

Drowned.

A SAD drowning accident occurred in Hillsborough Bay on Wednesday night, whereby Mr. Peter Stewart, farmer, of Belle Creek, lost his life. Mr. Stewart took passage in the small packet which left Belle Creek with a cargo of oats on Wednesday morning. When they had passed Point Prim a thick snow storm prevailed and the wind blew strongly from the south. The Blockhouse light was not visible, but the packet ran on in its direction, with mainsail gaged. About eleven o'clock a passenger named John H. Compton and one of the crew named Beaton were forward on the lookout, while the deceased was standing—unknown to them—on the windward side. The guy accidentally loosened and the mainboom gybed, struck the deceased, knocked him overboard, broke the rudder, and the craft came up in the wind. Compton hearing the splashes caused by his falling, and not knowing the deceased was on the deck, sang out to Beaton, "Are you all right?" Beaton responded that he was. Instantly Mr. Martin came out of the cabin and asked if anyone fell overboard. The cries of Stewart were then heard in the distance. No boat was on board to launch, and nothing could be done to save him. Mr. Stewart is son of the late Alexander Stewart, of Belle Creek, and was about 30 years of age. He leaves a wife and one child to mourn their sad and untimely loss.
