English Golfer Ousts Main United States Threat In British Amateur Title Play

Leslie Gives Giants Win Over Phillies

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) NEW YORK, May 25—Behind Red Lucas' four-hit pitching Pittsburgh Pirates won at Cincinnati 9-2 today to forge ahead of the Reds in the National League standings.

The Pirates battered four Red pitchers for 13 hits, climaxing their attack with a six run rally in the sixth inning that was featured by ragged work afield.

Sam Leslie's home run in the fourth inning with two out at New York gave the Giants a 1-0 victory over the Phillies and a 3-1 decision in the series.

Leslie broke up one of the finest pitching battles of the season. Joe Bowman, Phillies' pitcher, gave only four hits, while Lefty Al Smith was hit safely five times.

Johnny Lanning, rookie Boston pitcher, shut Dodgers out, 8-0, at Brooklyn today and hit a home run in the seventh when the Bees scored the ball game by getting four runs on six straight hits.

The Bees knocked Fred Frankhouse from the mound and continued to hit Tom Baker and Dutch Leonard about as they pleased.

The four-run assault in the seventh started with Lanning's homer. Then Urbanski, Moore, and Jordan singled, and Berger doubled, Frankhouse leaving the mound.

Cucinello's double introduced Baker to the ball game and Baker finally made Lee fly out to retire the side.

A timely pinch single by Jim Collins with the bases loaded in the ninth gave Frankie Frisch's Cardinals a 2-1 victory in their series finale at St. Louis with Chicago Cubs.

The triumph, fourth of the season for Paul Dean, kept the cards at the top of the National League, a slim half game ahead of the close-packing New York Giants.

An error by Stanley Hack and temporary wildness by Bill Lee, who had otherwise pitched perfect ball, accounted for the downfall of the Cubs.

SOFTBALL PRACTICE
Softball practice for the Superior Softball team at Victoria Park, 8 o'clock. Anyone wishing to try out come along.

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, May 25—Cyril Tolly made the British amateur golf championship safer for Britain today by ousting the only two Americans who had matches in the first two rounds.

The round, long driving English internationalist clipped the man considered the main United States threat, Dick Chapman of Greenwold, Conn., 2 and 1 in a second round match in the afternoon after T. Dennis Boardman of South Hamilton, Mass., had topped by 3 and 1 before Tolley's steadiness in the first round this morning.

The only Canadian in the big field, General A. C. Critchley, came within an ace of eliminating the 8 to 1 betting favorite for the title, Hector Thomson, the Scottish champion. General Critchley, once of Calgary and now of London, carried the caddy Scot to the 19 green before bowing out.

Lionel Munn, another Briton looked upon as a potential successor to Lawson Little, the big Californian who turned pro recently and thus became ineligible to defend the crown, fell by the wayside after the day's most gruelling match. Munn was conquered, one up, by J. L. Mitchell after eight extra holes.

Another British top flight player, Harry Bentley, cleared the initial hurdle by defeating Stanley Lunt, 2 and 1.

White Tolley was conquering Boardman in the morning, Chapman bested Kenneth W. Greig of St. Andrews, one up, in a match that was prolonged more than three hours by the American's deliberate play. But in the second round, against the serenely confident shooting of Tolley, Chapman had little or no chance.

The striving American shot even fours for the first nine against Tolley and yet lost three holes to the former champion. Chapman was two down at the turn. He might easily have been five down at the halfway mark had it not been for spectacular recoveries from sand traps on the third, fourth and eighth holes and then negotiating fairly long puts on his first attempt on each of the holes for halves.

Continuing his withering pace, Tolley increased his lead to four up through the 13th hole and then for the first time in the match the Briton faltered, hooking his drives into the rough to lose the 14th and 15th holes.

The match ended on the 17th where Tolley generously conceded the American a 20-foot putt for a half in fours.

The cards of the match:
Chapman 444 444 435-36
Tolley out 354 444 334-34
Tolley in 434 455 44x
Chapman 444 544 45x

The day's developments left three Americans in the field. They are Ellis Knowles and Theodore Bassett of Rye, N. Y., and John Arthur Brown of Philadelphia.

They received first round byes and will see action for the first time tomorrow. Knowles will be matched against Eric Frann; Bassett against Ian Sutherland, and Brown against the former Walker Cupper Len Crawley.

Jack Laroque of Rye, N. Y., scratched his entry today.

Many Crowd Ball Parks For Exhibition Tilts

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) HALIFAX, May 25—Thousands journeyed to the ball parks throughout Nova Scotia today to see how the teams stacked up against each other prior to the opening of the provincial league next week.

Yarmouth Gateways split a doubleheader with Liverpool, taking the first game 4-3 but dropping the second 5-2.

At Springhill, the local fans saw the Fenwickers take two lickings, both whitewashings. Westville led at the end of the fifth, 5-0, when rain interrupted. In the nightcap, the visitors played perfect ball to win, 4-0.

Acadia University, Nova Scotia intercollegiate champions, scored a double victory against Bridgetown Hawks, winning 8-6 and 5-3.

An exhibition game between two Cape Breton Colliery League teams saw Reserve Miner boys invade Sydney Mines Ramblers' camp to grab a 4-2 victory from the home team.

A regular intermediate fixture at Halifax saw the Monarchs and Canadians indulge in a slugging competition before the former team won 16-12.

Rookie Stars As Athletics Upset Yanks

(C. P. Cable) (By Guardian's Special Wire) NEW YORK, May 25—Athletics overcame a five-run handicap at Philadelphia and defeated New York Yankees 10-7 today.

With Lee Ross, a 19-year-old rookie from the North Carolina Textile League, pitching against them, the Yanks scored five in the first when they filled the bases and Bill Dickey cleared them with a triple and George Selkirk followed with a home run.

But Ross stayed in the game and gave up only two more runs in the next eight innings, while the A's knocked Lefty Gomez from the hill and went on to pile up a lead.

Wally Moses hit a home run in the sixth.

Fritz Ostermuller shut out the Washington Senators at Boston, allowing them only four hits while the Red Sox collected six runs, four in the first inning.

The victory, first in three starts for Boston against the Senators, was costly. Rick Ferrell, durable Sox catcher, sprained his ankle on second base after hitting a double. He will be out a week.

Ferrell was the second Sox injured within three days, Bob (Lefty) Grove having suffered a split finger on Saturday.

Immediately after the game Eddie Collins, general manager of the Sox, announced that George Dickey, brother of the Yankee's catcher, Bill, had been recalled from Milwaukee.

Tigers Take First Game

(C. P. Cable) TORONTO, May 25—Outplaying Ulster United at every stage of the game, Froed Mines Tigers, champions of Northern Ontario, captured the first game of the postponed 1935 National League soccer playoffs here today by a 3-1 count.

The return game of the series will be played at a date not yet decided. The Tigers showed more speed, better combination and more accurate shooting around the net to defeat the western section champions.

Bold Venture Suffers Injury

(C. P. Cable) BELMONT PARK, N. Y., May 25—Max Hirsch announced today that Morton L. Schwartz' Bold Venture, winner of the Kentucky Derby and winner of the Kentucky Derby and would not race again this year.

Bold Venture, never a sound horse, suffered the injury during a workout this morning. Trainer Hirsch said. The chestnut son of St. Germans-Possible had just stepped off six furlongs in 1:15 when the tendon gave way.

Bold Venture's victories in the derby and Preakness had given the colt a wide advantage over the rest of the field with the decisive test scheduled for Belmont Park June 6 when the Belmont Stakes will be run. Bold Venture was to have met all his leading three-year-old rivals, including Brevity, Granville, Red Rain and White Cockade, superior winner of the Withers mile last Saturday.

Large Field Ready For Great Open Turf Classic; Taj Akbar Ruled Favorite

(C. P. Cable) (By Guardian's Special Wire) EPSOM DOWNS, England, May 25. Rain fell over Epsom Downs in the special hours today, greatly improving the Derby course over which the great open classic of the English turf will be run Wednesday.

Most trainers were delighted with the rain and would welcome more. The chances of Sir Alfred But's Noble King, third in the wagering at 7 to 1, would be greatly enhanced if the going, still rather hard, were to become much softer.

One of the largest fields in recent years will start and it will not be easy to name the winner. Not only are this year's three-year-olds considered a mediocre lot, but there is no outstanding candidate and several of those prominent in the betting are of the same ownership or under the same trainer.

The "form horse," Taj Akbar, not only will be ridden by England's premier jockey, Gordon Richards, but is the only candidate who has won at the derby distance over the derby course. He remained the favorite in tonight's calover at 13 to 2, despite Lord Carnarvon's Quip at today's pre-derby luncheon attended by most of the owners, that "15 years hence folks will say: 'Oh yes, that was the derby the Aga Khan didn't win'."

One of the best of the longshots is H. G. Blagrave's Couvert, victor over Taj Akbar at a mile. He was quoted at 45 to 1.

Pinned between Taj Akbar and Noble King in the betting was Lord Lord Astor's pay up, winner of the two thousand guineas, at 100 to 15. William Woodward's Boswell was well backed in tonight's calover, the American owned, bringing down to fourth choice at 21 to 2. No American-owned thoroughbred has won the derby since the "boss" of Tammany Hall, Richard Croker, brought over Orey in 1907 to win at 100 to 9.

SWEETSTAKE DRAW
DUBLIN, May 25.—(C. P. Cable)—No Canadian won residual but a number of consolation awards went to the Dominion as drawings continued today in the Irish Free State hospitals sweepstakes.

The 10 residual prizes, of which four went to the United States, were worth £5,337 10 shillings each (about $26,687). One went to South Africa and five to various countries in Europe.

The consolation prizes are worth £100 (about $500) each. The draw is on the derby to be run Wednesday at Epsom Downs, England.

STILL FAVORITE

(C. P. Cable) LONDON, May 25.—(C. P. Cable)—The Aga Khan's Taj Akbar continued favorite by a slim margin today for the derby, the great early summer open classic to be run Wednesday at Epsom.

Taj Akbar was quoted at 13 to 2 in the call-over of odds, with Lord Astor's Pay Up at 100 to 15 and Sir Alfred But's Noble King at 7 to 1 also highly rated.

Other odds: Boswell, 21 to 2; Bala Hissar 100 to 8; Nahmoud 100 to 8; Carloca 20 to 1; Abjer 25 to 1; Thankerton 30 to 1; Midstream and Barrystar, 35 to 1; Raeburn and Fearless Fox 40 to 1; Couvert, His Grace and Bel Aethel 45 to 1; Magne 50 to 1; Haulfury 80 to 1. Odds of 100 to 1 were offered on other entrants.

Charlottetown Golf Club Opens Season

Arnold Taylor of Kensington won both the sweepstakes singles and handicap tournament and the blind hole competition yesterday which officially opened the season at the Charlottetown Golf Club. Taylor's score in the tournament was 81. He had a handicap of six strokes.

Runners up were: W. E. Cotton, Charlottetown, score 96 (handicap 11). A. V. Saunders, Charlottetown, 94 (6).

W. F. Taylor, Kensington, 110 (24). H. L. Sear, Charlottetown, 100 (11). Grant Gregory, Charlottetown, (14).

An increased interest is being taken in golf and according to Jock Anderson, new club pro, the enthusiasm exhibited augers well for a banner season. The new pro who expresses genuine pleasure over the course lay out reports the links in fine shape for this time of year.

Tournaments for Rogers, McKinnon and Wellner trophies will be staged during the summer, besides the Charlottetown title and interclub tournaments between local and western island golfers.

Officers of the club for 1936 are: President, W. K. Rogers. Vice-President, P. B. Conrad. Secretary, H. W. Weeks. Treasurer, H. J. Gordon. Ladies Branch: President, Mrs. L. E. Wellner. Vice-President, Mrs. H. C. Brown. Secretary-Treasurer, Miss Helen A. Grant.

Barney Francis In Comeback

(C. P. Cable) AMHERST, N. S., May 25—Competing at Amner's annual Empire Day track and field meet today, Ross Rowlands of Mount Allison University leaped 19 feet, 3 inches from a slippery take-off board to win the broad jump.

Barney Francis of Charlottetown, former Canadian one mile champion, started a comeback, capturing the half-mile. Noel Paul, Springhill Indian runner, won the mile event.

French Pair Upset English Davis Cuppers To Win Title

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) PARIS, May 25—England's Davis Cup combination of George Patrick Hughes and Charles R. D. Tuckey were beaten today by Jean Borotra and Marcel Bernard of France in the final round of men's doubles of the French hard court tennis championships, 6-2, 3-6, 9-7, 6-1.

The 39 year old Borotra led the French team to its surprising triumph. Borotra gave an exhibition of virtually perfect tennis and was given strong support by his 19 year old partner. Tuckey's inability to win even half of his service games counted heavily against the British combination.

The outcome of the match gave Borotra a share in the French doubles title for the fifth time in 12 years of competition in Roland Garros Stadium. At the same time it renewed French hope of a triumph for the tri-color in a probable Franco-German clash in the European zone Davis Cup Finals.

Conceding Baron Gottfried Von Cramm two singles victories, the French now hope to be able to pick up three points in the other two singles encounters and the doubles. They are counting heavily on Bernard in doubles and believe Christian Boussus and Bernard Destre-meu each can score over Heiner Henkel, second-string Teuton single-player. Anne Page of Philadelphia, last remaining American, was eliminated in the second round of women's singles by the countess de la Valdene, the former Spanish star, Elia de Alvarez, 6-4, 6-0.

A startling upset was scored by Klio Sin Kie, Chinese Davis Cup player, who put out Jean Lesseur, ranked No. three in France, 5-7, 6-3, 6-1, 6-7, 6-4.

Bob Rankine Captures Race

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) ST. CATHERINES, Ont., May 25—Robert (Scotty) Rankine of Preston, Ont., making his first Olympic test appearance of 1936, won the 10-mile Miller road race here today over a field of 35. A crowd of 15,000 watched Canada's greatest distance runner win decisively.

Without being extended at any stage, Rankine finished in 53 minutes, eight seconds. Walter Brimley of Hamilton was second, 250 yards behind Rankine. Another 200 yards back was Milton Wallace of Toronto in third place.
