RAPID TRANSIT.—A letter mailed in Ottawa four years ago containing $15 reached its destination in Toronto one day last week.

A MORAL HERE.—A young man named Herbert N. Waiton died at Wilton, Conn., a few days ago. His death is said to be as the result of blood poisoning, caused, according to the physician, by a habit of frequently putting a lead pencil into his mouth.

AN OLD AND WELL TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Treats—30 cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

IN CULTURED BOSTON.—Boston Youth's Companion says: It is related that a recent school examination paper conveyed the information that John Bright was chiefly distinguished for a disease, usually fatal, which he had discovered, and that Richard Wagner was the inventor of a sleeping-sar. Anthology, in another school, was described as "the study of insects," and for pedagogy these definitions were submitted by various pupils: "The science of religion," "The study of the feet," and "Learned propinquity." Can it be that the author of the last definition was an accomplished satirist?

Avondale Notes.

The good roads of the last two weeks are likely to have a beneficial effect on the crops of the incoming season, as the farmers of this locality are taking advantage of them by getting up mussel mud which they haul from Seal River.

Mr. Angus McNeill, who has for the last month been confined to his bed by an attack of measles, is now able to move around again.

The Farmers Association which was established here last December, gives promise of being the deathblow to the exorbitant prices usually charged by merchants for seeds.

While Messrs. J. Larkin and F. Murphy were driving last Sunday they had the misfortune of losing a fine halter and tie rope, and although immediately after discovering their loss they drove back over the same road the missing articles were nowhere to be seen. Should the person who picked them up read this and thus find out the owner of them, he would confer a great favor on Mr. Murphy by leaving them at Mr. John McDonald's, Vernon River.

The school in this section is conducted in a very praiseworthy manner by Mr. P. M. Bradley. Although he has but recently come among us Mr. Bradley has by his genial disposition and unimpeachable conduct made many friends.

Mr. Peter O'Donnel, our local flour merchant, has purchased the business stand and surrounding warehouses of Mrs. A. Wilson, which, under the supervision of O. McMillan, are now undergoing thorough repairs.

MARCH MAGAZINES.

LADIES' HOME JOURNAL.

The March Ladies Home Journal has a noteworthy feature in the page showing "Pope Leo XIII as He lives in the Vatican." The pictures were made by the only photographer who has been admitted to the Vatican for a number of years, consequently they offer the first close view the public has had in a long time of the Pope and his surroundings. An article that will be widely read figures out "The American Girl's Chances of Marriage," and another, "Social Life in America's French City," gives a really charming glimpse into the exclusive Creole circles of New Orleans. "The most Wonderful Musical Festival in America" recalls the great Peace Jubilee held at Boston in 1872, with its seventeen hundred instrumentalists and chorus of seventeen thousand "Churches Decorated for Weddings," "The Prettiest Country Homes in America," "Flowers and Flower Beds," and "Fifteen Good Mantles and Fireplaces" are shown from the photographs submitted in the contest for Journal prizes. "In Nature's Garden" pictures and describes our wild flowers so their identification will be easy. The article is by Neltje Blanchan and is the first of a series.

On his editorial page Edward Bok pays deserved tribute to his late associate editor, Isabel A. Mallon who also wrote for the Journal under the pseudonym of "Ruth Ashmore." As a matter of course considerable space is given to Easter hats and frocks, etc., all illustrated from original designs. Besides the concluding chapters of "The Girls of Camp Arcady" and the experiences of "The Jamesons in the Country" there is an excellent short story, "The Touch of a Child," and a humorous sketch by John Kendrick Bange. Mrs. S. T. Rorer continues her cooking lessons and advice upon domestic economies, and every phase and condition of home life is considered: By The Curtis Publishing Company, Philadelphia. One dollar per year; ten cents per copy.
