U.P.E.I. is no longer a member of the Atlantic Federation of Students (AFS). U.P.E.I. Students voted on Wednesday, Oct. 18th to discontinue our membership in this Student Organization. I am not going to discuss my opinions concerning the referendum in this editorial. One problem I would like to mention is the fact that students, when they registered at U.P.E.I., paid one dollar AFS membership fee when they paid their other fees.

Now, what is to happen to this money? Will student union have their Business Manager, Mickey Place, write up 1500-1.00 checks and mail them out to the students, or will Mr. Place have to go to the bank and get 1500-1.00 dollar bills and have students pick them up at the S.U. Office. I don't think either of these methods very practical. The Student Union Executive stated at Sunday's Council meeting that they will try to come up with a workable solution before the next council meeting. The business office refuses to credit 1.00 to everyones account.

One solution which they came up with was to have the business office credit 1.00 dollar to each students account, but the Business Office refused to do this, and I don't think anyone can blame them for doing so.

So what should the Student Union do? They have one dollar belonging to every member of the Union.

My suggestion would be to set a time limit, lets say to the 1st day of December, whereby each student can go to the the Student Union Offices and pick up his dollar from the secretary. Any money not collected by this date would go into a fund (not Student Union General Funding) and a committee could be set up to decide where the money should be spent. Some of my suggestions would be The Day Care Centre, the Memorial Bursary Fund, A Free Pig N' Whistle, or towards funding of a new committee to replace AFS. By this last committee I mean some sort of U.P.E.I. Student Organization that could be an advisory Co-mittee to the Student Council. This advisory committee could research and report on topics such as Tuition and Residence Fees- the Landlord Tenant Act, Student Unemployment, and Student Loans. If you have any suggestion on how this money should be disposed of, why don't you drop down to the Barn and let your Student Executive know!

Dear Editor:

On October 19th MacLean and MacLean performed at the Pig 'n Whistle. Contrary to the belief of certain persons on campus, most students who attended thoroughly enjoyed themselves. Those who attended and were offended, well, you were warned.

The Pig was advertised for what it was - Dirty... Dirty....Dirty, but funny. The social committee is here to provide different types of entertainment to appeal to different types of people. I have never before received so many positive comments about a performance. Therefore the purpose of the social committee has been fulfilled.

MacLean and MacLean were extremely easy people to work with and got along really well with all students who were in contact with them. This added to the success of the evening.

Turtle.
