

TALKING THINGS OVER

The ninth Maritime Provinces Hockey School for referees and coaches got underway at the Charlottetown Hotel yesterday evening. The first session of the school was held in the form of a dinner and was a huge success. In the above picture, Brjg. W. W. Reid talks over future events with Mr. Georges Gravel, referee-in-chief of the Q.S.L. (Center) and Mr. Earl Ross, radio and television sports-caster of C.K.C.W. in Moncton, N.B.

Habs Get Three On First Team

MONTREAL (CP) — Three members of Montreal Canadiens and one each from Detroit Red Wings, New York Rangers and Chicago Black Hawks were named to the National Hockey League all-star first team in voting for the first half of the season. Results of the voting, announced Monday, showed the Montrealers selected were defenceman Doug Harvey, centre Henri Richard and left-winger Dickie Moore. Gordie Howe of Detroit was named to right wing, Bill Gadsby of New York to defence and Glenn Hall of Chicago to be the goal-tending spot. Another vote will follow the regular season and total points will be combined to determine final selections. HARVEY UNANIMOUS

Dodgers Almost Make It To Wrigley But Halted

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Walter O'Malley's melodramatic search for a home for his team from Brooklyn produced another cliff-hanging episode Monday. The Dodgers almost made it to Wrigley Field, only to halt on the threshold. The long hunt for a home-away-from-home for the Dodgers while their permanent park is being built seemed to have ended in the former minor league home of the Los Angeles Angels. Then the Dodgers' rotund president gave the O'Malley-go-round another spin. After announcing he felt "constrained to select Wrigley Field as the site for the 1958 major league games" of the Dodgers, O'Malley told reporters clamoring for more information that he is still in contact with Los Angeles officials on the possibility of using the 100,000-seat Coliseum. O'Malley's near decision to settle in Wrigley Field came after the collapse of negotiations for the Rose Bowl, another 100,000-seat structure in nearby Pasadena. That venture floundered on the cost of transforming the famed football stadium into a baseball park—a sum estimated at $750,000. BURNS NO BRIDGES

40 Candidates Attend The Ninth Hockey School Here

Last evening the Ninth Maritime Provinces Hockey School opened at the Charlottetown Hotel with an attendance of 40 candidates from several mainland and Island centres. Seated at the head table at the opening dinner were Messrs: Loman MacAulay, George Francis, Dr. L. W. Shaw, Mr. Earl Ross, (guest speaker), chairman Bill Reid, Messrs Geo. Gravel, Pius Callaghan and Walter Lawlor. Mr. Earl Ross, pinch-hitting for Frank Selke, (Jr.) who was unavoidably detained in Montreal, gave an outstanding address to the school candidates on sportsmanship. Mr. Ross, who is the well-known and popular sports-caster of C.K.C.W., Moncton, N.B., stressed every angle of sportsmanship and impressed all with his genuine sincerity and knowledge of his subject. Dr. Lloyd W. Shaw, Deputy Minister of Education very capably extended the thanks of the group to Mr. Ross for his instructive, interesting and stirring address and Mr. Pius Callaghan extended greetings from the Maritime Amateur Hockey Association. Following the dinner activities, the first instructional session of the school was held under direction of Georges Gravel of Montreal. Mr. Gravel was a former outstanding N.H.L. referee and now, along with his business activities, is referee-in-chief for the Quebec Amateur Hockey Association. During this session Mr. Gravel went quickly through the rules of the game. Today at 3:00 p.m. Mr. Gravel will conduct a special session on refereeing and this evening at 7:30 p.m. a detailed discussion of rules of the game will be covered with candidates asking questions re any special situations and problems which they would like clarified.

Boxers To Meet Again

OTTAWA (CP) — Barney Ross and Jimmy McLarnin, welterweight opponents in three boxing bouts during the 1930s, will meet for the first time in 15 years here Feb. 27 as joint guest speakers at the fifth annual sportsman's dinner of the Associated Commercial Travellers. Ross first met McLarnin in the ring in May, 1934 when he defeated the Vancouver-born fighter in a championship bout. In the return match four months later McLarnin won but they met again the next spring and Ross was the victor. Ross now is partner in a New York advertising agency and McLarnin lives in Glendale, Calif.

No Changes In Boxing Matches

NEW YORK (AP) — Julius Helfand, chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission and president of the world professional boxing championship committee, Monday refused to go along with changes in the welterweight title tournament proposed by the National Boxing Association. Helfand said the championship committee's original six-man tournament will not be changed "in any way as a result of the proposed unilateral action by the N.B.A. No one will be recognized as the new world welterweight champion until the tournament has been completed." The committee had named Isaac Logart, Gaspar Ortega, Vince Martinez, Gil Turner, Virgil Ak-

Ramblers Move 2 Points In Front Tie Summerside

The Summerside Aces and Amherst Ramblers fought to a 4-all draw at Civic Stadium last night before a fair crowd of spectators. The Aces scoring the first two counters, were out in front for a little better than two periods. They scored two goals to the Ramblers' one in each of the first two frames, but the Amherst boys came back strong in the final chukker to score two goals and knot the count. After seven minutes of play Benny Howatt opened the scoring, slapping the puck into the twines on a pass-out from the right corner by Billy Hughes. Seven minutes later Hughes got a breakaway at the red line to sweep in on Steeves and out-manoeuvre the Rambler net Guardian for the tally. 3-1-2 minutes from the end of the period Dillon got a piece of Hayden's right wing drive, but the puck caromed off the goaler's body into the meshes. After about six minutes of fast

Eskimos Jarred To Their Boots

EDMONTON (CP)—Edmonton Eskimos, whose club stability helped give them four years of football success, have been jarred to the boots. They need replacements for coach Frank Ivy and assistant Ray Prochaska. They may have to find someone to succeed President Cec Ross. Star player Jackie Parker must decide by Wednesday whether to stay. The club that for at least four years had taken a stand-attitude has been faced with these problems within a week. In addition, there have been signs of apathy among Edmonton supporters. Troubles started last Thursday when Ivy, the big Oklahoma, signed as head coach of the National Football League Chicago Cardinals.

Aaron Seeking Batting Title

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Hank Aaron of Milwaukee Braves Monday trained his 20-15 vision on the 1958 National League batting title, saying he will let the homers and runs batted in take care of themselves. The easy-does-it slugger with the powerful wrists was voted the league's most valuable player last season after winning the home run and RBI titles, with 44 and 132 respectively, and hitting .322. He won the batting crown in 1956 with an average of .328. "I'd settle for another year or six more like the last," Aaron said. "But, I'd prefer to hit for a higher average." "I didn't concentrate on either homers or runs batted in last season. They just kind of took care of themselves. If I can hit more consistently there's no reason why

ATTENTION SPORTSMEN

There will be a meeting of the Prince County Fish & Game Association, Wednesday, January 15th at 8:00 p.m. in the Town Hall, Summerside. This will be the annual meeting and all sportsmen are urged to attend.

ATTENTION TROUT FISHERMEN

Do you want to have an open season on fishing all year round? The Queen's County Branch of the P.E.I. Fish and Game Association will be holding their monthly meeting January 14th at 8 p.m. in the Canadian Legion Hall. The top discussion will be, Should P.E.I. have an open season on fishing? This question along with the building of a fish ladder on some pond that runs into the sea will be the highlights of the evening's discussion. Hunting problems will also be discussed. All are welcome.
Signed,
E. G. ACORN,
Secretary-Treasurer.
