Borden To Hold Double-Header

Because so many of the adult residents are "afloat" on the car-ferry, special arrangements have been made to hold two Red Cross Blood Donor Clinics in Borden.

The first, on August 3rd, for an hour in the evening is especially for those employed on the day-time shift who would be unable to attend the regular morning clinic on Monday, August 4th.

Borden's objective is set at 100 but the energetic committee in charge, under the leadership of the "Womens' Institute, hopes to be able to exceed this quota.

This will require the full co-operation of every person in Borden and the surrounding districts who is in good health and between the ages of 18-65 years of age.

As no clinic is to be held in Summerside during this week of August 3rd, the Borden Clinic will provide an opportunity for some of those who usually go to Summerside to help Borden surpass its objective.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. FRANK WAITE

The death occurred in the Prince County Hospital on May 27th of Mrs. Frank Waite in her fifty-ninth year.

Although she had been in failing health for the past few years, her condition was not thought serious until the morning previous to her death when she suffered an attack of uremia and lapsed into unconsciousness from which she never recovered. At four o'clock the following morning she passed peacefully into her eternal rest.

The deceased was born in Sherbrooke, the daughter of Russell MacEwen and his wife, the former Rosalind Hamill. Previous to her marriage she spent a number of years as a successful school teacher.

As a faithful wife, kind mother, a most charitable neighbor and a personage endowed with Christian virtues, her memory will ever remain in the hearts of friends.

She was a life-long member of St. Paul's Church and during her illness she was visited by the Rev. Father LeClair who performed the last rites of the Holy Catholic Church.

She leaves to mourn besides her sorrowing husband, Lorne in Kensington, Francis in Toronto, Erskine in Summerside, Ernest and Russell at home; two daughters, Edna (Mrs. Arthur Bernard), at home; Lilly in Toronto; a sister Pearl (Mrs. Richard Dunn) in New Annan, also a number of grandchildren.

The following predeceased her — two brothers, William and Hubert, a sister Catherine, Mrs. Dr. Keir by only six weeks, and a daughter, Rose, in infancy.

Her largely attended funeral was held from the Compton Funeral Home to St. Paul's Church, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father LeClair, services at the grave being conducted by Rev. G. J. MacLellan.

The pallbearers were, Thomas Chappell, James Chappell, Wilfred Hamill, Major MacDonald, Roy Loughlin and Walter Loughlin.

Mascot Joins Exercise

Singularly unimpressed by the attention being paid him, this huge buffalo head, mascot of the RCAF's 404 (Buffalo) Maritime Squadron, gazes out of a Lancaster bomber with a speculative eye. The squadron, based at Greenwood, N. S., recently returned from St. Eval, Cornwall, England, after taking part in "Exercise Castanets", in which aircraft and naval vessels of five NATO countries combined in the largest sea-air exercise since the war, to provide a striking instance of international solidarity. Shown with the mascot are Aircraftsmen K. E. Gallagher, of Ketch Harbour, N. S., left, and G. S. Doucette, Summerside, P. E. I., two members of the squadron. (National Defence Photo).
