NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

THE WRECK AT SABLE ISLAND.
HALIFAX, July 18.
The Government steamer Glendon left this afternoon for Sable Island, to bring up a portion of the survivors of the ill-fated steamer City of Virginia. The agent and purser were negotiating this forenoon with one or two ship-owners, but could not come to terms, the agent refusing to pay amounts asked. Mr. Fishwick, it is understood, offered his steamer, the M. A. Starr, which was near Canso (a good part of the distance to Sable Island), this morning, for $1,000, but the agents refused to engage her, whereupon Mr. W. H. Johnston, agent of the Marine and Fisheries Department, determined to despatch the Glendon, a small boat used for supplying light-houses. Captain Brown's instructions are to bring up the women and children and any sick persons.
In an interview, to-day, Mr. Johnston said: "I have sent her in the interests of humanity. These poor women and children must not be left on the barren sands a single hour longer than is absolutely necessary." The Government steamer Newfield, which is much better adapted for carrying passengers, and which is now supplying light-houses in the Bay of Fundy, will also be despatched as soon as her captain can be communicated with, to bring up the remaining passengers and crew left by the Glendon, and to endeavor to save the cargo.

Mr. MacDonald, governor of Sable Island, in his report to the Marine and Fisheries Department, urged that a steamer be immediately despatched. He reports the steamer as having struck two miles east of the west end light. Mr. Johnston does not think the passengers will suffer for want of water as reported, and said that he never before heard of any complaint of want of water. It was lucky that the purser in his open boat had made land so quickly. Had his boat been lost there would not, in any human probability, have been any communication with the island until the regular trip of the Newfield a month hence. Had such been the case, the condition of affairs can be much better imagined than described. The loss of this magnificent steamer adds another argument in favor of laying a cable to that Island. Indeed it is thought unwise that such a dangerous place, where so many ships are lost and lives sacrificed, should have been without telegraphic communication so long.

CANADIAN VICTORY AT WIMBLEDON.
A match between sixteen Canadian and sixteen Liverpool volunteers, for a silver cup, was won by the former.
UNITED STATES.
LAKE GEORGE, July 18.
In the padding canoe race last evening, there were ten entries. The course was one mile. C. A. Cressy, Methodist minister, of New Hampshire, in a peculiar craft constructed by himself, took the lead and won in 10:39; L. N. Putnam, of the New York Canoe Club, won the prize in his class in 11:45.

THE ZULU WAR.
PIETER MARITZBURG, June 30, (via LONDON, July 18.)
General Wolsley will unite General Crealock's command to that of Lord Chelmsford, and Port Durnford will be the base of supplies.
Cetewayo is reported to be north of Ulundi with 10,000 men. Messengers from Cetewayo have come to Fort Pearson and General Wolsley has sent them back with the names of the chiefs whom Cetewayo must send to General Crealock.
MARITZBURG, July 1, (via LONDON, July 18.)
Complying with requirements of Lord Chelmsford, Cetewayo has sent to the British camp the cattle demanded and also an ivory tusk. The commanding officer detained the cattle but refused to accept the tusk, which was an emblem of peace. Sir Garnet Wolsley immediately disowned this act and sent messages to Cetewayo explaining that the refusal of the tusk was a blunder, and asked that three leading chiefs be sent to the frontier.
The "Standard" is of opinion that the war in Zululand is end.

CHINA.
BERLIN, July 18.
The latest intelligence from Central Asia is that China is preparing for war with Russia.
The Arkona Advocate, a Reform journal, says: "Till lately our views were anything but favorable to the National Policy; but after a thorough investigation we were led to believe that it will accomplish all claimed by it by its projectors. That it will build up industries we no longer doubt. Take the town of Napanee (Lennox County) for instance. Eight months ago its manufacturing interests were scarcely discernible. Now it is to have a brush factory, which will give employment to nearly 100 hands; a woollen factory, which will annually expend $10,000 for help and other industries as well as to be established. This has all been brought about by the N. P. Deny it who can."

The Prince Imperial's Will.

TRANSLATION OF THE PRINCE'S LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT—WISHES AND BEQUESTS.

The following is a translation of the will of the late Prince Louis Napoleon, made at Camden Place, Chisellhurst, on the 26th of February, 1879:—

- This is my testament.
1. I die in the Roman Catholic Apostolic religion, wherein I was born.
  2. I desire that my remains may be laid beside those of my father, pending the removal of both to the resting place of the Founder of our House, in the midst of the French people, whom we dearly loved, as he did.
  3. My last thoughts will be for my country; it is for France that I should wish to die.
  4. I hope that my mother, when I am no more, will preserve the same loving memory of me that I shall cherish for her up to the last moment of my life.
  5. Let my personal friends, servants and partisans be convinced that my gratitude towards them will only end with my life.
  6. I shall die with a feeling of deep gratitude towards Her Majesty the Queen of England and all the royal family, and also toward the country in which I have received during the past eight years such cordial hospitality.

I constitute my mother my universal legatee, subject to the payment of the following legacies:—
I bequeath 20,000*fr.* to my cousin, Prince J. N. Murat. I bequeath 100,000*fr.* to M. F. Petri in recognition of his good services. I bequeath 100,000*fr.* to M. le Baron Corvisart in recognition of his devotion. I bequeath 100,000*fr.* to Mlle. de Larminat, who has always shown herself so attached to my mother. I bequeath 100,000*fr.* to M. A. Filon, my former tutor. I bequeath 100,000*fr.* to M. L. N. Comeau; 100,000*fr.* to M. N. Espinasse; 100,000*fr.* to Captain A. Bizot, three of my oldest friends. I desire that my dear mother should constitute an annuity of 10,000*fr.* for Prince L. L. Bonaparte; an annuity of 5,000*fr.* for Mr. Bachon, my former equerry; or 2,500*fr.* each to Mue. Thierry and to Uhlman. I desire that all my other servants should never be deprived of their salaries. I desire to leave to Prince N. Charles Bonaparte, the Duke of Bassano, and to Mr. Rouher, three of the most beautiful souvenirs that my testamentary executors may select. I desire, also, to leave to General Simmons, to M. Strode and to Monsignor Geddard, three souvenirs which my testamentary executors may select from the valuables which belong to me. I bequeath to M. F. Petri my pin surmounted by a stone (cat's eye); to M. Corvisart my pin (rose pearl); to Mlle. de Larminat a medallion containing the portraits of my father and mother; to Mme. Leblonnet my watch in enamel, ornamented with my monogram in diamonds; to MM. Comeau, Espinasse, Bizot, J. N. Murat, A. Fleury, P. de Bourgoing, S. Corvisart, my arms and uniforms, except those I may have last worn, which I leave to my mother. I leave to M. d'Entraignes a pin surmounted by a fine pearl, round in shape, which was given me by the Empress. I beg my mother to be good enough to distribute to the persons who during my life have shown attachment to me the trinkets or less valuable objects which may recall me to their recollection. I bequeath to the Countess Clary my pin surmounted by a beautiful fine pearl (A); to the Duke of Huescar, my cousin, my Spanish sword.

All is written by my own hand.
I have no need to recommend my mother to neglect nothing to defend the memory of my great uncle and father; and I beg her to remember that as long as the Bonaparte family exists there will also exist representatives of the Imperial cause. The duties which our house owes to the country will not lapse by my death and the task of continuing the work of Napoleon I and Napoleon III, will devolve upon the eldest son of Prince Napoleon. I trust that my mother, by seconding him by all the means in her power, will give us, when we shall be no more, this last and supreme proof of her affection.
NAPOLEON.

At Chisellhurst, Feb. 26, 1879.
I appoint MM. Rouher and F. N. Petri my testamentary executors. I mean F. Petri Franceschini Petri.

The Prince of Wales has started a subscription for a national memorial to the late Prince Imperial.

Liver is King.
The liver is the imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with dyspepsia or liver complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the liver and stomach. Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want.
