Wools of Different Breeds.

The following table gives the actual clip of wool from twelve or thirteen different breeds, at the shearing in June last, on the Experimental farm belonging to the Royal Agricultural College at Cirencester, England:—

Breed of Ewes	Weight of Piece, lbs. oz.	Price of Wool, per lb. s. d.	Remarks.
Lincoln	13 2	1 0	Long in staple, bright and silky.
Cheviot	8 6	1 0	A small haired wool, of medium length, soft and rich.
Shropshire	7 5	1 1	Longer in staple and more lustre than other down wools.
Border Leicester	6 13	1 0	Not so soft and silky in staple as Lincoln.
Oxford Down	6 10	1 0	Equal to Shropshire in quality, and heavier.
Leicester	6 6	1 0	Similar to Border Leicester.
Blackfaced	4 8	0 9	Coarse and long.
Dorset	5 6	1 0	Longer in staple and not so fine as the Down.
Hampshire	5 2	1 0	A short haired wool, very similar to Southdown, but longer in staple and not so fine.
Herdwick	5 0	0 0	Coarse and long.
Southdown	4 5	1 0	A short, small haired wool.
Exmoor	5 0	0 11	A long stapled wool of moderate quality.
Cotswold	8 0	1 0	Rather coarse lustre.

The above figures represent the average of three ewes of each breed. The sheep of each lot were all fairly equal, and the treatment of all the lots during the previous winter or spring had been exactly alike. All the ewes, also, had reared one or more lambs during the summer.

It is only by an experiment of this kind, in which all the different breeds are brought together, treated alike, and dealt with at one and the same time, that we can arrive at fair comparative results. It is more than likely, however, that if the trial had been made in another district, with a soil and climate different from that of the Cotswold hills, there would have been more or less variation in the results.

PRINCESS LOUISE.—The birthday of her Royal Highness Princess Louise was commemorated at Windsor on the 18th of last month. At intervals throughout the day peals were rung on the bells of St. George's Chapel and the Windsor Parish Church, and at noon a Royal salute was fired in the Long-walk by the Royal bombardier.

Famine and the locust plague are causing great distress abroad, the people of Cesarea being afflicted with the former, while in Asia Minor gardens and vineyards are being devastated by the locusts. An appeal for help is to be published by the American Board of Foreign Missions, who have advices from their missionaries of the above state of things.

The sales of the Hudson Bay Company's land bureau for the month of March aggregate $600,000, being an average of $20,000 per day. Some 54,000 acres of farm property, nearly all within the boundaries of the Province, were sold, besides a quantity of town lots in Winnipeg and other places throughout the country.

The Russian Minister of the Interior claims to have information of a secret treaty between Germany and Sweden, by which the latter, in the event of war, would lend the former her fleet, receiving Finland as her share of the booty should the allies prove successful.

Mr. T. P. Murray cabled Hanlan, in care of the London Sportsman, that Winnipeg contributes $15,000 for a regatta, open to the world in July next, on the Red River.

A New Enterprise Proposed.

To the Editor of the Examiner.
SIR,—I see by the Halifax papers that three steamers have arrived at Port au Basque, near Cape Ray, Newfoundland, full of seals, taken in the Gulf of St. Lawrence. Persons who know something of this business inform me that those seals are taken in the neighborhood of the Magdalen Islands and East Point. Now it appears to me this presents an opportunity for the employment of capital, and as there is a large amount of money lying in the Savings Bank earning but four per cent., a portion of it might be employed in developing this industry. Souris Harbor is in close proximity to the grounds upon which the seals are taken. Vessels can be cut out of there any time in the winter with little trouble or expense, and having light ice (comparatively speaking) to contend with, and smooth water, a much cheaper description of vessel than those employed in Newfoundland would suit the purpose, besides the short distance would enable them to make two or three trips in the season.

I simply make these statements in order that discussion may be raised, and the practicability of the enterprise ventilated.
Yours truly,
GREAT SEAL.

Improvements West.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

Mr. EDITOR.—Being almost a stranger in this part of the country, the writer availed himself of a drive lately through the flourishing settlement of Lot 11, the incidents of which he trusts may prove interesting to your readers.

Leaving a house in Lot 12 on a fine moonlight night, with good roads a head of us, the first place we reached was Banks Creek, lately the scene of an almost fatal accident by which two ladies nearly lost their lives. Mr. Leslie Ramsay, the young man who rescued them is to be congratulated on the heroism he then displayed.

We next passed through Poplar Grove, a place which a few years ago was a complete forest, but to-day by the labor of man has been cleared and is rewarding the owner for his toil. On we passed through a few miles of forest whose huge pines tell that man has not yet laid his ruthless hands upon them. The store and coopership of Augustus Callaghan, Esq., is reached. This gentleman has been doing business here for some years, and has really proved himself a public benefactor. His coopering establishment has given employment to a great number of men, but owing to adverse circumstances he has been compelled to close for a short time. During the past summer he entered the lobster and meat canning business, and we trust that his enterprise has proved remunerative, as a business conducted on such a large scale cannot fail to be a benefit to the adjacent settlements.

Close by is the carriage and blacksmith shop of Joshua Henderson. This is a young man who has lately started in the business, and whose gentlemanly bearing and superior workmanship has built for himself a lucrative trade. He cannot fail to succeed, being situated in the centre of a farming community.

After a further drive of two miles, Conway Station looms up. Here a considerable business is done, but the people are greatly inconvenienced by not having a regular station. It is in the midst of the best lumber part of the country, and the amount of business done in that line is immense. And now the writer must say that everywhere through which he passed, signs of industry and enterprise are seen.
The people being strictly temperate, no liquor is allowed in their midst. Few places can boast of the Scott Act being so rigidly enforced. Being now late at night, the party returned under the guidance of the driver, Mr. David Banks, a gentleman whose joviality is a sufficient guarantee of a pleasant time. By inserting the above in your next issue, you will oblige, Yours,
TRAVELLER.

A letter from Rome states that a Te Deum was chanted in one of the churches of that city on the 12th ult., as a thank-giving for the safe deliverance of the Queen of England from the bullet of the assassin.
Bishop Duhamel, of Ottawa, took a leading part in the service.

The French Minister of Finance states that the stockbrokers of Paris have completely recovered their position. Their losses were 120,000,000 francs. At Lyons the liquidation is not completed, and the losses amount to 80,000,000 francs.

FATAL BURNING ACCIDENT.—On the 31st ult., a little girl, four years old, daughter of Mr. J. Hennigar Tupper, of Rosette, N. S., was so fearfully burned by her clothes taking fire, that death ensued after suffering for eight hours.

Wife-beaters get no sympathy from the Stratford, Ont., Police Magistrate. One of the tribe who graced the dock on the 3rd inst. must have been considerably taken aback on being sentenced to two years' imprisonment.

Rev. Gavin Lang, minister of the non-union body of the Presbyterian Church, has received a call to West Church, Inverness, Scotland. He will likely accept the call, as his family are resident in Scotland.

The Dominion revenue in March was $2,855,045, being an increase for the month of $498,850. The increase for the nine months of the current fiscal year has been $3,488,788.
