Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Jay and family, who left here last week to return to Halifax where Mr. Jay is attached to the R.C.A.F., were forced to return to their old home again owing to the outbreak of polio at the barracks where they reside. They will remain here until called back when the cases are cleared up.

Mr. Ernest Tobin, a C.N.R. sectionman here, lost a valuable horse last week. Mr. Tobin turned the horse loose in the field in the morning with a new leather halter on his head and in some manner the horse got the halter caught in the binder that was in the field and fell down and was strangled to death. In his struggles to get free the horse pulled the heavy binder several feet and when Mr. Tobin came home in the evening after work he found the valuable horse dead, his feet on the apron of the machine and the halter caught around the neck. It is thought the horse scratching his head became caught and in his efforts to get free lost his balance and was hanged by the strong halter.

Had Eczema For 40 Years!

Itching Misery Spread Over Hands, Arms and Legs Tells How He Found Relief

"For over 40 years I have had to submit to the curse of Eczema spread over hands, arms and finally my legs," writes Mr. M. R. of Vancouver, B.C. "I gave up all hope of ever finding a remedy that would give me a little relief. I tried everything. Three months back I was compelled to leave a good job on account of the condition of my skin. After being home for a month, I read an advertisement of your Emerald Oil. I bought a bottle and applied a few daubs on my raw flesh. Sure!—what had I found! I wish you could see my skin today. If I did not have the living proof on my own body, no one on this Earth could ever possibly convince me that it was possible to have such a remedy act and operate so rapidly. Gentlemen, I wish to heartily thank you."

If you or any relative or friend suffer from any form of itching skin troubles, you will make no mistake in giving Moore's Emerald Oil a trial. Stainless—Greaseless—but extremely efficacious. Moore's Emerald Oil is obtainable wherever drugs are sold.
