THE GIRL'S WARDROBE.

The Girl With the Least Money is Apt to be the Most Extravagant.

"It is a truth, and a sad one, that the girl with the least money is apt to be the most extravagant," writes Ruth Ashmore, of "The Care of a Girl's Wardrobe," in the May Ladies' Home Journal. "The very wealthy girl may not have to care for her own wardrobe, yet each piece belonging to it is made to do full service, and in many instances, if she has a wise mother the girl herself must superintend the work of the maid. It is said of the daughters of Queen Victoria that each one of them was taught, not only to sew well, but to mend and darn with great neatness, and to make over those gowns which were considered worth it. The girl whose wardrobe is not large makes her first mistake in buying cheap material of a color that is the fancy of the moment. Instead, when only one new gown may be had during the season it should be of a fabric that will stand wear, that will endure making over, and of a color of which neither the wearer or the looker-on will soon grow weary. It is an extravagance to have a gown made in the extreme of the fashion, for the extreme soon goes out, and then you have a failure on your own hands."

Israel Tarte's Fiscal Policy.

We are paying $250,000 a year as the subsidy to the C. P. R. short line from Montreal through Maine to St. John.

In order to circumvent that short line we are paying $760,000 a year for the rental and the operating of the Drummond from Montreal to Lewis and St. John.

Mr. Tarte said in his speech in Parliament the other day: I have every confidence that the Liberal party will celebrate its victory in the next general election on the Quebec bridge.

This bridge, for which a subsidy of a million is asked, is to connect Quebec and Lewis, and is thus to give another through line from Montreal by way of Lewis to Halifax and St. John.

So that we pay $250,000 a year for a railway, and then pay $760,000 a year for a second road to compete with the railway for which we are paying $250,000; after doing which we are to give $1,000,000 to compete with the road which costs us $760,000 a year as a competitor to the road for which we are paying $250,000 a year.

Aren't we paying high for the eccentricities and the exigencies of Mr. Tarte?—Ead and Empire.

Supreme Court.

TUESDAY, May 2.

The Easter term of the Supreme Court met at eleven o'clock this forenoon the three judges on the bench.

Richard Doyle vs. Thomas Kickham. Action for damages for trespass, tried at Georgetown last term when verdict was found for defendant. Mr. Matheson today moved for rule nisi for new trial.

DRUNKENNESS IS DECREASING.

Was Never a Time When the Excessive Use of Liquor Was so Infrequent.

"The men and women interested in organized temperance work in this country are, on the whole, very worthy people," writes Edward W. Bok in the May Ladies' Home Journal. "They are sincere, energetic and well-meaning. But sometimes they lack that nicety and wisdom of judgment which is absolutely necessary in organized effort in order that the surest success may be won. They sometimes, unfortunately, allow their zeal to run away with them. This tendency was recently shown in one of their official statements which bewailed the startling growth of intemperance in America during the year 1897. Many good people, to whom the circular containing this statement is sent, will be prone to believe this assertion. They have not the means at hand by which to verify such a statement, and will be made uncomfortable by it, whereas, in reality, exactly the opposite is the truth. There has never been a time in America when every indication pointed so strongly to a decrease of intemperance as the present. There has never been so little drinking as at present, and never such a strong tendency toward moderation in quarters where alcoholic indulgence is general. This is a fact impossible to controvert, because the most careful figures bear out this very hopeful statement."

The pain that sometimes strikes a man at the most inopportune moment is due to indigestion. It may come in the midst of a dinner and make the feast a mockery. It is a reminder that he may not eat what he chooses, nor when he chooses. He is a slave to the weakness of his stomach. A man's health and strength depend upon what he gets out of his food. This depends on his digestion. Remove the obstruction by taking Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are a positive cure for constipation and its attendant ills—headaches, sour stomach, flatulence, dizziness, biliousness and "heartburn." The "Pellets" are very gentle in their action. They simply assist nature. They cause no pain, nor griping.

A man's remains, wrapped in a costly shroud, and enclosed in three coffins, was unearthed at a depth of fourteen feet while excavating near the castle walls at Windsor. The spot where the coffin was found is thought to have been beneath the cellar of an ancient inn. It is thought by some to have been the body of King Edward VI., who died in 1533, in the sixteenth year of his age.

On March 31, in a hamlet near Taipeh China, a gang of more than twenty robbers entered a house and murdered Yang Kin Shan, his wife, his mother, children and servants, fifteen persons in all.

We don't run the earth, but we do run the best Ready Made Clothing department in the city, and you will find it impossible to find better goods or lower prices on Hats, Caps, Carpets or Clothing.

You are dealing on easy street, if our store is the spot where you do your trading; easy to get anything and everything in our line, much cheaper than elsewhere.

We show the profits so close on children's suits, that it is useless for you to buy and do better in any other store; the prices range from $1, 1.50, 2, and up, and we can fit any size boy that goes.

BELL PIANOS

THE QUEEN'S.
TORONTO, Feby. 22nd, 1897

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

In connection with my visit to Canada as Pianist to Madame Albani, I have had occasion to observe various makes of pianos, and have been much impressed with the advances which are being made in the art of piano construction in this young and flourishing country. One of the most recent instruments to arrest my attention—and I might say one of the best—is the well known "Bell" Piano. Its tone is admirable throughout, and the touch firm and responsive—just what we musicians like—in fact, an excellent piano in every respect. The new Orchestral Attachment (which I understand can be obtained on "Bell" pianos only) is also an excellent feature, and one which will doubtless excite interest with all classes. I do not hesitate to say that I consider the "Bell" piano a good, honest instrument, and so recommend it to any intending purchaser.
