

N.S. Liquor Law To Be Unchanged

HALIFAX (CP) — Agriculture Minister Halliburton said here Wednesday no immediate changes in Nova Scotia's liquor laws are in prospect.

Mr. Halliburton, who is in charge of the Liquor Control Act, told the annual meeting of the Canadian Women's Temperance Union recent reports predicting liberalization of the province's liquor laws were "sheer speculation."

KENSINGTON

The funeral of the late James Archibald Campbell was held on Thursday afternoon from his late residence to Presbyterian Church at Kensington, with services being conducted by Rev. E.H. Bean.

Mr. James Pendergast, Charlottetown, has been visiting friends in this area during the past week.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the family of David L. Clark, whose death occurred on Saturday, September 6th, at the P. E. Island Hospital following a lengthy illness. The funeral which was very largely attended was held on Tuesday afternoon from the home of Mr. Leslie Clark. The service was conducted by Rev. L.M. Murphy. Interment was in the Floral Hill Memorial Gardens where a Masonic service service was held.

Mrs. William Champion and daughter Iris, have returned to Halifax, N.S. after a pleasant weekend with relatives in Kensington.

Mr. and Mrs. George Crozier, Hamilton, have as their guests, their youngest son, Glendon, and Mrs. Crozier and daughter Jane of Madagaska, Maine.

The September meeting of the Darnley and Sea View, Women's Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. Gordon Cousins on Tuesday evening with a good attendance.

Among the men from this area who attended the conference at Stanhope were Messrs Eric Grant Malpeque; Fverett Donald, Verduin Paynter, Joseph Woodside, Everett Champion, Stirling Miller, Nelson Caseley, Robert Caruthers, Carl Champion, Leaman Casely, Fenton Mayne, Errol Sharpe and Crawford Sinclair, Kensington.

Miss Roma Stewart of Norboro, left recently for Ottawa, where she has been transferred to the Royal Bank. For some time Miss Stewart has been employed at the Royal Bank at Hunter River, C.V.

HOWLAN

Jean and Lloyd Adams of O'Leary, were in Howlan recently. The Misses Pauline and Patricia Finnan have gone to Tignish to continue their studies in Grade X.

The Ladies of St. Anns Club are planning this year to hold a lobster supper instead of the yearly chicken supper to be held on Thursday night, September 18 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Finnan for members and their partners. Bingo will be played each member to furnish for supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ferguson, who were visiting here left on Tuesday on return to their home at Halifax, while here they were the guests of Mr. Ferguson's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Caruthers.

Miss Florence Gallant spent Tuesday visiting her aunt and cousins at Woodstock.

School re-opened on Wednesday, September 10th, after the Teachers Convention which was held at O'Leary.

Threshing of the harvest has now started in this district and a considerable amount of rust or blight is reported.

Mrs. Joseph S. Gallant of Lot 6 and grand child Delia, are visiting in Howlan.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence DesRoches and Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard who spent the past week in Howlan and Tignish, left on Monday for their home at Rumford, Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Tennis Peters and J.B. Arsenault went to Alberton on Thursday, September 11 and on return they were accompanied by Mrs. Arsenault, who had been a patient in the hospital there.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe DesRoches have as guests, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence DesRoches and Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard of Rumford, Me.

Forty hour devotions opened at St. Anthony on Friday morning at 7 a.m. Mass celebrated by the pastor. A good number attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence DesRoches and Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard of Rumford, Maine, Mr. and Mrs. Joe DesRoches of Hamilton, and Mrs. Dominic Arsenault of Charlottetown, went to Tignish on Wednesday where they visited with relatives and friends a couple of days.

Mrs. Arthur DesRoches has returned home from the Community Hospital, O'Leary. Everyone wishes her a speedy and complete recovery.

MISCOUCHE

The Miscouche convent alumni held a meeting on Sunday in the convent, Mrs. Felix Gaudet presided.

Friends of Reta Backer of Miscouche will be glad to know she has returned to her home, after having spent some time in the Charlottetown Hospital, where she received treatment.

Peter Steele of Miscouche recently left for St. Dunstan's University, Charlottetown, after having spent the holidays at his home in Miscouche.

The Sisters and teachers of Marian Academy, Miscouche, attended the teachers' Convention which was held in Summerside.
