

Halifax Man Is Arrested

The splendid cooperation of a Charlottetown citizen has resulted in the arrest of a man wanted by the RCMP in Nova Scotia and also in Ontario on several charges. These were the words of Sgt. Eric Tedford of the Charlottetown Detachment of the RCMP as he commented on the arrest of Lenvie William Maxon.

Sgt. Tedford said that members of the local detachment of the RCMP yesterday arrested Lenvie William Maxon, age 26, who gives his home address as Halifax although he has been living in Charlottetown for a short time.

Maxon was arrested on charge of false pretence, on a warrant held by the Baddeck, Nova Scotia detachment of the RCMP. He was escorted back to Baddeck today by members of the RCMP.

Farm Officials Release Bulletin

F.M. Cannon, entomologist and L.C. Calbeck, plant pathologist at the Experimental Farm, released the third in a series of weekly potato bulletins yesterday morning.

"With below average rainfall, and with atmospheric humidities generally running below the critical level for late blight development in July, it is not likely that infections have yet occurred. So far, at least, none have been observed. Under normal weather conditions in the region, first infections are found on or just after mid-July."

"Whether or not the present health of the fields continues will depend on the weather pattern in August. From now on any period of wet and humid weather in either province, or frequent coastal fogs in Nova Scotia, will mean that fungicides should be applied."

"At the present time aphids are increasing in many potato fields. A Thiodan or malathion spray will give good control."

BAR YOUNG FROM FILMS
TEHRAN (AP)—A new police order bars persons under 18 from crime and romance movies shown in Iran. Police said violation by the youngsters, who must show identity cards at theatres, would mean arrest.

EXPERT BURGLAR
OTTAWA (CP)—A burglar broke into the main safe at the Chateau Laurier Monday night or early Tuesday and made off with $15,000 in cash and $6,000 in non-negotiable cheques, the hotel reported Wednesday. The safe cracker got through two locked doors without leaving marks, then drilled the combination dial to unlock the safe.
