

This means that there are at least ten people at UPEI who do not clean their clothes. Actually, we'll assume that these people wash their clothes at home, like the eight people that actually voted for home. Most of the staff washes their clothes at home too. So maybe this wasn't the best category on the list, but there are people who do have to wash their clothes in laundromats. We threw a pen at the yellow pages and picked Superclean.

BEST VIDEO STORE

READERS
Jumbo Video
STAFF
That's Entertainment

14 readers said that Jumbo video was the best video store in Charlottetown. Jumbo has a good selection of DVDs and the two for one with a movie stub deal is good, but it has a terrible selection of old videos. That's Entertainment, on the other hand, has an excellent independent/foreign section. The prices for old movies are high, but there is a way of getting any video for free if you don't mind renting Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays.

BEST BOOK STORE

Book Mark

Book Mark

Like pizza parlors, there aren't any good book stores in Charlottetown either. The store that is the least worst in the opinions of the readers and the staff of The Cadre is Book Mark. Not to insult the less mainstream book stores in the downtown area, but Book Mark has a better variety in all topics than anywhere else in Charlottetown.

BEST MUSIC STORE

Back Alley Discs

Back Alley Discs

So maybe you won't be able to get the latest N'SYNC album there, but Back Alley does have a great selection beyond the latest crop of teen pop albums. Back Alley sells both new and used CDs and records, so it's the best of all worlds in recorded music in Charlottetown. Sure, you might have to pay a little more than you usually do for an album, but you'll feel warm and fuzzy for not submitting to the evils of Napster.

BEST LOCAL BAND

Eyes for Telescopes

We were pleased as punch to have both bands play for us at Triskaidekaphobia. The Rude Mechanicals were real troopers by kicking off the show with only about twenty people in attendance. Eyes for Telescopes performed at a more convenient hour, but they were good sports for performing a shorter set than they would have liked.

BEST NEIGHBORHOOD

Queen Street

Richmond Street

In retrospect, this was a really dumb category that should never have made the cut. But we cannot just ignore it and hope it will go away, so here it is. It's hard to call Queen Street a neighborhood, considering it spans all of Charlottetown but that's what our readers chose. We thought that downtown is a nice place, but that is broad too, so we chose Richmond Street to narrow things down.

Best Musical Venue

The Barn

The Barn

Nine readers chose the Barn, whereas eight chose Baba's Lounge as the best musical venue. We agree with the readers because, at least this year, the bands that have been playing there were quite good. It was also our venue for the Triskaidekaphobia concert, which was undoubtedly the best concert that PEI has seen in years.

BEST NEWSPAPER OR PUBLICATION

READERS
The Cadre
STAFF
The Cadre

Was there ever any doubt that The Cadre would win? Actually, the readers were very close to voting for The Buzz (11 votes to The Cadre's 16) as the best publication, but we edged them out by a few votes. It's a good thing too, because the only good thing The Buzz has going for it is the listings for City Cinema. We may not be perfect, but we try awfully hard to give students something interesting to read every week.
