

Needy, Neglected Kiddies Find Home At Mt. Herbert

(Editor's note: This is another in a series of articles concerning organizations taking part in the province-wide United Fund campaign.)

By JEAN MACISAAC, Guardian - Patriot Staff Writer

A home away from home is found for orphans, needy and neglected children at the Protestant Children's Home in Mt. Herbert.

Approximately 40 children from one to 14 years of age call home the large brick building in Mt. Herbert.

It is the aim of the trustee board to get away from the idea of registration or an institution. Children are members of guides and scouts, go swimming at the YMCA and skating at the rink and attend everything a child living with his own family would attend.

High Standard: The home committee maintains living quarters at a high level and visitors are always welcome in surroundings which would cause envy in many large family private homes.

Older children attend the regional high school in the area.

while those up to grade six go to school at the home. There the school supervisor reports satisfactory achievement on the part of the students. It is considered to be one of the best equipped classrooms in the province with the quality and quantity of teaching aids and references excellent.

The necessary equipment and aids are supplied by the Royal Arch.

Music lessons are made available to the children. There is an expanding interest in the part of the students, in a musical festival as they participate and win ribbons.

The property committee is in charge of repairs and improvements to the grounds. The buildings are getting older and extensive repairs and maintenance are required each year.

THOROUGH ATTENTION: The adoption committee carefully controls the release of children as well as their entry into the home. The welfare of each individual child gets careful and thorough attention.

The endowment continues to grow, with all bequests received placed in the fund.

The home was founded before 1920, the board of trustees has endeavored to fulfill the purpose of the founding fathers; to provide a real home, love and care for orphaned and helpless children and to teach and train them in Christian surroundings.

No Paris But Demand Heavy For Literature

By NEIL A. MATHESON, Provincial and Farm Editor. A complete absence of money and a sharp increase in demands for survival literature, are the outstanding features of public reaction here this week to the emergency created by the Cuba blockade announcement of Monday, and subsequent developments, Mayor O.K. Simons, provincial civil defence co-ordinator said yesterday.

Mr. Simons emphasized that all demands for literature or other information should be directed to Civil Defence, Box 1100, Charlottetown, and personal calls should be made either to his office or to any of some 63 people throughout the province, ranging from Souris to Tignish. The mail requests may be made simply for "pamphlets", as sets are made up and ready for distribution.

Two N.B. Youths Are Remanded

SUMMERSIDE - Two St. John N.B. youths, Roy Patrick Carroll and John Joseph Richard, pleaded guilty yesterday to a charge of unlawful possession of five penknife keys and four lighters, when they appeared before Magistrate W. Chester S. MacDonald in Prince County magistrate's court.

The two were arrested by members of the Borden detachment RCMP. Both accused were remanded in custody to Oct. 30 for sentence.

Francis Alphonse Brown, Cape Traverse, pleaded not guilty to a charge of driving while his ability was impaired by alcohol, and the case was adjourned to Nov. 6. Defence counsel is J. Weston MacNaught QC.

A resident of Lennox Island was fined $38 and costs for being intoxicated. Summerside detachment RCMP stated the defendant was ferry pilot of the boat from Lennox Island while intoxicated and Magistrate MacDonald imposed the heavier than usual fine in the light of possible danger that could have been caused to passengers.

Richmond, Francis Dallimore, RCAF Station, was fined $10 and costs for driving without due care and attention.

Aubrey Gaudet, Miscouche, was fined $10 and costs for parking on the left side of the highway.

"I am ready to wait until the treaty is signed," Zorin had said "I am not an American courtroom, sir, and I do not reply to questions put as though by a prosecutor."

Moving swiftly in view of the Kennedy-Khrushchev replies, Zorin announced he would begin private negotiations with the Soviet side concerned this morning.

At the outset he would meet separately with the representatives of the United States, the Soviet Union and Cuba.

The 11-member Security Council agreed to suspend the debate indefinitely for the negotiations and the meeting was adjourned without setting a date for resumption of sessions.

There are complete plans for such things as transport, and procurement and distribution of food and other supplies that might be needed, it was explained.

The transport planning would come under the direction of the Federal Government.

Francis Dallimore, RCAF Station, was fined $10 and costs for driving without due care and attention.

Aubrey Gaudet, Miscouche, was fined $10 and costs for parking on the left side of the highway.

Commenting on Mr. Matheson's statement that some 96 questions from the Liberal benches were not answered by the government, at the last session of the Legislature, Premier Shaw said "some questions were answered verbally; some were left to be not in the public interest; and some required long involved answers for which there wasn't time."

Premier Shaw suggested that Mr. Matheson, as leader of the Opposition, "should study some of the progressive measures now being undertaken with the people of the province and use his influence to promote better conditions for the people of the province."

The premier concluded by saying "I appreciate Mr. Matheson's comments regarding my recent illness, and I trust both of us will be in top statement-making form when we meet in discussion of public affairs at the next session of the Legislature."

SCALE MODELS SET UP

Scale models of five types of fallout shelters have been received this week and set up at the municipal office in the City Building. Plans for the shelters are included in the pamphlet kit, which is available to all residents of the province, along with New Brunswick, Saskatchewan and Newfoundland, has not an emergency centre for government headquarters, it was learned from Brigadier A.W. Rogers, Emergency Measures Organization director here. Earlier plans to convert the municipal building here were shelved temporarily, apparently by the setback in federal development.

The emergency headquarters would have direct telephone communications with Ottawa, among other things, and would provide office space and work facilities for provincial officials from the premier down, and also for federal officials who would be assisting in planning and co-ordination of efforts.

Brig. Rogers, a federal government employee, works in time of need with provincial employees meeting at the department level, helping them to coordinate their activity. The provincial civil defence works more directly with the people, he said.
