

A Welcome Visitor

(A Toast to the Honorable Joseph A. Bernard, former Lieutenant Governor of Prince Edward Island, native of Tignish.)

The super-greats of men who toil, And represent their native soil— Are those of noble heritage, Not found within the Blue Book page.

But, rather in the heart and mind, Of fellow-men of all mankind— In deeds of kindness they embrace, That fill them with a noble grace.

That classify them in Whose Who, With those enobled, kind and true; Sincere, with strong and helping hand, In native, and, his neighboring land.

A true compatriot and friend, In whom we can with faith depend; Who, to intrigue will never yield— Our friend, and pal of Tommy Shields.

Who visits us each current year— As Good-Will emissary here— Embellished as a precious gem On Station W-VOM—

Adopted and beloved by all— Beyond, and in his duties call, Held high in our esteemed regard— A cheer we give to Joe Bernard.

So honorable and without guile: A native of Prince Edward Isle. —Peter A. Reilly, Boston, Mass. March 26, 1954.
