Casey Stengel Calls It Quits

By JIM CULLEN

The announcement that Casey Stengel will relinquish the reins of the New York Mets following the completion of this season was rather dramatic, but it was not unexpected. After all he had to quit sometime!

The announcement of Stengel's retirement immediately raised the question who will succeed the 'grand old man of baseball' as 'straw boss' of the amiable Mets.

Wes Westrum pinch-hit for Casey when he was forced into hospital as a result of a fractured hip which has left Casey in a wheelchair despite the fact that the operation was successful.

Casey's decision to quit, came on the advice of his doctor. The Mets have been packing the fans into Shea Stadium and will need another colorful character, such as Mr. Stengel was, to keep the attendance figures where the Mets management enjoys watching them.

The likely man for the job appears to be Yogi Berra, who was fired as manager of the New York Yankees last year and is now a base coach with the Mets.

Yogi still has great fan appeal and his presence at the helm of the Mets would likely secure their position as the 'darlings' of New York baseball fans.

Stengel's decision to quit the Mets ends a career which started in 1919 when he broke into professional baseball as a left-handed outfielder.

His managerial career was highlighted by his 12 years with the Yankees, when he won 10 pennants and seven World Series. He also managed Brooklyn 1934-36 and Boston Braves 1936-43.

Casey was a good major league outfielder for 14 seasons compiling a .284 lifetime average and playing with Brooklyn, Pittsburgh, New York Giants, Philadelphia Phillies and Boston Braves.

Tourney Goes Saturday

Prince Edward Island's next big golf event comes this holiday weekend. It's the annual Labor Day tournament for Cavendish Sept. 4, 5 and 6 and this year's promises the greatest entry list ever.

The popularity of the event may be judged by the fact that despite the extending of the tournament to three days, all those wishing to enter cannot be accepted.

In all there will be a total of 18 divisions, four each for men, women and juniors.

In order to handle the entry, it will be necessary to start players off No. 1 tee in flights of four every six minutes for a total of 24 hours. This requires a lot of hard work and organization on the part of the staff who work under Green Gables pro, Errol Nicholson.

The men (3rd division) and Juniors play their first round Saturday afternoon while on Sunday the divisions parade in the following order: Men's 2nd, 1st and championship division, women's championship, 1st, 2nd and nine hole division, followed by the second round of the men's 3rd division.

Hank Seifred, RCAF, Summerside, is the defending champion. The complete draw of the first round will appear later this week in this paper.

New Track At Dundas

Neil Matheson provincial farm-editor for this paper, informs us that Dundas has installed a new quarter mile track for running events in the annual track and field meet in connection with the Dundas-Plowing Match. An interscholastic meet will be conducted at Dundas Tuesday afternoon (next) week with Sours, Montague and Morell scheduled to take part. Wednesday afternoon they will be open events for both male and female competitors. The junior events will be staged Thursday afternoon.

Pulling Match Set For Dundas

Tug-of-war will be featured at the Dundas Plowing Match next week with lightweight and heavy teams expected in the competition.

The fact that a Kings County team, Red Point Farmers, won the Maritime championship last November at the Atlantic-Wentworth Fair, Halifax, has sparked new interest in this competition.

The St. Peter's team won the championship at Dundas a year ago, and they are expected to give the Red Point boys heavy competition this time. The Red Point team said last year that the St. Peter's tug-of-war team gave them heavier competition than they met in the Maritime pull at Halifax.

The class for lightweight teams calls for 10 men with a combined weight of not more than 1700 pounds. There is no limit on the heavyweight teams.

If enough teams enter at Dundas eliminations will be held on Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock. The finals are slated for Thursday afternoon at four o'clock.

Rules drawn up include the requirement that each team shall consist of 10 men, a coach and two spares. No others can compete for a team.

The pull shall be twelve (12) feet and the time limit is five minutes.

In any division two losses eliminate any team.

Entries are to be sent to Brian Clay, Dundas and postmarked not later than September 4, 1965.

S' side Races To Go Tonight

SUMMERSIDE - Night after night at Summerside Raceway the pre-race favorites have been 'also rans' and the 'form' players have been walking around in circles and touching card looks as though it will be another evening of upsets and big pays.

With the average win pay now over the $10.00 mark and the feature pays hovering around $50.00 the betting should be evenly spaced over the board, and well it may, because in all classes the horses are classified in such a way that to pick a winner is bordering on the impossible.

In the three double dash events, races four and eight although not the fastest horses will get a big play from the betters as seven pacers and one trotter will be in three battling for the top spot.

In the feature trot - five of the best trotters on the island will face the gate and with the two 'fast breaking' trotters Audrey's Pride and Rio Grand on the outside positions it will be quite a race into the first turn.

The feature pace will have six starters and thus shapes up into being a real 'horse race'. Orchestra Leader, back on his home track again, will have to pace in top form to keep his record of only one loss on the Summerside track intact.

The other single dashes each with eight starters form up to be one of the better race cards to be seen in Summerside this season.

Maritime Racing

TRURO (CP) - Sir Sampson was the only double winner on an eight-dash card here Tuesday night, clocking miles in identical times of 2:11.2. Other winners were Jollytop at Pittsburgh, Law (15:8), (N), Los Angeles, Drysdale (18:11), (N), San Francisco, Manteo (19:9), (N), Philadelphia, Short (14:9), (N).

JUST WAITING
Armbro Flight, one of the favorites for this year's Hambletonian, is walked around the stable by groom Tom Caraway. Armbrro Flight enters the Hambletonian with a winning streak of twenty two straight. Heavy rains kept all the entries in their stables with no workouts today. (AP Wirephoto)

Junior Baseball Opener Goes In S' side Saturday

Sports Editor

John Kane, president of the Island Amateur Baseball Association, announced yesterday that the junior series between Summerside Legion Juniors and Charlottetown's Legion Junior squad will be a best-of-seven affair, for the island junior championship.

This series was originally scheduled as a best-of-five affair, but officials of the Island Amateur Baseball Association voted to have the series lengthened in order to give the boys more ball.

This will be the best calibre of baseball available for local baseball fans this season, sports minded persons should get out and support these juniors as these are stars of tomorrow, so to speak. If we hope to see baseball stage a comeback here we have to have good junior teams.

Charles Ryan will be piloting the Charlottetown youngsters and Charlie told us yesterday he will have his forces in high gear for their tussle with their opponents from the western section of the Island.

Charlie has had the nucleus of this present team under his guiding hands for the past four years and he has high hopes for his forces. He is operating with a skeleton crew of 10 players, but has 10 of Charlottetown's best juniors in harness.

DEFENDING CHAMPS
Henry 'Pius' Gallant will be handling the Summerside Legion outfit again this year and the Gallant coached forces are defending Maritime union champions.

The opening game of their best of seven tussle will be played at Summerside's Queen Elizabeth Park this Saturday afternoon. Action is slated to get underway at 2:30.

Charlie told us yesterday that the opening game will be carried by CJRW radio station and that they hope to have a play-by-play description carried on CFCY, as well.

Ontario Junior Golfers Nip Quebec For Can. Title

By PAT DINEEN

BRANTFORD (CP) - Graham Cooke fired a one-under-par 71 Tuesday over rain-drenched course to lead Ontario to a six-stroke victory over Quebec in the Interprovincial junior team golf championships.

Miget Teams Play To Tie

The first game of the Provincial Miget finals was held last evening at Memorial Field, Charlottetown, with the game between Charlottetown and Mt. Stewart-Morell ending in a 3-3 tie.

Gerry Murphy was on the mound for Charlottetown and he struck out six, walked two and allowed one hit.

Leo McGuire pitching for Mt. Stewart-Morell struck out ten, walked one and was reached for four hits, a double by Willie McCallum, and singles by Robert Stewart, Gerry Murphy and Wilbur Birt.

The series resumes in Mt. Stewart this afternoon at 2:30 p.m.

TODAY'S DRAW
12:30 George and McAleer vs Cameron and Huggan.
2:30 18 and under: Turner and Michael vs MacKinnon and Ellis.

Ball Practices
There will be a Juvenile Practice in Montague this evening at 5:30 and all players are requested to attend.

There will be a practice for the Charlottetown-Intermediates this evening at Memorial Field beginning at 6:15. All players are requested to be in attendance.

A full turnout in uniform is requested for the Canadian Legion Juniors this evening at 6:15 in Memorial Field.

All members of the Charlottetown Angels softball team are asked to attend a practice at Spring Park School this evening beginning at 6:45 by coach Gerry Manson. The following players are asked to be on hand: Basil Larciam, Jim Petrie, Mike Larrier, Jim Dowling, Gord Bowtle, Bob Bevans, Rick Chandler, Billy Chapman, Alan Gallant and Bernie MacKinnon.

International rules are easier for a referee to follow than some Canadian rules, Daignault says.

"There's no bodychecking in the offensive zone and with less body contact a lot of the roughness is taken out of the play."

"There are no icing calls to make and no board-checking is allowed. With the elimination of the icing rule, the two-man refereeing team can actually split the ice surface in half and this cuts down the distance each man has to skate during a game."

Despite these differences, Daignault says he would prefer to see hockey played by Canadian rules.

"The European style of play misses a lot of the color we put in the game and I still prefer it our way, even though it is more work for me as an official."

Gordon Jukes, secretary-manager of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, announced in July that Daignault and William "Dutch" Van Deelen of Edmonton had been chosen to referee games between Russian, Swedish, German and Czechoslovakian national teams Nov. 22-30.

The choice of the 41-year-old Daignault capped a 12-year career that started with Quebec's bush leagues and culminated in the handling of national junior and senior finals.

It means a lot to the Montrealer because he "came too late to refereeing" and guesses he's "too old for the NHL." He took up officiating to keep in shape after retiring as a player from amateur hockey in the Montreal area.

The 1962 Memorial Cup final - a rugged six-game affair - featured Edmonton Oil Kings and Niagara Falls Flyers. The Westerners won in what Daignault describes as one of the hardest series he has handled. Two players suffered broken legs.

In 1961 he was appointed a member of the QAHA executive and was named to the board of referees.

Short Stop, 7-to-2, Ned Bower; No. 4, Marengo Hanover, 10-to-1, John Simpson; No. 5, Victory Cadet, 15-to-1, George Sholy.

No. 7, Evans Hanover, 25-to-1, John Patterson; No. 8, Egyptian Candor, 8-to-1, Del Cameron.

Perfect Freight, a 6-to-1 choice in the No. 9 position, will be driven by Clint Hodgins, a native of Clondeboye, Ont. Toronto native John Chapman will drive the '45 - to - 1 longshot, Poplar Jamie, starting out of the No. 11 position.

The remainder of the field, post positions, unofficial odds and drivers include:

No. 2, Hercules Hanover, 25-to-1, Harold Dancer Sr.; No. 3, choice at 3-to-1 although drawing the opening heat's outside No. 10 post position.

O'Brien, a 48-year-old harness racing veteran who now lives in Shafter, Calif., won the Hambletonian in 1955 with Scott Frost and in 1960 with Blaze Hanover.

Ralph Baldwin, a native of Lyndminster, Sask., will drive Nimble Boy, a 5-to-1 pick in the No. 11 position.

The possibility of a record heat, however, all but disappeared. Only under ideal conditions could the blistering mark of 1:56.45 set by Ayers last year be approached.

Unofficial odds remained a strong 1-to-2 for Noble Victory, driven to 30 straight triumphs by Staffley Dancer, who will be aiming for his first Hambletonian win after five misses.

DRAWS SIXTH SPOT
The winner's share is $59,900 and Noble Victory, purchased two years ago for $33,000 by K. D. Owen of Houston, Tex., already has earned $290,506 to be the richest horse ever entered in the Hambletonian. He is in a favorable No. 6 post position.

Armbro Flight, driven and trained by Joe O'Brien, a native of Alberton, P.E.I., twice a Hambletonian winner, is second made it close with the lowest 18-hole team total of the tournament. Helped by Doucet's 73, the team recorded 312 and combined it with a 323 Monday for a 635 total.

Alberta, which trailed Ontario by only two strokes after the first round, dropped nine strokes to the winners and finished third.

The combined entry of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island had 645. Peter Rossignol of Bathurst, N.B., had a 36-hole score of 154 to pace the team to a fourth place finish. Manitoba finished fifth with 650.

British Columbia and Nova Scotia finished sixth and seventh respectively with 661 and 671 totals. The biggest comeback of the day was made by Nova Scotia team member Chris Seaver of Halifax, who carded a 74 after coming in with 100 Monday.

Saskatchewan, the defending team champion, could only manage an eight-place finish, seven strokes behind Nova Scotia. Only the Newfoundland team, entered in the competition for the first time, finished lower. Its members, all 16 and under had a total of 724.

The qualifying round determined the 64 golfers who advanced to match play competition beginning today. The cutoff score was 165. The tourney ends with a 36-hole match play final Saturday.

Doucet was third among the qualifiers behind Cooke and Turner with a 149.

Covehead Kart Park will be the scene of the Maritime Go-Kart championships next Monday, Labor Day, Sept. 6 at 1:30 p.m.

Top drivers from Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island will compete including defending champions R. Birt, Covehead, M. MacLean, Charlottetown and Keith MacLean, Charlottetown.

Two classes, Stock 'A' and Super 'A' will be staged as Covehead Park winds up its 1965 activity.

Here's a partial list of drivers who will compete next Monday: Frank Wright, Al LeBlanc, Bob Ferguson, Bob Legere and Pete Peterson, all of Saint John; Bob Dobson, Don Dahr, Doug Lively of Halifax; Don Allen, Covehead; George Scantlebury, Sherwood, Blyth Rodd, Sherwood, Avard Clow, Percy MacPhee, Charlottetown and Garth Scott, Southport.
