St. Mary's Win Bowl Game On Rain Drenched Field

By DON ANGUS

HALIFAX (CP)—St. Mary's University Huskies overcame nine penalties and a scrappy McMaster University defence to pull out a 15-1 victory in the Atlantic Bowl game here Saturday over the Marauders from Hamilton, Ont.

The Huskies captured the Robert L. Stanfield trophy in their first crack at the Atlantic Bowl, bunching their points in the first and final quarters.

St. Mary's who finished in a first-place tie with St. Francis Xavier University in the Atlantic Football Conference, opened up a 9-1 lead early in the fall classic

McMaster, undefeated Ontario Intercollegiate Football Conference champions this season, surprised the more than 4,000 spectators at Wanderers' Grounds here by smothering St. Mary's charging backs on several occasions and countering with an unexpected combination of off-tackle rushes and fourth-quarter passes.

St. Mary's triumph was the fifth victory by an FAC team against invited representatives of the OIFC and the senior Intercollegiate Football League. The Huskies carried on the powerful tradition of St. FX who scored wins in four of the last five post-season Bowl games.

TED PURNELL LEADS

Huskies' rookie Ted Purnell ran back McMaster's opening kickoff 15 yards to begin a 60-yard march that culminated in a field goal and an early 3-0 lead.

John Schneider's boot from the McMaster 30-yard line later proved to be all that St. Mary's needed to keep the Atlantic Bowl from the Marauders for the second time in four years. McMaster, defeated by the X-men of St. Francis Xavier in 1961, answered with a rouge on Volker Leyerzapf's third - down punt in the first quarter, but it was the visitors' last threat.

The Huskies increased their margin to eight points before the quarter ended. Moving from their own 25 after McMaster's single, the Huskies picked up five yards on quarterback Dave Murphy's left-end sweep, then two bursts off left tackle and around right end by fullback Paul Puma swept St. Mary's to the Marauders 41-yard line.

A 31-yard pass-and-run play from Murphy to Al Keith put Halifax University on the 10 and after a holding penalty nullified an eight - yard gain, Murphy lobbed a 12-yard pass into the end zone that Keith pulled in for six points

The Marauders could not organize an offensive surge in the second quarter, but their lighter line and pass defence thwarted St. Mary's ground and aerial attacks.

A slippery turf, soaked by rain Friday, slowed the offence of both teams. McMaster failed to get out of their own zone in the second quarter and when St. Mary's rushing backs did manage to find a foothold and get through the Marauders' line, penalties and a key interception hurt them.

One burst, highlighted by Puma's 33 - yard sprint off left tackle, went by the boards when George Adams intercepted a pass by Murphy on the McMaster nine-yard line. The Huskies later attempted two field goals, but Schneider was short on both.

The third quarter was marked by the rushing of McMaster fullbacks Steve Ostapchuk and Ted Favot. In a drive from the Marauders' 40-yard line to St. Mary's 29, Osatpchuk carried four times and Favot twice. The fullbacks ate up 133 yards rushing between them in the game.

McMaster missed a field goal attempt in the final quarter and quarterback Mark Timpany went to the air six times in the last seven minutes to try to even the score. But Paul Puma, Daryl Burgess and Ted Purnell launched the Huskies on a 70-yard march to paydirt in nine plays to salt away the victory.

Puma, who rushed for 144 yards in 19 carries, went over for St. Mary's on a two-yard plunge to round out the 15-1 score

Marauders' quarterback Mark Timpany completed three out of 14 passes for a loss of 15 yards, while Dave Murphy of St. Mary's had four completions in 10 pass attempts for 70 yards. Puma tossed three passes, none of them complete.

Cats Turn Mental Lapses Into Two Key Touchdowns

By JACK SULLIVAN
Canadian Press Sports Editor

HAMILTON (CP) — Hamilton Tiger-Cats Saturday shook off an early case of jitters to go and demolish Ottawa Rough Riders 26-8 and move into the Grey Cup final by an almost-unbelievable 39-38 margin in the two - game total - point Eastern Football Conference final. They turned Rider mental lapses into key touchdowns to do it.

The Ticats will meet British Columbia Lions, Western Conference champions, in the Grey Cup game at Toronto next Saturday. The Lions bombed Calgary Stampeders 33-14 Sunday to take their best-of-three conference final two games to one

No one, except possibly coach Ralph Sazio and his players, figured Ticats could overcome Ottawa's 17-point bulge manufactured on a 30-13 first-game victory a week earlier. But, then, this is old stuff to Tiger-Cats who now have made it to the Canadian classic seven times in the last eight years.

Toronto Argonauts are painfully aware of this. In 1961, they took an 18-point lead into Hamilton for the showdown contest by virtue of a first-game 25-7 victory. Tiger-Cats caught them to tie the round 27-27 after 60 minutes and then plastered Argos with a 28-point over-time half to win the series 55-27.

HISTORY REPEATED

So history repeated itself at the bitterly-cold Civic Stadium before a small chilled crowd of 21,100 who probably forgot their chilblains in the weird second half when Ticats scored 15 points. 14 of them within a space of 117 seconds that turned a 36-24 serieh deficit into a 38-36 lead. They gleefully accepted them, particularly two gift touchdowns.

If anyone had to be the goat, the horns might fit 23-year-old Ed Ulmer, an import from Ohio State University. But then, Ottawa's offensive squad couldn't be recommended for a citation in their woeful final 30 minutes when they managed only three first downs, 60 yards rushing and lost one of two fumbles.

Even at that, the Riders had a chance in the final three minutes to go ahead 40-39 and possibly salvage this series. But a 39-yard field goal attempt by Moe Racine with the 30-mile-an-hour wind at his back went wide for a single. Racine had kicked two field goals from the 16- and 17-yard lines in the opening quarter and Ulmer added a single early in the fourth.

Ulmer was the unfortunate victim of Hamilton's third-quarter touchdowns by Tommy Grant and quarterback Bernie Faloney. Earlier in the second quarter Don Sutherin blocked his attempted punt deep in Ottawa territory and Dick Cohee followed the dribbling ball into the Rider end zone where he pounced on it for Hamilton's first touchdown.

It was a nightmarish few seconds for Ottawa's defensive half and punter in the third.

First, he allowed Grant to get behind him in the Ottawa end zone to pick off a 20-yard pass from Faloney. Ulmer appeared to be in position to knock it down, or even intercept the high, floating pass.

Then, with Riders deep in their own end of the field and in a third-down punt situation, the snap was wide. Ulmer, with a horde of Ticats booming in on him, picked up the ball at the one and tried to advance. He was splattered right there and on the next play Faloney sneaked over for the touchdown that put Tiger-Cats ahead 38-36 on the round.

KICKED 3 CONVERTS

Sutherin kicked all three converts and added four singles on wide placement attempts. His final point, the one that proved to be the winner, came at 8:21 of the final quarter. Joe Zuger, out with injuries since Sept. 26, booted a second-quarter single.

The final statistics gave Hamilto a big edge. They gained a total of 289 yards—229 of them along the ground—on 15 first downs against 216 for the Rough Riders who moved the sticks seven times. Riders gained 150 yards rushing and 66 passing.

Minor League Is Underway

The Charlottetown Forum was a bee hive of activity on Saturday, when hundreds of youngsters participated in the opening day of play in the Charlottetown Minor Hockey League program for 1964-65. With 38 teams competing in paperweight, pee wee and Bantam divisions, a host of referees, coaches and other officials were busily engaged in keeping the program rolling for a highly auspicious start.

Registration of players was also continued throughout the day, with a large number of youngsters signing on in the various divisions. These will be added to the present rosters of existing teams or will be formulated into new teams.

The combined midget and juvenile divisions will commence play on Monday and Tuesday of this week, with other games still to be scheduled later in the week. The first two weeks or so will be exhibition contests in all divisions with regular league play getting underway early in December.

Irish Top Ohio For Ninth Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Top-ranked Notre Dame continued unbeaten in United States college football Saturday, while Michigan led a parade of teams into post - season bowl games by blanking Ohio State and grabbing the Big Ten title.

Notre Dame rolled over Iowa 28-0 for its ninth victory, leaving only Southern California in the way of its first undefeated, untied season since 1949. The Irish, however, apparently will not play in a bowl game since the major pairings have been just about completed.

Sixth-ranked Michigan moved into the Rose Bowl, defeating seventh-ranked Ohio State 10-0 with the help of a Buckeye fumble.

The Wolverines did not know immediately who their Pacific Athletic Conference opponent would be since Southern California and Oregon State finished in a tie for the title. USC crushed UCLA 34-13, and Oregon State nipped 10th-ranked Oregon 7-6 on Booker Washington's one-yard smash and Steve Clark's extra point with 54 seconds left.

The Sugar Bowl was filled as eighth-ranked Louisiana State and ninth-ranked Syracuse accepted invitations. LSU defeated Tulane 13-3, but West Virginia edged Syracuse 28-27, giving the Orange their third loss in 10 games. LSU is 7-1-1.

Florida State earned a Gator Bowl berth by knocking off Florida 16-7 behind three field goals by Les Murdock. The other spot remained to be filled.

Texas, No. 5, already is in the Orange Bowl and will be joined by second - ranked Alabama after the Crimson Tide's Thanksgiving Day game with Auburn. Texas was idle Saturday.

Third - ranked Arkansas and Nebraska, No. 4, warmed up for the Cotton Bowl but in different ways. Arkansas shut out Texas Tech 17-0 while Nebraska fell to Oklahoma, 17-7. The loss stopped the Cornhuskers' winning streak at 16.

Tulsa put itself in line for a bid to the Bluebonnet Bowl by routing Toledo 39-16 Saturday night. Tulsa quarterback Jerry Rhome completed 21 of 35 tosses for 305 yards, to set NCAA records for the most rushing and passing plays in a career—971. He broke the record of 935 set by George Mira of Miami from 1961 to 1963.

Halfback Leads Argos To Win

WINNIPEG (CP)—A dazzling individual effort by halfback Gerry Burrows, backed by a defence that crushed all second-half bids, led Toronto East York Argonauts to a 41-25 win over the defending champion St. James Rams in a Canadian senior football final Saturday

Burrows scored three touchdowns, caught four passes for 65 yards, rushed 10 times for 84 yards and picked up nine of Argos' 25 first downs. He was selected most valuable player in the game, watched in 15-degree temperatures that kept the crowd to about 1,000.

The Toronto defence, wobbly in the first half as Rams took a 24-20 lead, closed all gaps in the last 40 minutes, holding St. James to 21 yards rushing and one pass completion in 14 attempts. Argo defenders also intercepted three aerials in the second half

Halfbacks Pete Warren and Ian Monteith and fullback Ray Williams scored the other Toronto touchdowns, fruits of an Argo offence that piled up 509 total yards.
