Harper's Weekly. ILLUSTRATED.

Harper's Weekly is, beyond all question, the leading journal in America.

In special lines it draws on the highest order of talent, and in its vast array of readers, it trains to meet the leading topics of the day.

In fiction, the most popular story-writers contribute to its columns. Superb drawings by the foremost artists illustrate its special articles, its stories, and every notable event of public interest.

It contains portraits of the distinguished men and women who are making the history of the time, while special attention is given to the Army and Navy, Amateur sports, and Miscellaneous Dramas, by distinguished experts.

In a word, Harper's Weekly combines the news features of the daily paper and the artistic and literary qualities of the magazine with the solid critical character of the review.

FASHIONS

PARIS AND NEW YORK STYLES.

Evening and Dance Dresses and Tea Gowns. Light, Easy and Fantastic. Pretty figured muslins are being made up for simple evening frocks.

A TEA GOWN. of flower pattern, formed of little bunches of yellow blossoms, had a trimming round the hem of moss green velvet, lined with pink, and a short, full basque made of the same materials.

These who do not want tulle gowns have a wide choice in gauzes. Some of the newest are of a thin silky fabric, covered all over with crimped lines of various widths.

To be able to wear beautiful tea gowns is some compensation for short days and dreary weather.

Parisian Fancies In Vells. There is something quite new in vells that have from Paris, namely, thin materials plaited in the form of a fan and pinned on the bonnet at the top, the plait opening over the face.

One of the New Bodices. Never have bodices been prettier, and never have they shown more diversity either in the matter of shape or trimming.

What Folk Say About Skirts. Folks—that man of mark in drapery—is reported by a recent interviewer as saying: "The fact is, we have not made many noted changes since last year, except in the matter of skirts, which, without being bell-shaped, are fuller."

Teacher—Who succeeded the king? Pupil—The queen. Teacher—Right, and should the queen die, who would reign? P. C. (like lightning)—The jack—Fun.

Those Needless Questions. Bugler—Bass shopping? Captain—If of course not. This is only my dinner I'm carrying home.

Hard For George. Found Mother—Here's a letter from George. He says he hasn't much time to write on account of the severe head work he is doing.

After the Ball. Popular Cures for Headache. Headaches are one of the greatest ills of humanity, and the so-called cures are without number.

For Over Fifty Years. AN OLD AND WELL TRIED REMEDY—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success.

USE SKODA'S DISCOVERY, the great blood and Nerve Reviver.
