Clean School Rooms.

An ideal, but we are assured quite necessary, state of cleanliness for healthful school rooms requires that the floors shall be dampened and swept every day, with all the windows open; the dusting to be done the next morning with a damp cloth. In addition to this cleaning, Dr. Adams, who is the President of the Orange County Medical Societies, believes that at least every other day the floors should be thoroughly scrubbed with soap and water. The various women's clubs throughout the country whose members are interested in the work of the public schools will do well to find out how near the school rooms where their children spend the greater part of their waking hours approach this state.

No Need For Agitation.

The eminent physician was irritable. Calling the porter, he said, "Who is it that keeps singing 'I would not live always?'"

"It's the lady in the apartment above, sir."

"Well, tell her that as a professional man I am prepared to assure her that he won't, and that there is consequently no cause for further agitation on her part."

Too Light.

Mr. Quilp—Well, here's a new idea; they are making aluminum ships now.

Mrs. Quilp—Gracious! They won't let me on any of them! I want something heavy enough to hold down the waves.

Inconsistency.

Isabel—She is so inconsistent!

Julia—Yes, indeed! Why can't she make up her mind how old she is and stick to it?

ANOTHER SUFFERER MADE HAPPY.

A Toronto Lady Says That Paine's Celery Compound Accomplishes All That It Claims To Do.

Those who are fortunate enough to use Paine's Celery Compound are always blessed physically and mentally. They receive what they most stand in need of—renewed health, vigorous appetite, and healthy digestion.

When these blessings are restored to those who have suffered daily for long months, there is a generous flow of pity and sympathy towards others who are bound by the chains of disease and sickness, and a disposition to tell the good news that Paine's Celery Compound cures.

Mrs. Laura Garland, 676 Crawford street Toronto, was long a sufferer from impaired digestion, causing continual pain in the head. Her appetite was poor, and her general condition of health was of such a nature as to cause alarm to her friends. She wisely made use of Paine's Celery Compound, and was made well and strong, as the following extracts from her letter will show:—

"Your Paine's Celery Compound has most wonderfully improved my health. Before using it my appetite was poor—almost gone; I was also weak and debilitated, and suffered severely from pains in the head.

"Paine's Celery Compound certainly does all that is claimed for it. I have recommended it to my friends, and they all speak highly of the results received from it. I wish Paine's Celery Compound the success it so richly deserves."

British emigration to the United States shows a marked falling off. Up to the beginning of the present month this year's arrivals from the United Kingdom number 27,000 less than for the same period last year. Canada's figures, on the other hand, show a gain of 1,000 during the same period. The gold fields of South Africa and West Australia have attracted the stream of British emigration in their direction. Our gold fields in British Columbia and in the Rainy River district may counteract this influence and cause an increased movement of population to Canada, especially as in the Transvaal and Matobeleland the conditions of business are unsettled, and in West Australia the want of water makes mining difficult.

GREENS FOR AUTUMN.

Diamond Dyes Give the Richest Colors.

The manufacturers of the justly popular Diamond Dyes constantly avail themselves of every improvement in the manufacture of dye stuffs, thus giving to home dyers all over the world each and every advantage possessed by the largest manufacturers on earth.

Have you tried the Diamond Dye Fast Dark Green, Diamond Dye Fast Olive Green, and Diamond Dye Fast Bottle Green? For the dyeing of Wool and Silk goods, these Greens are certainly triumphs of science.

For the coming autumn the above Greens, with their varied shades—Hunter's Green, Myrtle Green, Bronze Green, Russian Green, and Old Green—will be all the rage for ladies' suits and dresses. Use only the "Diamond," and you will surely get the best results and colors.

Business prospects in the States are distinctly brightening due chiefly to the improvement in the political outlook. In addition to this very important factor it is to be remembered that September is usually a month of greater activity than July or August. Travelling salesmen report a much better feeling, and collections are said to be improving. Merchants generally seem to anticipate increasing trade; for shelves are empty, and many new enterprises which will give added employment to labor and increase the demand for materials, are simply waiting to be inaugurated. After a long period of contraction the expansion will inevitably be the more pronounced once a real beginning is made.

Completely Knocked Out.

"I was so much run down I had to give up work, and I felt as if life was not worth living," writes Wm. W. Thompson, Zephyr, Ont. "I took Scott's Sarsaparilla and am now feeling as I did years ago." Scott's Sarsaparilla tones up the entire system, purifies the blood, and eradicates rheumatic and scrofulous poisons. Ask for Scott's and get it.

A SCORCHER'S REVERIES.

The Effrontery of Other People Positively Astonishes Him.

Ting-a-ling! Ting-a-ling!
Get out of the way, there!

By George, that was a close call for that woman—and for me! I don't see what people are thinking of. They walk out into the street just as if they had a right to be there, and some one is always trying to cross just as I want to turn a corner. There ought to be a law against it—a law that would compel pedestrians to remain on the sidewalks, where they would not be in the way of those who really have rights in the streets.

Look out! Hi, there!

Confound it all! Children ought to be chained up in their parents' yards. They are always getting in the way, and yet there would be an awful roar if I should run over one. No one would stop to think that they were encroaching on my rights, and I would probably go to jail. That shows the injustice and favoritism of our social system. Here am I, a wheelman of some importance in the 'cycling world, actually compelled to moderate my speed and move with care and caution lest I run over some child that has been sent to the corner to buy a cake of yeast, or some woman who is trying to usurp some of my rights by crossing the street. It is outrageous, preposterous—

Hi! Hi! Ting-a-ling!

Great Scott! The old lady came near being obliged to turn a double somersault. She'd ought to have known that I would want to turn that corner; but, of course, old people are inclined to be a little slow-witted at times. That's why they should be kept off the street. As a matter of fact, streets ought to be tunneled or bridged at every corner. That is the only way wheelmen can be protected in their rights, the only way in which pedestrians can be forced to—

Ting-a-ling! Ting-a-ling! Clang! Clang!

Jumping Jupiter! but that was a close one! That's what comes of giving the streets over to the tender mercies of trolley companies. I almost disputed the right of way with that car, and it never pays. I don't see why they are permitted in the streets anyway. They have absolutely no respect for the rights of others, and should be barred for all time. They are a source of constant danger to wheelmen, and that is enough to—

Hi! mister, do you think you own this road? Get your old buggy out of the way! It takes up the space of two bicycles.

It's an outrage that people with wagons and carriages should be permitted to use the paved streets and get in the way of wheelmen. It never ought to be permitted. Let them take the unpaved streets if they must go out, where they won't be a menace to those who have the first claim to the paved streets. I wonder if we could not get the council to pass some such law as that. It's worth trying anyway. I'll bring it up at the next meeting of our bicycle club.

Wedded to a Tree.

A curious custom prevails in certain parts of India which may be called a symbolical marriage. In families where there are several daughters the younger sisters may only marry after the elder sister is married. That, of course, is not always the case, but the obstacle can easily be surmounted if the elder sister declares herself ready to marry some tree or a large flower or some other lifeless object. In this way the disagreeable consequences of disregarding the time-honored custom may be avoided and the younger sister can safely be wedded to her living choice. The elder sister must, however, take care not to choose a poplar tree, an elm tree or a pine; if she chooses a plum, apple or apricot tree, she may get a divorce—that is to say, shake it off as soon as a real man will ask for her hand—while if she marries one of the first three named trees she cannot easily shake her marital bonds, for these trees are sacred and must not be trifled with.

An Exchange of Favors.

The following anecdote displays one of those characteristics possessed by the Prince of Wales which have helped to earn for him the title of "The First Gentleman of England:" When the train conveying the Prince and Princess of Wales to Aberystwith stopped at Welchpool station recently, the little daughter of Mr. Denniss, the general manager of the Cambrian Railways, presented the Princess with a bouquet. After other presentations had been made the Princess called the child back, when the latter offered to the Prince a buttonhole of lillies of the valley. The Prince accepted the gift, and remarked, "If you give me this I must give you mine," and he thereupon took from his buttonhole a fine carnation and handed it to the child.

God's Plants.

We are as yet only the roots of a future beautiful plant. The best man or woman is only a shoot a little way out of the ground. We are God's plants, God's flowers. Be sure that He will help us to unfold into something serenely fair, nobly perfect, if not in this life, then in another. If He teaches us not to be satisfied till we have finished our work, He will not be satisfied until He has finished His.—James Freeman Clarke.

On Lower Levels.

We all live on far lower levels of vitality and of joy than we need to do. We linger in the misty and oppressive valleys when we might be climbing the sunlit hills. God puts into our hands the book of life, bright on every page with open secrets, and we suffer it to drop out of our hands unread.—Canon Farrar.

As great Britain gets out of debt it becomes easier for other nations to plunge more deeply in. Having paid off £124,000,000, or $620,000,000, of the national debt in the last twenty years, she has increased by that amount the funds from which foreign governments may raise their loans. Within the last three years the United States alone has increased its debt by one-third of this amount.

In England small families are hardly the rule among the "upper ten." The average is seven or eight children. The Queen is the mother of nine and the Princess of Wales of six children. Lord Abergravenny is the father of ten, the Duke of Argyle of twelve, the Dowager Countess of Dudley is the mother of seven children, the Earl of Ellesmere boasts of eleven, the Earl of Inchiquin of fourteen, the Earl of Leicester of eighteen, and the Duke of Westminster of fifteen.

The Appellate Court of Illinois, Fourth District, has decided that ploughing corn on Sunday in the sight of church goers does not in itself constitute a disturbance of the peace. The defendant being a Seventh Day Adventist, observed Saturday as the Sabbath and ploughed corn on Sunday, and his arrest and conviction resulted. The case was appealed to the Appellate with the above result.

Finding Time to Read the Bible.

He who cannot find time to consult his Bible will one day find that he has time to be sick; he who has no time to pray must find time to die; he who can find no time to reflect is most likely to find time to sin; he who cannot find time for repentance will find an eternity in which repentance will be of no avail; he who cannot find time to work for others may find an eternity in which to suffer for himself.—Hannah More.

Doctor—My dear madam, I can do nothing whatever for you.

Lady—Gracious! What is the matter with me?

Doctor—Nothing.

His Own Messengers.

It is God's glory to accomplish His work by messengers of His own choosing, and He often hides the meaning of His ways from His own people. Some may have made too much of the imperfections of the Bible, but others assuredly have refused to see them lest they should lose what faith they had. Shall we on that account attempt to exclude either party from the number of Christ's followers? That is a matter to be decided by Christ himself on far other grounds than their opinion of the "higher criticism," but, looking at the matter from our own point of view, it is well to remember that the middle ground to-day is not the middle ground of even a generation ago. There is an unreasonable exclusiveness of narrow belief as well as an inconsiderate inclusiveness of careless liberality, and it is possible to be more concerned for God's honor in the study of the methods of His work than He has ever cared to be.

Commercial Travellers.

Wm. Golding, commercial traveller, 130 Esther St., Toronto, says: For fifteen years I suffered untold misery from Itching Piles, sometimes called pin worms. Many and many weeks have I had to lay off the road from this trouble. I tried quite other pile ointments and so called remedies with no permanent relief to the intense itching and stinging, which irritated by scratching would bleed and ulcerate. One box of Chase's Ointment cured me completely.
