

THE DAILY EXAMINER. FEBRUARY 20, 1890.

Death of Mr. Peter MacGowan.

MR. PETER MACGOWAN passed away last evening at the ripe age of eighty-five years. He was, at the time of his death, one of the oldest of the natives of Charlottetown.

Notes and Comments.

A respected correspondent of THE EXAMINER, whose letter to the editor is crowded out of some of several others, rejoices that "our Tory Samson proved too strong for the Grit Philistines."

The Halifax Herald remarks that "last year the farmers of Canada sold to Great Britain products and animals valued at $19,901,115; to the United States they sold products and animals valued at $16,262,713. The grit advocates of unrestricted reciprocity want to disturb the larger market for the sake of the smaller."

The Australasian Government loans amount to some £190,000,000 sterling at the present time. There are also "private loans"—i. e. municipal, harbor, and other trusts, corporations, trading and other companies—to the amount of £100,000,000 sterling; or £260,000,000 sterling altogether.

The Daily Chronicle has opened a column for Colonial news under the heading of "Greater Britain."

Gold and Silver in the States.

THE statistics of the production of the precious metals in the United States during 1889 show a considerable expansion of the industry, and again call attention to the fact that the silver yield of the world is increasing much faster than the gold.

Parnell's Vindication.

MEMBERS OF THE IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT TALK—BAD FOR THE "TIMES."

Interviews have been sought with all the leaders of the parties in the British House of Commons as to opinions on the Parnell report. They decline to give any opinions. The Irish nationalists hold that the report improves their position.

The Y. M. C. A. Sir, I am glad to see this old and well-tried institution showing such marked evidence of vitality. It appears to have been taking a quiet rest for some time past, and has now arisen like a giant refreshed.

Chance, of Kilkenny, says it is a qualitative rather than a quantitative analysis, as it condemns all for half a dozen violent speeches made in advocacy of boycotting during the decade.

Orilly says it simply proves that the ordinary crop of disaffection is inseparable from such a movement.

Lalouchere says it exonerates all against whom there were specific charges, and disapproves of the general political conduct of the agitation.

Bradlaugh divides the charges into personal, political and agrarian, and says that the first, which was the gravest point, charges have failed.

Sir Edward Reed says it is a very bad report for the Tory party, who are the greatest practitioners of boycotting.

Thomas W. Russell says: "Parnell is personally acquitted, but I know the value of the verdict 'not proven.'"

William Cain said: "The Parnell men come out better than I expected. I am heartily glad of it. Their personal character cannot be made an obstacle to home rule."

The Standard says: "The condemned Parnellites may make themselves easy. We trust that the government will not be so ill-advised as to allow themselves to be inveigled into starting state prosecution, which would promptly be laid hold of for party purposes. There is nothing to be gained by such a proceeding. These men are the chosen friends of those who have held the highest offices in the state, and, therefore, it would be folly on the part of the government to prosecute them."

The News says it is impossible for the government to ignore the commission's report, and that it now must take action for its vindication.

Wedding Bells.

A pleasant event occurred at the residence of Mr. John Ross, King Street east, at 8 o'clock last evening, when Mr. Charles H. Nash, accountant at Messrs. Auld Bros., and Miss Georgiana Ross, formerly one of the most popular clerks in Messrs. Harris & Stewart's dry goods establishment, were united in marriage.

New Meeting Room.

We have to congratulate the officers and members of Charlottetown Division, Ancient Order of Hibernians, upon the almost phenomenal progress the Division has made since it was regularly organized, little more than a month ago.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Information Wanted.

Query: Are titles recognized in legal proceedings, and can a judge act as an attorney in his own suit? These enquiries are suggested by the sheriff's sale advertised in last Royal Gazette.

Feb. 20, 1890.

Address to Piscator.

Sir,—The following lines by the late Prof. T. A. LePage, were penned about May 10th last, on presentation of a two-pound trout:—

Mr. H—, my dear friend, Blessings on you without end For a reasonable dinner Meted out to this poor sinner. Man! it was a splendid fish, And it made a glorious dish!

The Y. M. C. A.

Sir,—I am glad to see this old and well-tried institution showing such marked evidence of vitality. It appears to have been taking a quiet rest for some time past, and has now arisen like a giant refreshed.

The lecture on Friday evening last by Charles Palmer, Esq., was both interesting and instructive, and I understand it is but the opening of a good campaign, as I have heard the names of Rev. Mr. Read and Rev. Mr. Sutherland both spoken of as likely to occupy the stand in the near future, while the Sunday afternoon meetings have been most enjoyable; but my great object in writing is specially to call attention to the bible class which meets every Saturday evening in the snug and comfortable parlor. This class, which is conducted by Rev. Mr. Gordon—and a most admirable teacher he is—offers to Christian workers, and especially those connected with Sabbath schools, advantages of a very high order, and so highly is it appreciated that the room will soon be too small for accommodation.

I shall have something further to say on some other occasion about the well-supplied and carefully-conducted reading room, which deserves a much more liberal support than it receives.

If troubled with any PRIVATE or CHRONIC disease DON'T DELAY, but CONSULT AT ONCE A SPECIALIST who CAN CURE you if it is possible for you to be cured.

Much permanent illness is brought about from the simple fact of ignorance in the management of our own bodies. Many serious troubles might have been prevented by consulting a specialist of known ability at the proper time.

But even if such a chronic condition is present, it is always possible to alleviate and often possible to arrest the progress of the disease, and thus make an otherwise miserable existence a happy one, by consulting one who has devoted years of his life to the treatment of chronic ailments.

To Treat Private and Chronic Diseases Successfully not only requires special ability, but also an extensive experience, and as thousands of rare and obscure cases are yearly treated by them, aided by all that medical science of to-day affords, it can readily be seen why it is that they are so successful in the curing of all Private and Chronic Diseases, Syphilis, Catarrh, Asthma, Consumption, Heart Disease, Dyspepsia, Kidney, Liver and Bowel Diseases, Piles, Rheumatism, Cancer, Tumor, Varicose Veins, Ulcers, Deafness, Sore and Weak Eyes, Blood and Skin Diseases, Fits, Female Complaints, Nervousness, Stammering, Bashfulness, General Debility, and all Diseases of the Nervous System, are among their principal specialties.

The Special Remedies used for DIABETES Mellitus never fail to Cure.

It will be for your interest, if sick or unwell, to consult the Consulting Surgeon, who has had years of experience in treating the above-named diseases. All cases that have come under his personal supervision have rarely if ever failed to be benefited or cured.
