The First District of Queen's.

As we anticipated, the electors of the first district of Queen's will not be represented by Mr. A. B. Warburton, of Charlottetown, without a struggle.

Mr. Warburton of Charlottetown must therefore fight for his spurs if he would win them in New London and Crapaud. He will meet a doughty opponent. Of course the little band of city politicians who have championed him, will place him at advantage in the contest.

Dr. McNeill is, admittedly and undoubtedly an able man, who will fight a strong battle, and who will, if elected, exert a powerful influence in the Legislature.

Mr. Adam Brown thinks that Canada has only to follow up the advantage she has gained in the Jamaica Exhibition to obtain a large share of the import trade of the West India Islands.

The Boer movement, out of which hostilities have sprung, is a South African movement in the direction of northward expansion, and is bound to conflict with the claims of the British chartered company, to say nothing of the claims of the Portuguese South African Company.

Mr. Perry will today move for a return giving the date on which the Stanley commenced running last fall, number and dates of trips, number of passengers and amount of freight carried, fares collected for passengers and freight, expenses of working Stanley during last winter and date when she stopped running from Island to main land.

Mr. Daniel Irving arrived home from Boston Saturday night, to visit his friends and relatives. The enterprising business firm of Hon. James Clow, has just opened its canning factory and is giving employment to a large number of young men, and is a great boon to the people of this adjacent settlements.

Mr. Neil Johnstone has been enlarging his outbuildings. He is also another of our progressive young men in this municipality.

Liberal Conservatives in Convention.

THE RESOLUTION PASSED.

At a large and representative convention of the Liberal Conservatives of the First District of Queen's Co., held at Bradalbane on Wednesday, 13th inst., to select a candidate to oppose A. B. Warburton, Dr. R. McNeill, of Stanley Bridge, New London, was chosen.

Resolved, 1st. That the time has arrived to call the Legislature of this Province to one House of Representatives as the first and most necessary reform.

2nd. That no law imposing taxes shall be passed until it is first submitted to the people and the principles well defined.

3rd. That the policy of issuing debentures or borrowing money in the absence of public works or undertakings of general importance is not likely to alleviate the condition of the farmers of this Province.

4th. The law reform is greatly needed, the simplification of our statutes desirable, that even the Cattle Act is so mystified that the tendency is to increase litigation and unnecessary expenses.

5. That until the Legislature is resolved into one branch or house, and the business of the country placed upon a healthy basis, a bill should be enacted requiring the representatives of both houses to serve without pay or indemnity of any kind.

6th. That we are opposed to the principle of non-resident representation for this District, and especially of making it the dumping ground for lawyers from Charlottetown.

Personal.

The Stipendiary Magistrate is out again. Rev. Dr. Doyle, of Vernon River, was a passenger from Summerside by the St. Lawrence last Monday morning, en route to St. John.

Sunday last was the seventy-third anniversary of the birth of Sir Leonard Tilley. The Fredericton Herald says the Lieutenant Governor is enjoying much better health now than formerly, and it is the sincere wish of all that his life may be long spared to his native province.

Hon. J. O. Arsenault, Mrs. Arsenault and Miss Arsenault, were passengers by the St. Lawrence Tuesday morning, en route to Memramcook, where the ordination of Rev. Sylvere Arsenault to the priesthood was to take place on Wednesday morning, Bishop Sweeney, of St. John officiating.—Journal.

Farmers are pushing their spring work rapidly, as the land is now in excellent condition. Notwithstanding the obstructive masses of ice yet to be seen off the shore of Murray Harbor North, some large catches of herring have been made.

Some enterprise still lurks among our lobster merchants, as they are again preparing the lobster fishing fleet for another season's bounty and a remunerative supply of those piscatorial creatures.

Mr. Daniel Irving arrived home from Boston Saturday night, to visit his friends and relatives. The enterprising business firm of Hon. James Clow, has just opened its canning factory and is giving employment to a large number of young men, and is a great boon to the people of this adjacent settlements.

Mr. Neil Johnstone has been enlarging his outbuildings. He is also another of our progressive young men in this municipality.

Ottawa Correspondence.

In the neighborhood of 750 petitions were presented to the Commons in the first week of the session, to say nothing of a very large number tabled in the Senate. They relate chiefly to Prohibition and the observance of the Lord's day.

Mr. McMullen is trying to force the hand of the Government by enquiring how they expect to make up the deficiency in the revenue, should they comply with the prayer of the numerous petitions to prohibit the traffic in intoxicating liquors.

The Fishery Bulletin.

REPORTS CONCERNING THE HERRING, LOBSTER, COD AND HADDOCK CATCHES.

HALIFAX, May 12.—The herring fishery to day was very good at Perce, Que., but only fair at Grand River. At Point Escuminac, N. B., the catch was good. The fish appeared scarcer to-day on the west coast of P. E. Island and in the vicinity of Alberton. They are reported plentiful to-day at the Magdalen Islands.
