FINANCIAL AID INFORMATION

Are financial concerns interfering with your studies? There may be help available. UPEI Student Services has bursary and scholarship information. The following awards' application deadlines are quickly approaching, so act now before it's too late!

PEI Recreation & Sports Association for the Physically Challenged. This bursary is for a physically-challenged resident of PEI who is enrolled full-time in post-secondary education and has some involvement in recreation/sport in Community/School/Other. The deadline is May 15, 1997.

Roger Cairns Scholarship. This award is for students who plan to attend UPEI for their third or fourth year in 1997-1998 and who are abstainers from tobacco, alcohol, and non-medicinal drugs. They must be either candidates for work in Protestant denominations, candidates for work in Catholic Church, or intending to enter dentistry, medicine, or nursing. The deadline for applications is May 30, 1997.

Prince Edward Island Law Student Scholarship: For an Island student who is enrolled or accepted for enrolment as a full-time law student for 1997-98. The deadline for applications is July 31, 1997.

Canadian Forces Personnel Assistance Fund: A loan program to assist serving and former members and their dependents with costs of post secondary education. Applications are available from Canadian Forces Base Financial Counsellors, offices of Veteran Affairs Canada, and Provincial Command Offices of the Royal Canadian Legion.

For more information on these and other awards, visit the Department of Student Development located in the Robertson Library, or call 566-0674.

Call for Nominations Student Union Award

The UPEI Student Union is now accepting nominations for the first annual UPEI Student Union Award for a UPEI Teacher (full-time, part-time, sessional, or otherwise) who has contributed significantly to student life/the student experience, above and beyond the call of duty.

Nominations close Friday, April 11, 4:00pm.

To submit a nomination, write a letter explaining why the nominee should receive this award, and drop it off at the Barn by the deadline.

New Student Orientation

Anyone interested in being on the Executive Committee for New Student Orientation 1997, please contact Jamy-Ellen Proud at JProud@upe.ca or 628-2173. We're looking for 4-5 creative, enthusiastic people with lots of school pride. Experience with Orientation Week is an asset but not required. Compensation package has yet to be determined. Anyone interested in being an orientation leader (lots of fun), contact the same.
