A letter was read from Rev. Ross C. Easton acknowledging receipt of a contribution to Temperance Federation.

The president read a half-yearly report from Mrs. Nell Diamond, Mission Band Leader, which showed an increase in attendance, interest and giving. She thanked the auxiliary for treats given the children at their closing exercises.

The president, Mrs. A. B. Bag-nall, welcomed Mrs. F. W. Cut-cliff, president of the Presby-terial, who addressed the audience, taking as her subject United Church Women at Work.

This was a timely and challeng-ing talk. She said "This is a changing world and Christians must lead the way. We must change the world instead of the world changing us."

The Mizpah benediction brought the meeting to a close.

Afternoon tea was served, af-fording the members time for a friendly chat.

There passed peacefully away at the Charlottetown Hospital on April 22, 1955 after receiving the last holy rites of the Catholic Church, Samuel Donovan, aged 73 years.

The late Mr. Donovan had not been enjoying the best of health for the last seven years; since he suffered a stroke which affected his speech; although he was able to go around with the aid of crutches. One week previous to his death he developed pneumonia and despite the best of medical care and nursing he was called away from this world of earthly care. During his declining years he was tenderly cared for by his wife and family. The late Mr. Donovan was twice married; his former wife was the late Estelle Doyle from Hope River. To this union four children were born, three of whom survive as follows: Vie, Mrs. Wallace Henderson, City; Ada, Mrs. Ollicut Rafuse, City; also James, one son predeceased him in infancy.

His second wife whom he married in 1928 was Annie MacWilliams from Belfast, survives him; also three daughters: Mrs. A. MacDonald, N.B.; and Patricia aged 11 at home. One son died in infancy.

He also leaves two brothers Charles and William who also a number of grandchildren and great grandchildren who will miss him very much.

As a young man he was employed with Hickey and Nicholson Tobacco Co., for a number of years.

He left there to serve his country on March 28, 1916. He enlisted in the 105 Infantry Battalion and served in Canada, England, France and Belgium with the 13th Infantry Battalion. He was discharged at Halifax, N.S. on 14th of February, 1918, being physically unfit. He subsequently served in First Depot Battalion Nova Scotia Regiment, April 12, 1918 September 3, 1918, also in C. A. M. C. E. F. from December 1, 1918 to May 22, 1919 S.O.S.

His funeral was held Monday April 25 at the Hennessey Funeral home to the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Gregory Murphy, C.S.R., who officiated at the service at the grave.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Al Dowling, Fred Steele, Robert Nicholson Roland Heron, Louis McCoubrey and William MacCabe.

The Canadian Legion attended in a body. The Canadian Legion grave-site service was conducted by Leo Doyle Jr., Secretary of the Charlottetown Branch.

George Harold McLaren Passes Suddenly

Suddenly at Colonel Belcher Hospital, Calgary, Alberta, on Sunday morning, May 22nd, as the church bells called the people to worship, God called the soul of George Harold McLaren to his eternal home.

He was born at North Lake, P. E. I., on November 9th, 1919, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Earle McLaren of Ottawa Ontario, formerly of P. E. I.

In 1940 "Har", as he was known to his friends, enlisted in the R. C. A. F. at Charlottetown and took his Initial Training at Bramford, Ontario. After his discharge from the service, he travelled across Canada, settling in Vancouver, B. C.

There he had a prosperous business. In 1954 his business extended to Calgary, where he remained till the time of his death. From Gooder Bros. Funeral Home Padre Rev. Orme conducted the funeral service, which was under the direction of the Veterans.

He was laid to rest in the "Field of Honor" at Burnside Cemetery with full Military Honors.

He leaves to mourn, besides his sorrowing parents, one sister, Thelma of Ottawa, a niece Heather and a nephew, Harold, who is his name sake, numerous aunts and uncles, besides a host of friends.

Life is eternal. And love is immortal. And death is only a horizon. And horizon is nothing save the limit of our sight.

He leaves to mourn, besides his sorrowing parents, one sister, Thelma of Ottawa, a niece Heather and a nephew, Harold, who is his name sake, numerous aunts and uncles, besides a host of friends.

Life is eternal. And love is immortal. And death is only a horizon. And horizon is nothing save the limit of our sight.
