was by the unrelenting parental care and guidance. It was here that she received her primary education, and passed through the stages of girlhood and adolescence. Certainly, her parents were wont to gaze upon this child and this young girl and admire those enviable qualities of heart and mind, then apparent, and later to grow in virtue increasing daily and terminated only by death itself.

Probably one of the most outstanding attributes of her person was her devotion to duty. This was manifest in the manner in which she performed her tasks with respect to her home, to her church, and to her community.

Elizabeth, as she was familiarly known, was born at Selkirk on March 8, 1889, the youngest of a family of twelve children born to Peter McIntyre and Catherine McCorkick. It was here in her youth that she indulged in innocent playful fancies, nurtured as she

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. ARTEMAS G. MACCAULL. North Bedeque mourns the loss by death, of Mrs. A. G. MacCaull, who passed away at an early hour on Wednesday morning. She was in her 74th year. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John M. Baker, and lived all her life in that community. And with her husband she identified herself with the work of the Church, being devoted to the Women's Missionary Society for many years, as well as other branches of the work of the Church. She was a woman of quiet disposition and kindly nature and much beloved by all who knew her. Besides her sorrowing husband, she leaves to mourn her passing two daughters, Mrs. Jack Rodd, Milton and Mrs. John Green, Bedeque. Also two sons, Ralph Carleton and Lorne on the homefront. One brother Mr. Roberts, North Bedeque also survives. There are several grand children. The funeral services were held on Friday afternoon, 2nd. There was a large gathering of relatives and friends from various sections of the province, as far west as O'Leary and as far east as Winsloe. After a short service at the home, the procession repaired to the North Bedeque United Church which was filled. The pastor of the deceased, Rev. Kenneth Campbell, was in charge. He was assisted by Rev. Theodore Foss, of Bayfield, N. B., a lifelong friend of the MacCaull family. Rev. E. S. Weeks, of Bedeque. The hymns sung by the choir were "The Lord's My Shepherd", "Lead Kindly Light", and "Forever with the Lord." Mr. Campbell brought a comforting message. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Heath Clark, James Clark, Ralph Callbeck, James MacDonald, Norman MacMurdo and Robert Hogg. Interment was in the North Bedeque Cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM

ARTHUR BRUCE CAMPBELL. The death occurred suddenly on Feb. 17 in Somerville, Mass., of Arthur Bruce Campbell, aged 49 years, son of the late Ewen and Tamer Campbell of Alberton. Although in failing health for several years, his sudden death came as a great shock to his family. He was employed with the Beth Israel Hospital, Brookline, Mass., and having completed his day's work he passed away peacefully upon retiring. Funeral services were held at the J. J. Good Funeral Home, 336 Dudley St., Roxbury, Mass., on Feb. 20th. Rev. Willard Callender of the Grace Baptist Church, Somerville, officiated, bringing words of comfort to the bereaved family and many friends who had gathered to pay their last tribute of respect. The hymns, "Sunrise Tomorrow", and "Beyond the Sunset" were beautifully sung by Mrs. Myrtle Mitchell of Everett, a close friend of the family. On Feb. 21 at 12 noon in the beautiful cemetery in Farmington, N.H., he was lovingly laid to rest beside his two little sons, Arthur Ewen and Donald Bruce, who predeceased him, the committal service being read by the Rev. Blanchard of the Congregational Church, Farmington. The many floral pieces bore a silent tribute to the love and esteem in which he was held. Left to mourn the loss of a kind and loving father are his two daughters, Jean (Mrs. Richard Greenberg) of Dedham, and Barbara, at home. Also surviving are two brothers, William, of Revere, and Keir in Alberton; and two sisters, Georgie (Mrs. Edgar MacArthur) Charlottetown, and Marion (Mrs. Percy Kinch) of Alberton. The West African Institute for Trypanosomiasis Research was opened at Kaduna, recently by the Governor of Nigeria. Two-thirds of the $700,000 cost of the establishment was borne by the Colonial Development and Welfare Corporation and the balance shared by West African Territories. All women flying from North America to the Festival of Britain in B. O. A. C.'s Monarch Service will be given a beauty kit in a blue handbag.
