

Ch'town Business College
AND WRITING ACADEMY
CH TOWN, P. E. I.
This College re-opened for the Fall and Winter Course on THURSDAY, AUG. 14, PROX
Interested students will consult their own interests by entering as soon as possible after the date of opening. Last year we were most successful in placing our students in positions. To enable us to do the same this year they must enter early in the session. There are lots of splendid positions waiting for competent persons to fill. Business men are acquainted with our course and method of instruction and apply to us for competent young men and women. Come and get a live education; one with some backbone in it. If, perchance, you have made a mistake in the past, try an education in which you will be rewarded as you exert yourself. The past is gone, the future is yours. A special course in Shorthand and Typewriting will be given as soon as the term begins. "Phonography What it is and What it Does," by Ben Pitman; also full particulars relative to the College will be cheerfully furnished on application to

LEFT HIS WIFE FLED WITH ANOTHER.
There was an elopement on the steamer Olivette which sailed for Boston Wednesday afternoon. The man in the case is married and he has a wife and child residing in this City. He was employed as a waiter, and took his departure very suddenly. The woman who eloped with him is not known but it is thought that she is a married woman belonging to Truro.—Halifax Ex.

Intestinal Indigestion
There are forms of indigestion and dyspepsia which can never be reached by ordinary stomach medicines and so-called digestants. The kidneys and liver are involved, and though the stomach may be all right, it is the part of digestion which takes place in the intestines that is imperfect.
All over the country are people who are suffering from just this kind of indigestion. They don't get well, because they don't use the right medicine. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are admirably suited for this very trouble. They act directly on the kidneys, liver and bowels, remove the cause, and make a permanent cure of intestinal indigestion, backache, and diseases of the filtering and excretory organs.
Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are vegetable in composition, and remarkably prompt and effective in action. They are kept in thousands of homes as a standard medicine, and have proven by years of trial to be without a rival. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box. At all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON.
LESSON I, FOURTH QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, OCT. 6.
Text of the Lesson, Josh. 1, 1-11.
Memory Verses, S. 9—Golden Text, Josh. 1, 9—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.
[Copyright, 1902, by American Press Association.]
1. 2. The Lord spoke unto Joshua, the son of Nun, Moses' minister.
This is to me the heart of these two verses and of the whole lesson and of the whole Bible—the Lord hath spoken. Note the thrilling words in Isa. 1, 2, "Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth, for the Lord hath spoken," and compare Deut. xxxii, 1; Ps. 1, 1; Heb. 1, 2. In Isa. lvi, 2, we learn that the man whom the Lord regards with favor is the man with a poor and contrite spirit, who trembles at His word, not those who with the boldness of the devil dispute and criticize and minimize His word. Reiterating the assurance that He had given the land to Israel, He bids Joshua as their leader to arise and cross over Jordan. God is their leader, Joshua His servant.

3. 4. Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon that have I given unto you, as I said unto Moses.
And again He defines the boundary as in Gen. xv, 18. The purposes of God are, like Himself, eternal. His counsel stands, and He does all His pleasure (Eph. iii, 11; Ps. xxxiii, 11; Isa. xvi, 10). He who from all eternity saw just what He would do and when He would do it desires men and women who will let Him work in them both to will and to do, having no plans, ambitions or aims, but just to be good clay in the loving and all wise potter's hands, believing His every word or, in the language of this passage, taking possession of all that He says is yours.

5. As I was with Moses so I will be with thee. I will not fail thee nor forsake thee. Joshua had seen as Moses' minister some of the Lord's dealings with him, and he would doubtless feel that this gracious assurance covered all he could possibly need or desire. Unto all Israel and to Joshua Moses had given very similar words of encouragement (Deut. xxxi, 6-9), but now God Himself speaks to His servant Joshua as He had previously spoken to him by Moses, and the words are the same as we shall see in these following verses. Some say, "Oh, if I could only hear God speak to me!" not believing that in His word He is as truly speaking to them as if they heard an audible voice from heaven.

6. 7. Only be thou strong and very courageous.
See this command repeated in each of these verses, with the assurance that what God had sworn to do He would accomplish through Joshua. So there was nothing for Joshua to do but to believe and go obediently forward. He had no strength, but God who sent him had all strength, and Joshua had learned or was learning to say, "In the Lord have I righteousness and strength," and that it was his privilege to "be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might" (Isa. xlv, 24; Eph. vi, 10). There is much comfort in the assurance of Ps. xxix, 11, "The Lord will give strength unto His people, the Lord will bless His people with peace."

8. This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth, but thou shalt meditate therein day and night.
The first two psalms which form a preface to the whole book of Psalms, or, rather, to the five books of Psalms, begin with "Blessed is the man" and end with "Blessed are all they that put their trust in Him." The life of the godly man as set forth in the First Psalm was fully manifest in the man of Nazareth, the Lord Jesus Christ, and was never fully manifest in any other. Yet every redeemed person should manifest that same life as fully as possible. The life of Jesus should be seen in us (11 Cor. iv, 10, 11). This can only be as we let His word dwell in us richly and meditate on it continually and are able to say, "Oh, how love I Thy law, it is my meditation all the day" (Ps. cxix, 97). He has said that if we love Him we will keep His word (John xiv, 23), and the only place to keep it is in our hearts.

9. Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage. Be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed, for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.
The assurance that God sends us and that He is with us covers everything. It is the greatest that mortals can have. It was God's encouragement to Moses, and now to Joshua, and later to Gideon and to Jeremiah (Ex. iii, 10, 12; Judg. vi, 14, 16; Jer. 1, 7, 8). It was also the great encouragement of Jesus Himself when here in His humiliation (John viii, 29), and before He returned to heaven He assured His followers that He had all power in heaven and on earth and that He would be with them all the days (Matt. xxviii, 18-20). If we believe His words, we shall neither be afraid nor dismayed nor discouraged.

10. 11. Within three days ye shall pass over this Jordan to go in to possess the land which the Lord your God giveth you to possess it.
Thus Joshua commanded the officers of the people, for he believed God. The land was theirs as a free gift from God, but they had to enter into it and appropriate it. Jordan was before them to be crossed, and the walled cities and the giants were still there, but there are no difficulties to God or to those who, like Joshua and Caleb, see God only. In our own case as believers in Jesus Christ, redeemed by His blood, it is our privilege to appropriate His promises and by faith in Him live lives of victory over self and sin to His glory. May the encouraging words of our lesson come home to each of us in the power of the Spirit.

That Troublesome Gas
One of the Most Unpleasant Forms of Stomach Trouble and How to Cure it.
The failure of the stomach to properly digest the food manifests itself in many painful and distressing symptoms. One of the most troublesome and difficult results of undigested food remaining in the stomach is the formation of gas. This gas distends the walls of the stomach to a painful degree and frequently presses upward interfering with the action of the heart, thus causing palpitation and faintness.
The gas is the result of the decomposition of undigested food, and there is but one way to correct the evil and that is by restoring to the stomach the best ability to digest all the food properly.
Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are a specific prepared for one purpose only and that is the correction and cure of all Stomach Troubles.
They digest the food, all of it, without the aid of the stomach, thus allowing that organ an opportunity for rest.
Rest is nature's only way to restore the tired organ.
That this theory is a correct one and that Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are the remedy best adapted and most successful in carrying out the successful re-education of the digestive organs has been proven by many of Canada's best people. Among these may be mentioned Mr. W. H. Hermer, Postmaster at Avonmore, N. B., who for a long time suffered very severely with gas on the stomach. Often the food would rise in his throat and these unpleasant symptoms caused him no end of annoyance and distress, but having heard of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, he decided to try a treatment and in a short time was completely cured of both the difficulties which had troubled him. He is completely cured Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets cure all forms of Stomach Trouble.
