

Appeal Cases Are Finished

SUMMERSIDE—Two of the four cases on the docket of the Supreme Court here were concluded Tuesday before Mr. Justice Mark R. MacGuigan who reserved judgement on both cases until a later date.

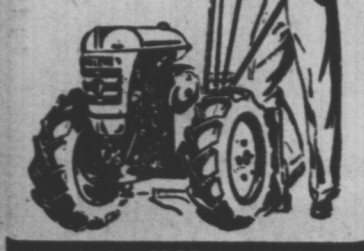

The appeal of Lorne MacFarlane against a speeding conviction was concluded at the morning hearing and the case was set at the foot of the docket for judgement.

Mr. MacFarlane was convicted of speeding in the Bedeque area last fall and was fined $5 in Magistrate's Court.

In the second case, in which the appellant was Joseph Arthur Cannon, Duvar Road, who was convicted several months ago of possession of parts of a still, the evidence was concluded and judgement will be given at a later date.

The other two appeals on the docket are Hartley MacPherson, Dunblane, appellant against a conviction of driving while intoxicated and Ronald Hawkins, Free-land, against a conviction of selling orange extract.

J. Watson MacNaught, Q.C., is defence counsel in all four appeals.

D.O. Stewart, Q.C., and Neil R. MacLeod are acting for the Crown while E.H. Strong, Q.C., is acting for the Excise Department in the Cannon appeal.

'Conciliation' Talk Stirs British Ire

By ARTHUR GAVSHON
GENEVA (AP) — The British Tuesday night struck out at reports that Selwyn Lloyd may be taking a softer line than his western fellow foreign ministers in current talks with Russia.

For days British delegation officials ignored a persistent cross-play of leaks and backstage gossip seeming to question the degree of British political solidarity with their American, French and West German allies.

But under continuing prodding by reporters British delegation sources finally spoke up to emphasize there is not the slightest chance of any independent, or conciliatory, role by Britain during this Big Four conference.

"There is absolutely no difference of opinion between the British and the other Western powers over the basic point which brought this conference about—the Berlin crisis provoked by the Soviet Union," one informant said.

LAST TO SUGGEST CHANGE

"The British would be the last people among the Allies to suggest any move for restricted sessions or for changing the present pattern of the conference," he added.

The United States delegation was authoritatively reported completely satisfied with the measure of its co-operation with the British here.

But it lately has become increasingly evident that the French and West German delegations are uneasy. Both appeared to be working together to ensure that the West should maintain a stand of toughness towards the Russians—tougher at times than either the United States or Britain seemed to be.

The British sources frankly conceded some differences of emphasis had divided them from the allies, but these were resolved by the four Western foreign ministers at their meeting in Paris last month.

Since that time, the informants said, the British have suggested no modifications of this policy.

EXPLOITING MISGIVINGS

Russia's Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko seems meantime to have set out to exploit the apparent French-West German misgivings about the British.

Some officials consider he has been seeking deliberately to foster an impression that he has a special relationship with Lloyd. Tuesday night the two met at dinner—their fourth two-sided session since the big four talks began.

Each time the two have met—and on occasions Lloyd saw Gromyko as conference chairman—more talk developed about "British conciliation."

This sort of thing irritated the British delegation.

It also formed the background to these developments:

1. The Americans have been assured Britain contemplates no big governmental credit to the Soviets to boost trade. A trade mission now negotiating in Moscow has no political significance, the Americans were told.
2. Lloyd himself appears to

A. J. Gaudet Laid To Rest

SUMMERSIDE — The very largely attended funeral of the late Arthur J. Gaudet of Misconche took place Tuesday morning at St. John the Baptist Church.

Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated by the pastor Rev. J. D. Kelly. Officiating as deacon was Rev. John Buote of Mont Carmel, and sub deacon was Rev. Leonard MacDonald of Wellington. Rev. Pius Murnaghan of Grand River was master of ceremonies.

Interment took place in the church cemetery with Father Kelly officiating.

Pall bearers were Frank Arsenault, Gabe Arsenault, Emmanuel Richard, Gordon Cutcliffe, P. C. Martin, D. H. Gallant.

TORY WONDERS Political Slanting Will Be Checked

OTTAWA (CP) — Progressive Conservative members on the Commons broadcasting committee served notice Tuesday they will question the CBC closely on the political balances of its news commentaries and public affairs broadcasts.

Louis Fortin (PC—Montmagny-Islet) said four news commentators on the CBC's French television network, who are seen "all the time," all are active members of "a certain socialist party." He did not identify them.

Robert McCleave (PC—Halifax) said there is a growing opinion that the choice of people for news commentaries and public affairs talks operates "under the old pals act, using the public purse to help friends."

Charles Jennings, CBC controller of broadcasting, told Mr. McCleave that was "definitely not the case."

At Tuesday's meeting committee chairman Ernest Halpenny (PC—London) said the committee's steering group has decided the CBC should produce figures on the cost of producing some of its TV shows, and the extent to which the costs are covered by commercial sponsors.

Last week E. L. Bushnell, CBC vice-president, told the committee the CBC did not want to disclose the figures because they involved competition among sponsors.

Tuesday Mr. Halpenny said the CBC is being asked to give production costs and commercial revenues for 1 hour and half-hour evening TV shows. The shows would not be identified.

Montague Guild Holds Meeting

MONTAGUE—Mrs. James Shaw presided at the regular meeting of the Presbyterian Guild, Montague, Monday evening at the church hall.

The meeting opened with the hymn "Holy Spirit, Trust Divine" followed by Scripture reading by Mrs. Claude Nicholson and prayer by Mrs. Emerson O'Connor.

There were 14 members present. The correspondence and minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Stewart West and the financial report was presented by Mrs. Leland Nelson. The sum of $20 was voted towards the new deaconess training home.

have assumed a fairly passive role in the conference now leaving Secretary of State Christian Herter to lead the Western contest against Russia.

St. Marks Plan Pot Luck Supper

The president, Mrs. David L. McInnis entertained 13 members of St. Mark's Church Guild, Kensington at the regular monthly meeting on Tuesday evening, May 12, and opened the meeting with the collect for the 1st Sunday after the Ascension.

The treasurer, Mrs. Joseph Harding gave a detailed account of the finances and reported a bank balance of $68.01. Material for drapes for the church vestry and materials to be made up for sale were displayed by Mrs. Gordon Cooke representing the buying committee. Final plans were made for a pantry and rummage sale to be held May 16.

On motion by Mrs. Eric Ingraham seconded by Mrs. Elmer Paynter and passed, a pot luck supper will replace the closing meeting on June 9. All members of the congregation will be asked to join in this project which is planned for the purpose of fellowship as well as a fund raiser. The offering a cent a meal amounted to $3.28. The meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostess assisted by her daughter Ruby, and members.

Strike Fund Is $500,000

OTTAWA (CP) — A union-sponsored "strike and relief" fund for Newfoundland loggers has reached about $500,000. Canadian Labor Congress spokesman said Tuesday.

The congress had set May 31 as the target date for a fund of about $1,000,000, but the subscription rolls will be left open indefinitely beyond that date.

The fund was begun for the assistance of members of the International Woodworkers of America (IWA) and their families. The loggers have been on strike against Anglo-Newfoundland Development Company since Dec. 31.

Most of the proceeds of the fund, the CLC spokesman said, is being used for the relief of some 800 needy families. Some was to be used to help the union fight Newfoundland legislation which decertified it as bargaining agent at Anglo-Newfoundland.

The money is being administered by the CLC's executive committee as trustee. The CLC has asked each of its members—about 1,000,000—to contribute $1.

The congress also is running a postcard campaign aimed at bringing parliamentary pressure on the federal government to disallow the Newfoundland legislation. Some 500,000 postcards have been distributed to Canadian union members with the suggestion they be mailed to individual MPs.

Borden Man Is Acquitted

SUMMERSIDE — In Magistrate's Court here Tuesday the case of a Borden man charged with illegal dealing in motor vehicles was dismissed by Magistrate R. S. Hinton, Q.C.

The magistrate said that the accused didn't come under the definition of a dealer on the evidence before the court.

The man had been charged after selling a truck to a Freetown resident some months ago. The truck was bought in Ontario and brought to the province and sold, according to evidence, at much less than the dealers price in this province.

George MacMahon was counsel for the accused.
