The troubles of the beet sugar factories seem never ending. The premises, plant, &c., of the Union Sucriere of Berthier, Que., which were recently sold under execution to a Montreal Syndicate have been seized by the Government under a claim for $,000 customs' dues, and the Sheriff refuses delivery to the recent purchasers until his claim is adjusted.

The revenues of the United States Government are pouring into the Treasury in such an increasing volume that, as the Financial Chronicle, remarks, "it is becoming a serious question how to get them out." In the first twelve days of October, the receipts were $18,941,526 against $13,706,853, for the corresponding days of last year.

French returns of population in Algeria show a total of 3,310,565, which is an increase since 1876 of 442,939. Of this total 233,937 are French and 2,851,019 Mussulman natives, the remainder being naturalized Jews and foreigners. The department of Oron has the largest population of French, it being 9 per cent., and that of Constantine the smallest about 5 per cent.

Spinning has commenced in the Windsor, N. S., Cotton Factory. The building is a three-story one, two hundred feet long, eighty feet wide, with a chimney one hundred feet high. The machinery, which is driven by a three hundred horse power engine, is all of the latest and best description. It has a capacity of 10,600 spindles and 200 looms, and when in full operation will employ about 200 hands.

The cost of a recent edition of the London, Eng., Graphic was $85,000; more than 160 tons of paper was used, and the pages if put end to end would have made a line equal in length to the distance of London from New York. The illustrations of the paper in question, being printed in colums, 15,000,000 impressions were necessary before the edition was ready for distribution; the circulation of that number exceeding 520,000 copies.

The Cairo correspondent of the Times telegraphs that he has reason to believe the following will constitute the chief counts of the indictment against Arabi Pasha :—

First—That, in violation of the right of nations, he hoisted a white flag in Alexandria, and under cover thereof retired with his troops and gave up the city to fire and pillage.

Second—That he excited the Egyptians to arms against the Khedive.

Third—That he continued the war despite the news of peace.

Fourth—With having incited civil war, devastation, massacre and pillage in Egyptian territory.

The sharp crack of a pistol and the clatter of a swiftly moving carriage attracted attention in Central Park, New York, about ten o'clock on one of the nights of last week. A moment later a horse dashed toward them. In the carriage to which he was attached a man was found crouched on the floor with blood trickling from a circular hole in his right temple. He was still alive, though evidently fast dying. The body was that of medium sized man, about thirty years of age, with a Jewish cast of features, sandy hair and light side whiskers. It was dressed in a neat suit of dark clothes In the pockets were found $.50, a daily paper and a bottle in which were about two drinks of whiskey.
