

Odds and Ends.

"I feel like fighting Koch," remarked the gratified physician when the emperor decorated him.

"That's right, my boy. I'm glad you have thrashed the miller's son; but what had he done to you?" "He said I looked like your father."

The following written definition of the word "bachelor" was handed in by a fifth grade boy: "A bachelor is a man who has no wife, nor wants no wife, nor can't get no wife."

A Liberal Husband.—"George, dear," said a loving young wife, "what are you going to give me for a Christmas present?" "I'm thinking of insuring my life for $10,000."

Mme. Helena Modjeska never allows herself the luxury of getting angry. "I can't afford to get angry," she explains; "a woman at my time of life must economize her emotions and her nerves if she wants to hold the remnants of her youth and her beauty."
