Joe Medwick And Cards Near Parting Of The Ways; Dodgers To Push Claim?

(By Whitney Martin, Associated Press Sports Writer)
NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—They are keeping the home fires burning in St. Louis, particularly under Joe Medwick, and boy, is he hot!

When Manager Ray Bladed sent in a substitute to field for Joe Tuesday it practically was the same as sending someone in to run the last lap for Glenn Cunningham, or fight the last round for Joe Louis. An insult, no less, and it added to the growing belief that when the snows come Medwick will go.

It need not be necessary to wait that long for the Cardinals and their outfielder to part company, although the closing date for player deals was June 15. Here's what could happen through a little political horse trading.

Brooklyn is known to be a little moon-struck over Medwick. Last summer general manager Larry MacPhail is reported to have offered $200,000 for him, a fair indication that MacPhail would like to have Joe.

Brooklyn was in sixth place today, with only Boston and Philadelphia lower. The Dodgers and Cardinals could arrange their deal, and then MacPhail could go to the heads of the Boston and Philadelphia clubs and say:

"See here, I'm all fixed to get Medwick if you will waive on him. You can't get him, as you couldn't pay the price. We're next in line, so we'd get him. How about it?"

According to waiver rules, the club lowest in the standing gets a player if several clubs claim him, and MacPhail would get his chance at Medwick before any club but the Phils and Bees could grab him.

That probably won't happen, but it could. If winter comes and Medwick still is a Cardinal, Brooklyn may have trouble making a deal. Phil Wrigley of Chicago Cubs has shown more than casual interest in this guy named Joe, and he is able to lose dollars into the ocean with any of them.

Victorias Down Red Sox 5-1 Behind The Six-hit Hurling Of MacCormack

The Charlottetown Victorias out-hit, outpitched and outfielded the Red Sox at Summerside last evening to earn a clear cut 5-1 decision. MacCormack pitched beautiful ball for the winners and was backed up superbly by his mates.

The Sox used two hurlers. Gerard Bernard started and worked for four innings when he was relieved by Murray Willett, star Vianama right hander on loan to the Sox for the encounter. Both pitchers worked well and deserved a better fate, errors by the infield giving the Vics two unearned runs.

The Williams was a standout for the visitors, turning in a spectacular catch back of third base, handling his grounders faultlessly and cracking out a long double to clinch the three run rally in the fifth.

Wednesday evening's game between the Vitas and Kensington did not go the five innings necessary to be ruled a contest but due to alleged stalling tactics on the part of the Kensington squad the game was awarded to the Vitas with the score reading 11-3 at the time.

The big feature of the game was a mighty four-py wallop by the Kensington veteran Jay. The loss dims the Kensington playoff hopes considerably and elevated the Vitas up to second place.

This evening the Sox and Pioneers are scheduled to clash at 6.15.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—The world champion Yankees, who just won't stay down long, cuffed Detroit Tigers 12-1 last night with a baseball bombardment which included four home runs, two of them by Joe DiMaggio.

The Bronx Bombers, retaliating for embarrassing defeats in the first two games of their series, stormed over three Detroit pitchers and finished Buck Newsom, the Tigers' starter, with a six run blast in the fifth.

DiMaggio's first homer came with two on in the first and the other concluded the Yankees attack in the fifth. In addition Bill Dickey hit his 17th of the season in the third and Red Rolfe hit for the circuit in the sixth.

Boston Red Sox made it three out of four against Cleveland, taking the series finale 17-6 by merely letting the Indians beat themselves.

Six errors were charged up against the littersy Clevelanders, who gave one of their worst performances in Boston in years, Skeeter Webb, who is shortly to be consigned to Buffalo, committed two of the misplays, bringing his total for the Boston series to four.

Chicago White Sox captured their series with the Athletics in a free hitting affair. The score was 9-7, the Sox scoring all their runs in the second, third and fourth innings.

Bob Johnson and Frankie Hayes featured the Athletics' attack with long home run drives in the third and fourth. Johnson's with two on, was his 15th of the season. Hayes was his 13th.

Senators made it three straight over St. Louis, beating the Browns 9-5.

Wood, the former Wimbledon champion; Ernie Sutter of New Orleans and Bob Kamrath of Austin, Texas.

Cincinnati's Lead Cut By Full Game As The Cards Defeat Bees In Double Bill

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Running expert of the Manchester Guardian, writing on the bumping of Sydney Wooderson at Princeton this spring, suggests perhaps Wooderson's own clumsiness had something to do with it. Montague says Wooderson has been bumped many times while racing in England. The longer Joe DiMaggio plays centre field for New York Yankees the more foolish statements about his defensive flaws seem. For instance where will you find a catch like his gloved-hand stab yesterday of a 450-foot drive by Hank Greenberg?

Fight story: Frankie Wallace, Henry Armstrong's present sparring partner, once whipped Lou Ambers so badly that he coached Lou after the fight out of sheer pity. Eight months later Frankie and Lou tangled again. Frankie expected an easy time and got the surprise of his life when Lou trimmed him. It is heard that Ambers boy has from away back and no matter how often they've had to resting him with piano hitting—and he has plenty of it holding him together—they've never had to touch up his centre piece.

The tennis boys report the 16 of the "tennis-bum" is a hard one these days compared to the golden period that Bill Tilden knew. In those days fleece-lined clouds was not too much for a tennis player to ask and have delivered. Today he plays his matches, his expenses are paid, and he does as he is told—or else. Aroused by the evolution of Manager Oscar Vitt and three players from a Boston game, Cleveland Indians freely predict umpire Cal Hubbard is calling them for his last year in the American Baseball League.

Chicago Cubs defeated Philadelphia Phillies 9-6 but that wasn't the half of it. Both starting pitchers were chased, Cub rookies had a field day, Morrie Aronovich, the National League's leading hitter, was benched, Coach Hans Loberk of the Phils was benched and Doc Frotho, Philly manager, walked off the field in "disgust."

The Cubs were out-hit 15-13, but a big fourth inning, including homers by Stan Hack and Hank Leiber, helped Bill Lee to his 12th triumph although he had to be rescued by Jack Russell.

Stars and Anchors are scheduled to meet in a City League baseball encounter at the Park diamond this evening with the game starting at 6 o'clock.

With a win and a loss to their credit in the reorganized league Stars will be out to avenge a previous defeat at the hands of the westend team who have now won two games without a loss and are safely perched at the top of the standing.

McCormack will likely take the hill for the Stars with either Ayers or McAleer hurling them in for the Anchors.

Dominions To Meet All Star Squad
"Whackey" McEACHERN'S Dominions will play an exhibition game with Summerside All-Stars at the Park diamond over the week-end. It was learned here last night.

Dominions, seeking provincial intermediate baseball honors will be making their first start of the season and the result of the game against the westerners will be looked forward to with interest.

It is understood that return game will be played in Summerside on Wednesday next.

John Hope Doeg of Rumson, N.J., and Charles Mattmann of New York, 6-3, 6-4.

Riggs and Elwood T. Cooke of Portland, Ore., disposed of Ronald Lubin and George Toley, Los Angeles, 7-5, 6-4 and Bill and Chester Murphy of Chicago, turned back the surprising pickup pair, Marvin Wachman and Norman Bickel of Chicago, 3-6, 6-3, 7-5.

Simmerings Around The Sport Front

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—The way Henry Armstrong is putting on weight they are talking now of him going after the middleweight title eventually. Hank says he's getting bigger around the shoulders. He has to order shirts a half-size larger than he did a few months back. Billy Conn and Melio Bestina have signed for a 15-rounder in Pittsburgh Sept. 26. Promoter Mike Jacobs sent this word to his office here today. It's a chance for Mello to get his light heavyweight title back.
