THAT'S WHY!

The merchants advertise their goods, As clothing hardware, books or foods. And trade receive compared with merit: I advertise myself; with me Success lies in ability To do all jobs, — have'er they be,— To make a thing or to repair it.

If, then, the secret I bestow (Though one already many know) Why compliments are often paid me; Greet not my words with cold disdain, Nor censure me in language plain As egotistical or vain.— A general genius nature made me.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Dairying.

Sir,—Judging from the reports of meetings published from time to time in our local press, our farmers are taking more than an ordinary interest in the dairying industry. The success of the New Perth Cheese Factory last season, under the able management of Mr. Dillon, seems to have aroused our farmers to a sense of their duty. In many localities they are beginning to realize the fact that dairying can be made an honorable and profitable calling. They find that the system hitherto followed, of growing oats, potatoes, etc., for exportation, tends to rob the soil of much of its fertility, and scarcely yields sufficient returns to defray expenses.

The movement now is towards dairying. The success, however, of this industry will depend, in a great measure, on the knowledge which our farmers possess respecting the breeding and proper care of cows. To expect profitable returns in some sections, under existing circumstances, is hopeless. To ensure success, the patrons of the cheese factories should pay particular attention to the dairy cows. They should organize themselves into farmers' clubs in their respective school districts, and secure as much information as possible in matters relating to their calling.

Some farmers tell us that dairying does not pay in this province. They say that the credit system, the National Policy, M. Kinley Bill, and many other circumstances militate against them. They can discuss the leading questions of the day intelligently, and can give glowing accounts of successful Islanders in the neighboring Republic; but their ignorance in matters pertaining to the cultivation of the soil and proper care of stock, is quite evident from a general survey of the farm. That so many succeed, under existing circumstances, is marvellous. Success in any calling is possible only to those who give the matter under consideration their undivided attention, and who embrace every available opportunity of perfecting themselves in their respective avocations. That our farmers are negligent in this respect cannot be denied.

Something, then, must be done to stimulate them in this direction. To bring about better results the services of a Professor of Agriculture were secured for the Prince of Wales College. It was hoped that our teachers would, in the near future, be in a position to impart the science of agriculture in the public schools. That very beneficial results will follow from this move is very questionable. That elementary science should be taught in our schools might be conceded, but that any practical results can be hoped for from the teaching of agricultural chemistry in our common schools seems to me a delusion.

Our public schools are already taxed to their utmost capacity, and if our Superintendent of Education would pay a visit to a few of the common schools in some sections of the Island he would probably find that the work done in them is of a very elementary and, in some instances, inferior nature. Our teachers may be learned and industrious, but they cannot be expected to give more than an elementary education in the common schools. Admitting the competency of our teachers to teach agricultural chemistry, how can we expect that children of such an age as attend our common schools, and who as yet have no fixed purpose in life, can be made to take a sufficient interest in this branch to give it a practical bearing on their farm work. It seems to me that the Professor of Agriculture should be in connection with the Government Farm, where farmers' sons who intend following farming as their occupation could attend and acquire that practical education which is necessary to their success. The lecture room might be in the city, where the students from the Prince of Wales College might also attend if it would be considered necessary.

Not wishing, Mr. Editor, to occupy too much of your valuable space, I will conclude for the present; but you may hear from me again.

 On a recent rainy Sunday two nice-looking well-mannered men stationed themselves in the vestibule of a N. Y. English church and relieved all who entered of their umbrellas, saying that the vicar disliked having wet umbrellas carried into the church. When the services ended the people looked for the two men, but they had quietly stolen away—and also the umbrellas, without waiting for the benediction.

Obituary.

New Perth has lost its oldest and one of its most respected residents in the person of Mr. Daniel Minchin, who died at his residence a few days ago. The deceased was born in Kilkenny, Ireland, and emigrated to Newfoundland when he was fifteen years of age. After remaining there for six years he came to this Province and settled at New Perth. He was one of the pioneers who, amid the privations and hardships known only to the early settlers, succeeded in clearing the wilderness and causing the unbroken forest to give place to fertile fields and pleasant homesteads. Kind and agreeable in his disposition, honest and upright in his nature, he has passed away at the ripe age of 96 years. His esteem with which the deceased was held in the community was amply demonstrated by the great number of persons who followed his remains to the Presbyterian cemetery at Georgetown.

Oman Pasha's pretty daughter is supposed to be the only Turkish princess. She lives in a fine palace on the Bosphorus, which is superbly furnished for her use.  The Duke of Edinburgh will, it is said, soon take up his permanent residence at the Scotch capital. There is an appropriation about this in more ways than one. His Royal Highness is credited with a full share of that thrift which characterizes Edinburgh people in common with the rest of the natives of the northern kingdom, and should fall naturally into their ways.

The Rev. T. F. Fotheringham, of St. John, N. B., has been appointed by headquarters to represent the Boys' Brigade in Canada, and will be pleased to send parcels of literature, giving full insight into the principles and methods of the organization, to any who are interested in the religious welfare of our boys. A small charge, thirty-five cents, is made to cover printing and postage.

Lord Rosebery is said to be actively protesting against the recent Chinese action, which allows a native line of steamers to carry grain duty free between Shanghai and Tientsin whilst charging duty upon grain in British and foreign vessels. This is an infringement of the commercial treaty made with the United States a dozen years ago, in which Britain shares through the most favored nation clause.

M. de Lesseps has fallen into a sort of dotage, and fortunately for the once great Frenchman, is hardly conscious of his surroundings. He has not been informed of the prosecution and probably never will be, as a doctor's certificate will save him from appearing at the trial. It is said, however, that the old man still retains that grace of manner, seductive smile and the chivalrous ways which were supposed to have helped in drawing 16,000 women to invest in the Panama scheme and believe in it to the last.

Shortly before Sir Arthur Sullivan left London for the south of Europe to spend the winter, a newspaper interviewer got hold of him and elicited this story about the composition of "The Lost Chord." One night Sir Arthur was in the room next to that in which his brother was dying. He had been watching at the bedside of the dying man, and was thoroughly tired out. Sitting down before an organ that was by chance in the room, he found that noble words before him, and he did not rise from his seat until he had composed the music which thrills all who have heard it.

Admiral de Cuverville, who paid a visit to these waters last year in the warship "Naiade," writes as follows to the Bulletin de la Societe des Etudes Coloniales on the subject of our French-Canadian fellow citizens:—
 "In fact, simply from their superior fecundity, and without the necessity of immigration to aid them—from year to year the French-Canadian surplus the English element in the province of Quebec in their natural increase. They send numerous and growing colonies to the neighboring province of Ontario and are even penetrating in serried ranks the territories of the manufacturers of New England. They do not recoil before any sacrifice to conserve their religion and their tongue, and everywhere success crowns their efforts. Contrary to the Irish and Germans, who become quickly assimilated to the Americans, who retain their clannish spirit, speak only their own language amongst themselves and themselves tightly to their own customs and traditions.

MARCUS LITTLEFIELD.
Rheumatism of the Joints AND INHERITED HUMOR OF BLOOD
 Banished by Skoda's, AFTER PHYSICIANS HAD PRONOUNCED THEM INCURABLE!

MARCUS LITTLEFIELD LIVES AT WEST WINTERPORT, N.S. A FARMER BY OCCUPATION, HE ENJOYS THE RESPECT OF ALL WHO KNOW HIM BY CONVERSATION WITH A REPRESENTATIVE OF THE SKODA DISCOVERY CO., NOT LONG SINCE HE RELATED THE FOLLOWING STORY:
 "Ever since I was born, I have been troubled at times, more or less, with a HUMOR on my hands, face and neck. For fifteen years it has been on the increase, I have been gradually falling in health, and for three years past it has itched and burned so badly, that all the way I could get any rest at night, was to bathe in strong carbolic acid, and this only relieved me for a few hours. In addition to this, eight months ago, Rheumatism in my neck, and shoulders set in, drawing my shoulders BETTER—so out of place, that I could not get any rest. I had never seen a Skoda's Discovery and Tablets, and I began to use them. I was unable to do any work, and was a great sufferer. I doctored with several Physicians, including Specialists in Boston, and took nearly all the advertised remedies and blood purifiers, but they did me no good. I had given up all hope, and my friends thought I could live but a few months. I began to use SKODA'S DISCOVERY and TABLETS, according to directions, and also used SKODA'S OINTMENT and ELECTRICITY. After using THAN than them but one week, they were gone. My skin that was literally covered with pimples and blotches began to clear up. My appetite became good, my strength returned, and I gained weight. I have now used less than two courses of these REMEDIES, and my Rheumatism has entirely disappeared. SHOULDERS THAT WERE DRAWN OUT OF PLACE AND WHICH THE DOCTORS SAID COULD NEVER BE GOT BACK AGAIN ARE AS GOOD AS NEW. I AM PERFECTLY RESTED. MY SKIN IS FREE FROM BLOTCHES and pimples. I have gained COLD sweats every morning. My flesh can go into the woods at sunrise, and sleep cold wood until dark, and not get tired, a thing I could never do before in all my life, and am able to work all the time. My friends are astonished at my recovery, and not more so than myself. They consider it almost miraculous."
