

100 ATTEND MEAL 229 STUDENTS MAKE DEANS' LIST

A total of 229 students at the University of Prince Edward Island were named to the Deans' List for having achieved academic excellence in their studies during the first semester.

Students are named to the list when they have made 80 per cent or more in their academic studies.

Due to the large number of students excelling, and due to financial constraints, Dr. Kenneth Ozmon, dean of arts, explained that this year, only the top 100 scholars will be guests at the annual Deans' Dinner, planned for Wednesday, March 22, at the Rodd Motor Inn. The guest speaker will be Professor Kari Levitt, political economist at McGill University.

The scholars, by year and faculty, are:
