Theinhaus and Levesque set out on their trek. They believed that within two or three days they would be able to reach Lake Nitchicun and safety. The men covered about 20 miles in two days. But at the summit of a hill they were able to establish definitely that the lake was Lake Debray, 40 miles west of Lake Nitchicun. They were convinced that in their weakened condition they were hopelessly lost and there was nothing to do but await death.

Rescue Arrives
Their hopes were at their lowest ebb Saturday when suddenly they heard Haugh's loud-speaker equipped Canso overhead. Calls from the plane were urging the men to light a fire to indicate their position and then to stay where they were pending rescue. The four managed to muster enough strength to light a fire. Haugh put his Canso down on Lake Debray and some of his crew walked 1½ miles to the camp of the missing men. Levesque was so weak he had

CHAPTER XVI
"Take your Jane with you," said Jacob. "A woman may assist you. I know very little about them myself, but Jane is clever and tactful. If I had chanced upon a Jane some seventy years ago, it is possible that I might be a grandfather at this moment instead of a grand-uncle. They say that if the good God doesn't send you children the devil is sure to send you nephews. In my case that is profoundly true. Tell Jane to come to lunch tomorrow at one o'clock and devote her afternoon to me."
"She's dying to come, Sir."
A little later Tom and his sweetheart visited Anita Pardo and found her as usual inscrutable and self-possessed.

She was very calm and listened without interruption to their story. Nor did she ask many questions after she had heard it. The signora supposed that Felice must have put her claims before them and that they had raised no question but surrendered the treasure at once; yet Tom made no allusion to any relationship between Pardo and the dead adventurer. She sounded him cautiously on the subject for unless he knew the facts, Anita was prepared to dwell on them. All that mattered to her centred in the treasure now; but she felt naturally anxious to learn how she had come by it.
"The three who had remained with the Norseman - Vanstone, Abel and Koeten—were found Friday in slightly better condition than their fellow colleagues. They, too, were flown here Saturday.

value as medicine which is not important today.
In studying the Bible teaching about alcohol, one of the important points to note is that as early as six hundred years before the birth of Christ the use of this beverage had come to be recognized as a serious social problem; that there were many persons for whom its use was a moral issue; that there were those who abstained from drinking for conscience's sake and who taught others to abstain. Abstinence had already become a virtue.

IN MEMORIAM
FINAL TRIBUTE TO THE LATE MISS MAUDE MACAUSLAND

—Many friends paid a final tribute to the late Miss Maude MacAusland at her funeral Monday, Sept. 28th. The funeral service was held from the home of Mrs. S. W. Delaney, Baltic and was conducted by the Reverend Mr. Campbell of the Kier Memorial Church, Malpeque.
Miss MacAusland came to Baltic some thirty-five years ago. During those many years she won for herself a host of good friends and earned an enviable reputation among them. Her high sense of duty and devotion to duty will long be remembered by those who knew her. Especially did Miss MacAusland endeavor herself to the Delaney family with whom she lived.
Her life remains a genuine example of devotion and fidelity. God does not always demand great abilities and endowments for one to serve Him well. In the late Miss MacAusland, He used one who was humble and simple of heart to perform for Him a life filled with service. Since charity is His first demand for Eternal Happiness, we feel assured that she is well deserving of His promised reward.
Miss MacAusland leaves to mourn one sister now living in Boston. But her death will be felt most by those whose hearts she won through years of devotion: namely, Mrs. Delaney, and her sons, Marshall at home and Rev. Ronald Delaney, C. S.B.P. of Montreal.

Funeral services were held at St. Wm. Burns, John Riley, Wm. MacGillivray, David MacKenzie and Vernon MacGougain. Interment was in the family plot at Tyne Valley's People Cemetery.
TENSE DRAMA AT CAPITOL THEATRE, SUMMERSIDE
—The story of two men who started out as hunter and hunted—penitentiary security officer and escaped convict—and end up as friends after a starkly dramatic experience is unfolded on the Capitol Theatre screen, Summerside, in "Cry of the Hunted," starring Vittorio Gassman, Barry Sullivan and Polly Bergen.
Sullivan enacts the sympathetic but tough security officer, Turner, who is sent out to capture the escaped man. The pursuit, one of the most suspenseful and exciting ever shown on the screen, involves such tense episodes as an automobile crash by which Jory is able to make his first break from his guards, a second escape sequence in which he jumps from a high railroad bridge into the surging rapids of a river, and the final scenes in which Turner tracks down his prey through reptile and alligator-infested mire of the Louisiana bayous. The shift of advantage and power from the pursuer to the hunted man and the gripping climax in which the hidden nobility of the animal-like Jory is brought to light make for a drama of sustained interest and powerful impact.

There is no "overnight cure" for irregularity

But there is a simple, natural answer to the common problem of irregularity due to lack of bulk

There are men and women (perhaps you're one of them) who won't let "nature take its course". THEY TRY TO SUBSTITUTE UNNATURAL "FORCING ACTION" FOR THE NATURAL REGULARITY WHICH SENSIBLE DAILY HABITS AND SUFFICIENT BULK IN THE DIET COULD PROBABLY MAINTAIN.
Many fall into the habit of using laxatives in a way laxative makers never intended. They take "big doses" willy-nilly without even reading the directions on the label. Naturally, such overdoing—with products intended only for overnight relief of a temporary stoppage—exerts upon the delicate digestive system an unnatural strain.
There's nothing wrong, of course, with taking laxatives occasionally. If you feel you have to take a laxative, just be sure you take it wisely—in an accurate, recommended dose.
BUT THERE IS A WAY TO AVOID TAKING DRUG-TYPE LAXATIVES AND TO PLACE YOUR DEPENDENCE ON NATURE, IF LACK OF BULK IN THE DIET IS YOUR TROUBLE.
In many natural foods—such as certain vegetables, fruits, and grains—nature grows abundant natural bulk which normally and naturally aids the rhythmic process of elimination.
In no other natural food is natural bulk so ideally found as in the outer layers of the whole wheat kernel, known generally as bran.
Bran is nature's "laxative food" instead of a medicine". When properly processed and shredded, whole wheat bran yields smooth natural bulk that the digestive system can handle in a natural way.

The Kellogg Company has made whole wheat bran into a delicious breakfast cereal—Kellogg's All-Bran.
KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN PERFORMS NATURALLY WHAT DRUG-TYPE LAXATIVES DO CHEMICALLY. IT HELPS CLEAR THE INTESTINES OF WASTE IN A NATURAL WAY. IT PROVIDES SORTNATURAL BULK FOR EASY NATURAL ACTION.
There is no stomach upset, no churning, no after-effect except the feeling of satisfaction and fulfillment that comes with natural, normal elimination.
To obtain lasting relief, of course, Kellogg's All-Bran must be eaten regularly. You can have it for breakfast every morning secure in the knowledge that it isn't habit-forming.
More than one million servings of Kellogg's All-Bran are consumed each day. This popularity of itself is proof that this natural laxative cereal lives up to what we say about it.
But even better proof comes from thousands of satisfied All-Bran users. They write of their own relief to tell us what natural relief they receive from eating Kellogg's All-Bran daily and drinking plenty of water.
EAT KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN EVERY MORNING FOR BREAKFAST FOR 10 DAYS. THEN, IF YOU'RE NOT COMPLETELY SATISFIED, SEND THE EMPTY CARTON TO THE KELLOGG COMPANY, LONDON, ONTARIO—AND GET DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK.
Remember—Kellogg's All-Bran has helped millions. Why not you?
