When Confidence becomes an Imposition . . .

Many a man has lived to rue the day when a friend appointed him Executor of his estate.

Once an Executor becomes involved in the many complex details of estate administration, he finds that what was intended as an expression of confidence is, actually, a heavy imposition.

In consideration for the friend you might appoint, we suggest that you name The Royal Trust Company as Co-Executor with your friend to relieve him of much of the detail. We offer the practical experience and continuity of service which are essential to the efficient administration of an Estate.
