Bishop Foster on the Traffic.

God knows there has been enough sin and shame already rolled up to the account of the Church by this legalized "traffic in human blood"—legalized and protected by four million voters who are church members. Listen to these words from Bishop R. S. Foster, U. S.:

"The Church of to-day, much more the Church of the future, must take to its heart the duty of combating and assailing its fiercest enemy, that gnostic atrocity, that diabolical conspiracy, that nameless monstrosity of modern civilization, that mothers nine-tenths of the woes and sorrows which blight and curse our modern age—traffic in intoxicants, which hides its deformities under forms of law. How long shall the face of our Christian age, blisier with this worse than pagan shame? Has the virtue of our time degenerated so low that we do not even blush at the legislated traffic in the souls of our own children? That by the very doors of our own homes and our temples an army of miscreants should by authorization of laws made by Christian law-givers, prosecute a work of murder and death? Are we reduced to the shame of admitting that a civilization which has grown up about our altars is impotent to cure the evil? How can we go to the heathen with this cancer of worse than heathen infamy festering in our bosom?"

Sam Jones believes that the devil does not care how many missionaries we send to the heathen so long as we average thirteen thousand barrels of whiskey to each missionary.

The evil (intemperance) ought not to be permitted to grow in order that the police may be called in to repress it. Prevention is not only better than cure; but prevention is a duty, and cure is a lame halting attempt to undo an evil which we have wilfully permitted.—Cardinal Manning.

Drunkenness is a flitting devil, a sweet poison, a pleasant sin, which whoever hath, hath not himself; which whoever doth commit, committeth not a sin in sin, but becomes the centre and the slave of all manner of sin.—St. Augustine.

Never shall my hand or voice be lifted against so called temperance fanatics. If ever a cause justified fanaticism, the temperance cause does. To us there is nothing more disgusting, or more disheartening to the cause of humanity than the selfish, ease-loving, luxurious man indulging in dissipation and denouncing temperance fanaticism.—Rev. Phillips Brooks.

Is there no middle way betwixt total abstinence and the excess which kills you? For your sake, reader, and that you may never attain to my experience, with pain I must utter the dreadful truth, that there is none. The waters have gone over me. But out of the black depths, could I hear, I would cry out to all those who have but set a foot in the perilous flood.—Charles Lamb.

News Notes.

The naval train with sailors for the British warships on the Pacific coast, arrived at Vancouver at midnight on Monday, seven days and six hours from Halifax.

The judicial enquiry into the affairs of the Panama Canal Company has resulted in the giving of a writ of habeas corpus to the directors of the company is not justified.

Martin Kautz, keeper of the lighthouse on Pilot island, at Death's Door entrance to Green bay, has saved the entire crews of the schooners E. J. Gilmore and A. P. Nichols, which stranded on Pilot island during the recent gales.

The wrecking of H. M. Howe means a financial loss of close upon four millions of dollars. The first great naval battle between two fleets of such costly monsters will mean the verge of national bankruptcy of the beaten power.

The Church Missionary Society gave $80,000; a director of the British East Africa company $50,000, and the Company itself $70,000, in order to protect the occupation of Uganda another year in the interest of the missions and the native converts. Now we can understand the "row" which has been raised by the Government's proposed abandonment.

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for their children while cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best-known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. 1 y r

Ships Built of Aluminum.

BY THE USE OF THAT METAL THE WEIGHT CAN BE REDUCED ONE HALF

(From the Leeds Mercury.)

Fifty years ago the introduction of iron as a building material created a revolution in the science and art of shipbuilding. It is now certain that in the near future an even more important revolution will be created by the introduction of aluminum. At present there are in existence but five small craft constructed of this metal. Three are petroleum yachts, which were built this year at Zurich. One is a Swedish lifeboat. The fifth is a yacht which is now completing for sea in this country.

Until two or three years ago the high price of aluminum entirely barred the way to its general usefulness, but the metal has since become much cheaper, and to the shipbuilder it offers so many striking advantages, that, even at the comparatively high price which is still charged for it, it is sure of general adoption. In strength and toughness it rivals steel, in non-liability to corrosion it is almost as good as gold, and in lightness it stands altogether alone. Nor is this all. The hull of an old iron ship, when sold to be broken up, goes for nearly nothing. The hull of an old aluminum ship, would, it is estimated, if disposed of as worn-out metal, fetch nearly two-thirds of its original cost. This is a consideration which capitalists and investors are not likely to lose sight of.

To the naval constructor aluminum comes, of course, as precisely the material of which he is mostly in need. His great problem of late years has been to reduce to the lowest possible dimensions what may be called the inevitable weights of vessels. It is computed that by using aluminum instead of steel he may, without sacrifice of strength, reduce the weight of a ship's hull by fully one-half.

Religion in Australia.

The religious census of Victoria, Australia, reveals some curious figures. After giving the figures of the chief denominations—Episcopalians, 417,000; Roman Catholics, 248,000; Presbyterians, 167,000; Methodists, 158,000; Baptists, 27,882—it goes on to tell the following:

Buddhists and Confucians	6,746
Free thinkers	5,098
Spiritualists	790
Atheists	806
Swedenborgians	305
Agnostics	300
Deists	61
Mormons	42
Hindus	48
Naturalists	13
Humanitarians	9
Peculiar People	6
Theosophists	11
Cosmopolitans	10
Positivists	4
Communists	6
Nihilists	3

But the most peculiar of all is the one solitary individual who appears as a "Go-as-you-please" and the four who gave themselves the very religious heading of "E. S. D." There were 13,608 people who refused to give any religion, and 13,425 who professed neither religion or denomination. It evidently takes all kinds of people to make up a world.

Walking for Health.

Few things, if any, are so effectual in building up and sustaining the physical organization as walking, if resolutely and judiciously followed. It is a perfect exercise. It taxes the entire system. When you walk properly, every member and muscle, every nerve and fibre has something to do. The arms swing backward and forward, keeping step, as it were, with the legs; the chest expands and contracts as the lungs fill and discharge; the drummer-boy's pulse beats a tune for the march; the legs curve and straighten; the feet rise and fall, while the head rises over all—but not as a deadhead. Every sense it has is employed, every faculty alert. The nostrils expand to quaff the breezes; the ears turn to every sound; the eyes roll in their sockets, sweeping from left to right, from earth to sky; the brain is at work through all its parts. Progress under such conditions is the very essence of physical motion. What is the effect? The flesh is solidified; the lungs grow strong and sound; the chest enlarges; the limbs are rounded out; the tendons swell and toughen; the figure rises in height and dignity, and is clothed with grace and suppleness. Hunters, who walk much, are tall and straight, while sailors, who walk scarcely at all, are low and squat. The whole man is developed, not the body merely. The mind is broadened by the contemplation of creation's work; the soul is enlarged, the imagination brightened, the spirits cheered, the temper sweetened. The moral forces are strengthened equally with the physical. A loftier reverential feeling is awakened, if not a profound religious sentiment.—Hall's Journal of Health.

TO PREVENT NIGHT COUGH.—When coughing at night is particularly troublesome the thorough warming of the bed previous to being occupied will often avert an attack. The taking of a warm drink, preferably a glass of hot milk, before retiring, or better, after getting in bed, is equally as good. The opportunity to warm a bed is not always possible, but it is generally very easy to procure a hot drink of some kind, no matter where one happens to be. One of the nicest ways to warm a bed is by ironing the lower sheet, and as much of the upper one as is thrown back when the bed is opened. After this is done, quickly draw up the bed clothing and place bottles of hot water, or the old-fashioned warm log or bricks in between the ironed sheets. Persons with consumption and heavy diseases will secure untold comfort and many restful nights if they always go to warmed beds to seek repose.

"They thought I must die."
"THE STRONGEST STATEMENTS COULD NOT TELL HALF IT HAS DONE FOR ME."
Hereditary Liver Trouble,
ENLARGEMENT OF THE LIVER,
Diagnosed by the best Physicians, CURED.

My father died of Consumption of the Liver, many in my family have died with the same disease, and a large part of the time for the past two years I have been very sick, no appetite, bowels alternating between Constipation and Diarrhoea. Pains all over my body, and severe pains all through my Liver, so nervous I could not sleep nights, and in fact I was so much emaciated and run down.

BETTER
My Physician said I had Enlargement of the Liver.

The day before I commenced the use of SKODA'S REMEDIES, I had two different Physicians call upon me. People thought I must die. I had dined so much and taken so many different kinds of patent medicines, without any benefit, that when SKODA'S DISCOVERY was brought to me, I threw away all the other medicines, and began to use SKODA'S DISCOVERY.

Soon I commenced to gain; my appetite increased; from being weak and feeble I began to grow stronger; my bowels assumed a natural condition; sweet and refreshing sleep came to me; I began to increase rapidly in flesh.

I have now taken less than a full course (six bottles) of SKODA'S DISCOVERY, with SKODA'S LITTLE TABLETS, and today I COLD do my own work. In fact, am well and happy. The strongest statement I could make would not tell half your wonderful Remedies have done for me.

Respectfully yours,
