SOUTH GRANVILLE W. I.
 Mrs. Mae Morrison was hostess to the members of the South Granville Women's Institute for the meeting on January 4th. The meeting opened in the usual manner, with the president, Mrs. Sterling Corbett, presiding. Eleven members responded to the roll call, and three of these paid membership fees. The minutes of previous meeting were read, approved and signed. The treasurer reported $58.55 as proceeds from recent bazaar, which amount was increased to $59.33 following an auction sale of two cotton remnants, with two Indian blankets still on hand. Correspondence was read and included one "thank you" note for a treat received, and a letter from Mrs. W. E. MacKinnon, Social Welfare convener, re booklets entitled "Personal Protection Under Atomic Attack". After some discussion the secretary was asked to send for a copy of above named booklet, and 10 cents was paid for same. Bills of $1.50 for treats and $1.53 for school supplies were paid.
 It was moved by Alexander Keir, seconded by Mrs. Louis Corbett that a donation of $50.00 be made to the secretary of trustees for school purposes.
 New committees were then appointed as follows: Sick: Annabelle Keir and Mae Buchannan. School, Mrs. John MacLeod and Mrs. Sterling Corbett. Lunch, Mrs. Wellington MacInnis and Mrs. John MacLeod.
 The programme for the evening consisted of an abbreviation contest put on by Annabelle Keir and the prize was won by Irene MacLeod.
 Mrs. Sterling Corbett kindly invited members to her home for the next meeting, which will be held on February 8th, instead of Feb. 6th. Roll call to be an exchange of Valentines. Collection amounted to 60 cents.
 Meeting adjourned with the National Anthem. Lunch was served by hostess and committee in charge.
