DUBLIN, Oct. 24.

Sergeant Sherlock, formerly member of Parliament, has been retained by the Crown to prosecute the agitators. There is now no doubt as to the charge. It will be conspiracy. Dillon, in speaking at Donegal, said that before Christmas there would be a branch of Land League in every county of Ulster.

DUBLIN, Oct. 24.

It is ascertained on the best of authority that Foster, Chief Secretary for Ireland, swore an information to-day charging a number of prominent members of Land League with conspiracy, and that application for their arrest will be made to the courts early next week. The following are the gentlemen selected for prosecution: Charles Stewart Parnell, M. P.; Joseph Biggar, M. P.; Arthur O'Connor, M. P.; J. J. O'Kelly, M. P.; Alexander O'Sullivan, M. P.; Mr. Egan, Treasurer of Land League; Brennan, its Secretary; Messrs. James Redpath, Kettle Boynton, and Sheridan Daly, journalists; Harrington, journalist; Tully, journalist. In view of difficulty in obtaining a verdict from an Irish jury, it is said to be the intention to apply to Queen's Bench for a change of venue and bring accused for trial before an English jury. Government claims to have this power under the Judicature Act. Its exercise would be regarded as a revolution in Irish politics and place agitators at mercy of English Government. Leaders of Land League think that if they are tried in England they will be certainly convicted. Large reinforcement of troops are being hurried into Ireland. They are sent to occupy commanding positions in Connaught and Munster. It is feared that grave trouble may arise on arrest of the Irish leaders.

GALWAY, Oct. 24.

A great Land League meeting was held here to-day, 40,000 people being present. Parnell addressed the meeting. He condemned the despatch of reinforcements of troops and police to Galway, denounced Foster, Chief Secretary for Ireland, as a hypocrite, declared Government solely responsible for the assassinations, and maintained that the only remedy was autonomy of Ireland. He appealed to the people to be resolute and put an end to English misrule.

O'Connor Power asserted that tenants were suffering more than slaves of South Carolina ever had. Other meetings were held in various parts of the country, but no disorder is reported.

LONDON, Oct. 24.

It is stated positively that the Reform Club has raised £270,000 for general election purposes. Dukes of Bedford and Devonshire are said to have given £45,000 each, and Duke of Westminster still larger sum.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 24.

The outlook for Russia is very gloomy, as the country, whose export is forty million quarters, will have to buy grain from abroad. How to feed the peasantry during the coming winter is the problem occupying the attention of the Government; and there is no ground for expecting good harvest in future as insects defeat efforts to exterminate them.

UNITED STATES.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 24.

Rev. Dayton Darrell, Pastor of Hamilton Street African Methodist Church, in this city was found dead in his bed. He was 64 years of age.

There was a slight fall of snow this morning, followed by heavy wind all day.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.

This morning Thomas McCormack, who was brutally beaten by a gang of ruffians in a 6th Avenue "dive" known as the "Star and Garter" a month ago, in company with Edward Lyons, one of the most skillful burglars in the country, entered the "Star and Garter" and engaged in an altercation with Hamilton Brock, proprietor. Lyons placed a pistol at Brock's stomach and pulled the trigger, but the weapon missed fire, when Brock retreated to the basement and the men left. At six o'clock both men returned and succeeded by pretending they were friends of Brock's from Boston in again gaining access to establishment, when Lyons with loaded revolver in his hand told men congregated about bar to stand back, and that he intended killing Brock. His first shot missed the mark and Brock stooped in time to escape a second ball which went crashing over his head through glasses on bar. Brock then drew a revolver and fired three shots in rapid succession at Lyons, two of which took effect, one ball piercing the right lung and the other entering his left jaw. Lyons was then pulled into street by friends, when three policemen came and, receiving no response to their knocks, for admission broke open the door and arrested Brock, who was concealed on the top floor. Lyons was taken to New York Hospital, where surgeons said he could not survive his wounds. Later in the day Brock was held to answer in one thousand dollars bail. At Hospital the wounded man gave the name of George E. Enning. He is the husband of the notorious shoplifter, Sophia Lyons, who not long since endeavored to release prisoners from Sing Sing prison, by false keys. Six years ago Lyons and wife fled to France and lived two years on the proceeds of crime committed here, but returned. The man was captured and sent to Sing

Sing for three years and six months, which term he completed about two months ago. New York, Oct. 24.

HEAVY LOSS.—Two barns and their contents were destroyed by fire at Kensington, on Monday morning. They belonged to Mr. James Stewart, and contained 40 tons hay, 300 bushels of oats, 100 bushels of wheat, one mowing machine, sleigh, and numerous other articles. They were insured for $600. The loss is estimated at $1,600. The fire, it is supposed, caught by a spark from the dwelling house flue.

REV. DR. LEEMING.—The opinions unanimously expressed by the press of Charlottetown with regard to the oratorical abilities of the Rev. Dr. Leeming, who is once more amongst us, have been fully endorsed by the press of Boston, the "Athens of America." The Rev. gentleman lectured three times during his stay in that city, and such was the effect caused by his first two lectures on "Daniel O'Connell" and "Mary Queen of Scots," that the Music Hall, capable of seating 3,000 people, was filled to overflowing by an enthusiastic gathering, to hear his closing address on Shakespeare. The Boston Advertiser, of Oct. 20th, has the following:—"The Rev. Dr. Leeming's lecture at the Music Hall, on 'Shakespeare,' was a noteworthy success. Although the weather was unfavorable, such was the reputation gained by the lecturer, through his previous lectures here a few weeks ago, that an immense audience came together, and was most hearty in its applause."
