta state that the population is beginning to rise in Bengal. The merchandise from the interior no longer reaches the city, and the imports are accumulating. The paper of the East India Company is at 25 per cent. discount."

AFFAIRS OF TURKEY. — RUSSIA AND THE CAUCASIAN TRIBES.

We have news from Constantinople to the 30th. There is a new Ministerial change. Moukhtar Bey is named Minister of Justice. He is opposed to the union of the Danubian Principalities. The telegraph line to the Persian Gulf is acceded to. The port of Galata has been very nearly destroyed by fire. Two Russian steamers and four gunboats have landed Russian troops in Asia. Several Turkish merchant vessels have been surprised in carrying on trade with the Circassian coast. The ships have been burnt. The loss to the merchants at Trebizonde is said to amount to 500,000 francs. There have been disturbances in Mingrelia. Prince Bariatinski has deposed and exiled the Princess Dadian, and placed her son under the protection and tutelage of Russia. Lord Stratford de Redcliffe is seriously ill.

TERMINATION OF THE WALLACHIAN ELECTIONS.

The elections in Wallachia have terminated, and are in favour of the Union. The Moldavian divan was to assemble on the 4th of October, and that of Wallachia on the 5th.

RUSSIAN BLOCKADE OF THE COAST OF CIRCASSIA.

A Constantinople letter contains the following:—In announcing the arrival in this port of three Russian screw corvettes from Cronstadt, on their way to the Black Sea, I was not aware of the precise object of their coming. It now appears, that it is to establish a rigid system of blockade on the coast of Circassia, in order to prevent the mountaineers from receiving arms, ammunition, and a thousand other things which they now receive by merchant vessels, all coming more or less directly from England, and which proceed to Circassia in virtue of the neutralisation of the Black Sea. The Russians, in their turn, apply this principle in the defence of their interests. Two Russian gunboats have also arrived here, on their way to take up their station in the Danube."

The 2nd of November is now the day fixed for the launch of the Great Eastern steamship. The Presbytery of Belfast had adopted resolutions affirming their right to preach in the open air, but recommending that, under existing circumstances, the practice be discontinued for a time.

A NOVA SCOTIAN IN THE IMPERIAL SERVICE.—The long vacant British Consulate of New York has at length been filled. We are glad to be able to state that this important and highly remunerative post has been given to the Hon. Edward M. Archibald, late the Attorney General of Newfoundland, and a native of Nova Scotia. The new Consul, a few weeks since, removed from the city and took up his residence at New York, to be prepared to enter upon his official duties. Mr. Archibald is a gentleman who, we believe we may say, possesses the universal esteem of an unusually large circle of acquaintance in the Provinces and in England, an esteem which he has gradually won through many years of perplexing, often varied, but always laborious public life. We cannot doubt but that, in his new capacity, he will, by the strict integrity, excellent business abilities, and suavity of manner which are characteristic of him, do credit to the Government which he represents. Certainly an appointment could not have been made more acceptable to the people of British America, or at least of the Lower Provinces.

NEW BRUNSWICK.

ENCOUNTER WITH A BEAR.—The Miramichi papers tell of a recent bear fight, in which a lady exhibited a wonderful degree of bravery. A bear was ravaging the flock of Mr. Tweedy, of Williamstown, and his son one night watched for it, where it had left a carcass half eaten. The night was dark, and the young man unexpectedly found the bear looking over the fence at him. He put his gun right into the brute's mouth and blew away its upper jaw, and thought he had killed it, as it fell. He went for his father; but when they came back bruin was running off. The son again fired, and then the bear, turning, charged them, threw down Mr. Tweedy, and rolled on him, and tore him. The son attacked him with a sharp weapon, and the animal then attacked him, tore his clothes, dislocated his arm, and threw him down. The father, who had risen, came to the son's aid, and broke the gun on the bear, when the animal, leaving the son then dreadfully mangled, again attacked the father, struck him senseless to the ground, and tore him with its remaining teeth. At this juncture, Miss Tweedy, attracted by the noise, came to the rescue, and taking up a large hardwood mallet, she so belaboured bruin's head that it released her father, and ran at her, tore her clothes, and knocked her down; but she released herself, and continued her assault until the bear ran away. It died a short distance from the scene of the conflict. The animal weighed about 5 cwt.—Freeman.

SHOCKING MURDER.—On Wednesday (21st instant), a man named MacNeill, son of Mr. R. MacNeill, of Vernon River, was committed to jail for the wilful murder of Mr. Wm. Lane, of Alberry Plains, Georgetown Road. The following are the particulars, as they have been related to us: MacNeill was a servant in the employ of Mr. Lane, and on Tuesday morning last, Mr. L. upbraided him for lying in bed so late in the day, and informed him that if he could not attend better to his business he would have to discharge him. They both left the house for the barn, and after they had been absent some time Mrs. Lane called to her husband to come to breakfast. Some time elapsed and Mr. Lane not making his appearance, Mrs. Lane proceeded to the barn, and there found her husband lying on the floor dead, with his brains knocked out. MacNeill had disappeared. The alarm was at once given; and on examining the body, it appeared that the deceased had received three blows on the head with an axe, which must at once have deprived him of life. It is supposed the unfortunate deceased was in the act of repairing his barn, and while engaged in driving a nail, MacNeill must have struck him behind with an axe, and after killing him, left the premises. He was afterwards taken at Vernon River, and brought to town as above stated. Mr. Lane was a young man, with a wife and two children. He bore an excellent character, and was much esteemed by all his neighbors. He was a son of Mr. Edward Lane, of Dunstaffnage, St. Peter's Road. MacNeill is said to be of unsound mind.—Isl.
