All About Brownies

The Brownies of St. Paul's are increasing their numbers weekly and are passing many tests too numerous to mention. A special presentation will be held shortly to which parents will be invited—more about that later.

Parkdale Brownies too are very active and have passed several tests this week. We shall have such a lovely crowd of First Class Brownies very soon in all our Packs. Proficiency Badge work is also very popular with the Packs this year, there never were so many.

Central Royalty Brownies are in the news again. On Nov. 8th they gave a concert at the School and parents and friends were present in good numbers. The Programme was a little too extensive to put in our full column but it certainly contained lots of variety with Brownie songs and Hallowe'en skits. Enough money was made to buy a complete Brownie outfit and also to give a gift to Tawny Owl Adele MacAusland and Doreen Smith who won a trip to Toronto in a W. I. Comp. Recruits, Phyllis Stewart, Carol Nichol, and Judy McDonald were enrolled and Proficiency Badges were received by Susan Morrison, Annie Laurie McLean, Marilyn Carr, and Phyllis Nicholson. What splendid progress this Pack makes and such fun for the Brownies who really enjoy their weekly visits to Brownie-land.

Willis - Docherty Wedding

The chancel altar of Clyde River Presbyterian Church was prettily arranged with autumn flowers on Sept. 27, at 5.30 o'clock when Rev. Donald Nicholson officiated at the impressive double ring ceremony uniting in marriage, Miss Blanche Elaine Docherty, Elmwood, P. E. I., daughter of Mrs. Alexander Docherty and the late Mr. Docherty, and John Samuel Willis, of Kingston, son of Mrs. Hubert Willis and the late Mr. Willis, in the presence of upwards of ninety invited guests and a large assembly of friends.

To the strains of the wedding march, beautifully rendered by Miss Joyce Nicholson, the bride entered the church on the arm of her uncle, Mr. John Docherty, by whom she was given in marriage.

She was charming in a floor-length gown of traditional white satin with fitted bodice and full skirt with lace peplum and yoke and long sleeves, forming lily points over the hands. Her finger tip veil of French illusion was held in place with a headdress of seed pearls. She wore white slippers and carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Miss Jean Docherty, as her sister's maid-of-honour, was beautifully gowned in turquoise nylon over satin on similar lines to the bride's gown with matching mitts and headdress. She wore gold slippers.

Miss Joyce MacSwain, friend of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore pink taffeta with fitted bodice and full skirt and had a lace yoke with mitts and headdress. Both attendants of the bride carried sweetpeas.

Gloria Willis, niece of the bride and groom was very winsome in nice green organza and carried a basket of seasonal flowers in her charming role of flower girl.

The groom was ably supported by his cousin, Mr. Roy Younker. Little Allan Willis, nephew of the bride and groom was ring-bearer. The guests were ushered by Mr. Stanley Godfrey and Mr. Earl Willis. During the signing of the register, Mrs. Joyce Nicholson sang "O Perfect Love".

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home. The bride's table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom and was cut in the traditional manner by the bride and groom.

Assisting in serving were Miss Evelyn Godfrey, Miss Eleanor Axworthy and Miss Alice Edwards. The bride's mother was dressed in a gown of black silk, matching accessories with silver fox cape. The groom's mother was similarly attired.

Later in the evening, a happy group of serenaders arrived to wish the happy young couple many years of wedded bliss.

The following day, the bride and groom visited interesting parts of the Island. For traveling the bride wore a grey coat with navy accessories. She wore mink furs, a gift of the groom. They will reside in Elmwood for some time.

Kingston and Vicinity

Rally day was observed in the Kingston United Church on Sunday evening, Oct. 29. There was a very large congregation of parents and friends and a splendid programme was carried out by the children.

The Kingston United Church Mission Band held a very successful pantry sale on Nov. 4. It was well patronized and the many food articles on display found ready purchase.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm MacSwain, Miss Joyce MacSwain, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Shaw and family were Sunday guests to the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Jewell.

Other visitors with various friends in the Kingston Village during the week-end were: Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Stevensen and family.

Sincere sympathy from this community is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hansen upon the sudden death of his father.

Best wishes are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Younker on their recent marriage.

Mrs. William Colville was hostess to the members of the Kingston W.I. on Nov. 3. This being the annual meeting the election of officers for the coming year took place.

Among the boys from this vicinity who attended the boys conference in Charlottetown were Master Milton Ward and Reginald Newson.

Infirmary Patients Are Entertained By Church Group

On Thursday evening, November 9, a group of young people from Trinity United Church entertained the patients of the Provincial Infirmary, Kensington Road, to a very enjoyable program.

Family were recent visitors to Churchill.

Mr. Heber Campbell, Mr. Whitfield Yeo and Mr. Sterling Willis were among the many who are attending the Amherst Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. William Colwill, Mr. Jack Colwill, Mr. Edgar Newson were visitors to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mac Ferguson in Stanley Bridge on Sunday, Oct. 29th.

Mr. Stewart Smith in his jovial capable manner, acted as master of ceremonies and the following program was much appreciated:

Two very interesting films showing the beauty spots of Prince Edward Island and Nova Scotia were shown by Harold Jones.

Reading — Marion Andrews. Guitar Selections — Earl Hobbs. Solo — Marion Andrews, accompanied by Earl Hobbs on the guitar.

Sing-song — by the group. Duet — Marion Andrews and Shirley Downe, accompanied by Earl Hobbs.

Piano selection — Shirley Downe.

Reading — Dorothy MacLaren. Sing-song — by the group.

The evening's program was brought to a close by the hymn, "What a Friend We Have In Jesus" and "God Save the King."
