recently promised a new Department of Love Canal with adequate investment to promote a massive Maritime economic development plan.

"The local New Democratic candidates also contend that a new ice breaking ferry is needed immediately to guarantee un-computed service during the winter months before the causeway becomes a reality."

"LIBERAL CANDIDATES" The Premier Minister's announcement of the election date of June 18 in welcome news to the members of the Liberal Party and Ira Lewis said in a joint statement issued to the press last night, causeway.

"We feel that it was significant that Mr. Diefenbaker had seen to it that the election announcement with the statement that the causeway from Borden to Tormentors will be built but at the same time note that the same promise had been made before the last election and action in this direction has been conspicuous by its absence."

"The proposal to build the causeway had been initiated by Mr. Laurier Government, which began the survey the year before its retirement from office and we note that the present National Leader of the Liberal Party has reaffirmed the stand of his predecessor Mr. St. Laurent, who said, 'If a causeway is feasible we will build it.'"

"In fact Mr. Pearson has stated within recent weeks that his government when formed will begin construction of the causeway."

"We believe that the period between now and June 18th will give us sufficient time to meet the majority of our constituents. 'We will run a clean election and use of liquor or bribes of any sort will not be permitted by us and our party workers. 'We are confident that the tide is changing daily in favor of the Liberal Party across Canada and a sweeping victory will be ours when the votes are counted on June 18. 'The organization in our party was never in a better state of efficiency and our workers are displaying an enthusiasm which cannot be recalled even by the oldest members of the party.'"

Kiwanis Blood Donors Win Inter-Service Club Contest

The Charlottetown Kiwanis Club has won the inter-service club competition following their participation in last week's Red Cross blood clinic.

This was announced by Al Bredon at last night's regular weekly meeting of the club held at the Charlottetown Hotel. Mr. Bredon referred to the splendid co-operation that was received from the members of the Charlottetown club.

Clifford Orford reported that four new members had joined the club since February. Reports were also received from the chairman of the entertainment committee and from the treasurer.

The guest speaker was Hartwell Daley, provincial director of research for the P.E.I. government. He was introduced by Allison Rogers. Mr. Daley stated that newspapers, radio and television were great forces that offer a tremendous opportunity for doing good.

Mr. Daley stated that newspapers, radio and television were great forces that offer a tremendous opportunity for doing good. He said they provide the people with clear and decisive knowledge of what is taking place in their country and in the community in which they live.

BOURGIBA WEDES TUNIS (AP) — President Habib Bourguiba freed 429 prisoners Thursday and gave the schools a holiday to mark his marriage to Mrs. Quassia Ben Ammar, a Tunisian society woman. It is the second marriage for both the 60-year-old Tunisian chief of state and Mrs. Ammar, 49.

Nursing Assistants' Role Stressed At Graduation

"It seems to me that the whole concept of trained nursing assistants and their place in the total medical care of the community at large is an important and enlightened one," stated Dr. T.A. Laidlaw in addressing the graduates at the Central School for Nursing Assistants last night.

The graduation exercises held in the auditorium of Riverside Hospital, were presided over by the chairman of the school's executive committee, Dr. L.E. Prowse. In welcoming the visitors he pointed out the aims and objectives of the school's program.

Diplomas were presented to the 31 graduates by Lieutenant-Governor F. Walter Hyndman who congratulated them on their achievement. The presentation of pins and awards was made by Frank Myers, M.L.A. on behalf of Hon. Robert B. MacNeill minister of health.

Premier Walter B. Shaw congratulated graduates and commended on the causeway announcement of yesterday afternoon. COMMENT MADE "The most important announcement since Confederation and Premier Shaw. The comment was warmly applauded by the large gathering. The Premier stated he has been in touch with Ottawa and that the Prime Minister stated, "the causeway is feasible, economically sound and we are going to build it."

The program included two so-to-speak selections by Harvey MacKinnon, "Bless This House," and "Some Enchanted Evening." Accompanied for the first time was Mrs. Raoul Reymond.

The invocation and benediction were given by Rev. Walter Reid, Roman Catholic Chaplain of the Charlottetown hospital. GAIN AWARDS Awards by the department of health for the highest average during pre-clinical training were made Miss Eleanor Durant in group A, Miss Marjorie Wood in group B, and Mrs. Beatrice Macquarrie in group C.

Dr. Laidlaw told the graduates that "the program for the Central School for Nursing Assistants at Charlottetown, British Columbia has been carefully planned and developed with regard to high standards of competence and to safeguarding your professional status and reasonable scale of remuneration."

Dr. Laidlaw expressed the hope that the graduates would continue in the work in which they were trained. He said, "I think it is safe to say that the demand for nursing services, in hospitals and out, is virtually unlimited, and the supply of qualified persons is unlikely to meet it in the foreseeable future."

He reminded the graduates of the obligations and rewards of their profession which he stated, "set it apart from a mere job, a means of livelihood."
