SIR CHARLES TUPPER will arrive to-night and will deliver an address in the Drill Shed at twelve o'clock to-morrow.

THE Court Musicians to-day selected one of Mr. Fletcher's celebrated "Emerson" Pianos for their concerts here. Good.

THE insane young woman, taken in charge by the police yesterday afternoon, was removed to the Lunatic Asylum last evening.

VISITORS to the Exhibition can purchase Shoefindings of a superior quality, at reduced prices, at M. McQUAID'S, Lower Queen Street.

THE Court Musicians were among the passengers in the steamer Merrimack which arrived yesterday afternoon. They are staying at the Revere.

THERE will be a friendly game of football at Victoria Park to-morrow, 3 o'clock sharp, between the Abegweet and St. Dunstan's teams.

Mr. Abercrombie is here, and will perform this evening at the Lyceum with the Court Musicians and Mr. Walter Pelham. Plan and tickets at Watson's and Chappelle's.

AN immense number of people are in the city "doing" the Exhibition. The hotels are so crowded that we are unable to find space for the usual list of arrivals.

THE Moncton Times says that the Gospel Army have folded their tent and departed from that place. It appears that the enterprise was not a financial success.
