

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

JULY 5, 1888.

Hon. Mr. Chapleau's Visit.

HON. MR. CHAPLEAU will be here in a few days or weeks. He is, without doubt, one of the most distinguished men in Canada.

"The Religion of Secularism."

MR. CHARLES WATTS lectured to a small audience in the Market Hall last evening on this subject—Rev. S. G. Lawson in the chair. He said that he did not claim to have "the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth."

Professor Mellish replied briefly but forcibly. His remarks may be briefly summarized as follows: He said the lecturer was using the weapons of the Christian religion had put in his hands, and that the conditions of civilization, intellectual development and civil and religious liberty under which we live are all the outgrowth of its teachings and spirit, and placed the lecturer in common with us all, under obligation to it.

"Keen was the pang, yet keener far to feel, I nursed the pain that impelled the steel." Christianity had not everything in its favor at the outset, but the opposite, and notwithstanding had gloriously triumphed.

The debate was continued by Professor Burr and the lecturer. The subject for to-night is "Freethought, its origin and what it has done for the world."

Supreme Court.

JULY 4.

Duncan McEwen vs. John Robertson.—Action for assault. The jury, after four and a half hours' consideration reported that they could not agree to a verdict, and were accordingly discharged by the court.

James McGee, Jr. vs. James McGee, Sr.—Action for debt. Judgment confessed for $200, without costs. McLean for plaintiff; McNeill for defendant.

JULY 5.

Fred. Peters and others vs. Ewen Stewart.—Action for ejectment. Verdict given by consent for the whole of the land claimed. Peters for plaintiff; W. D. Hazzard for defendant.

John J. Regan vs. John H. G. Murphy.—Action for assault. Now before the court. Peters & Peters for plaintiff; McLean & McDonald for defendant.

Underground Railways.

Both New York and Chicago are contemplating underground railways. In the case of Chicago, the site of which is level, it is strangely enough, proposed to locate the roads at the depth of 100 feet below the surface, on bed rock.

Methodist Conference.

MONROE, July 3, 1888.

Journal read and adopted. The stations for the ministers for the next year were read and approved. Conference then proceeded to election of Chairmen and Secretaries.

For St. John District, on a second ballot, the Rev. E. Evans was elected Chairman with 42 votes, the Rev. Dr. Wilson receiving 38 votes. The Rev. Thos. Marshall was appointed Financial Secretary. The President is Chairman of the Fredericton District. Rev. J. Shenton was appointed Financial Secretary.

Rev. D. Chapman was elected Chairman of the Sackville District, receiving 42 votes, and Rev. C. Comben following with 14 votes. Rev. J. N. Parker was elected Financial Secretary.

Rev. R. W. Waddell, B. A., was elected Chairman of the St. Stephen District with 43 votes, Rev. L. S. Johnson coming next with 29 votes. Rev. Wm. Penna was appointed Financial Secretary.

Rev. John A. Clarke, A. M., was elected Chairman of the Miramichi District with 53 votes. Rev. R. S. Crisp was appointed Financial Secretary.

Rev. H. P. Cowperthwaite, A. M., was elected Chairman of the P. E. Island District with 37 votes, Rev. J. Read receiving 27 votes. Rev. C. W. Hamilton was appointed Secretary.

The elections went off quickly, and with the utmost good feeling.

A long discussion ensued on reading the report of the contingent Fund Committee. This committee had not sufficient funds to meet all claims. It was eventually directed to borrow a sum sufficient to pay all claims.

Rev. Levi Johnson presented a report of the Children's Fund Committee. After some discussion it was laid on the table till the afternoon session. Session adjourned.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Journal was read and approved.

Conference was opened in the usual way, Rev. D. Chapman leading in prayer. Rev. J. Howie brought up the question of the status of the children of the late Rev. Mr. Shrewsbury with regard to this fund. Legal opinion had been obtained with regard to the matter which was to the effect that as two of the children had been adopted into other families they were no longer, in law, the children of the late Mr. Shrewsbury.

Several took part in this discussion, among whom were the Revs. J. R. Narraway, A. M., Chas. Comben, B. Thomas, C. Evans, John Read, George Steel and others. Eventually Rev. J. Shenton moved a resolution to the effect that as the children had been legally adopted into other families that this Conference do not pay anything towards their support unless it is shown that they are in need of the same, then in that case they share in the Children's Fund for their unexpired term on equal terms with other claimants. This resolution prevailed. Dr. Pickard read the report of the Superannuation Fund. It was satisfactory. Between $4000 and $5000 had been added to the capital stock during the year. In other respects the Fund was in a satisfactory condition. After some remarks from Rev. Henry Daniel report was adopted. Rev. S. Johnson read further report from the Children's Fund. Rev. Edwin Evans read the Treasurer's report which showed a balance in hand of $14. Both report and balance sheet were passed. Rev. Edwin Evans read report from the Pastoral Address Committee. It was a lengthy and able paper. It spoke of the increase of members, missionary income, evangelistic efforts, temperance, educational matters, and other kindred subjects. After some slight alterations it passed, being highly spoken of by Rev. H. Daniel and others.

Rev. R. Wilson moved a resolution sanctioning the establishment of Woman's Sustenance Funds and Societies. In favor of this, Revs. T. Marshall, W. E. Johnson and Henry Daniel spoke. Against this, on the plea that such Societies would be inimical to the interests of the Woman's Missionary Society—Revs. J. Read, G. Steel, J. Shenton, B. Chapell, B. A., and C. H. Paisley, A. M. Resolution prevailed.

Rev. J. Shenton moved a resolution expressive of sympathy with the Woman's Missionary Society, and of pleasure because Miss Palmer had addressed the Conference. Passed heartily. After disposing of some matters of routine, Conference adjourned.

The following is the corrected list of preachers for the Island:—

- Alberton—Rev. Geo. W. Fisher.
Cornwall—Rev. D. D. Moore, A. M.
Charlottetown—Rev. John Read, Rev. J. V. Jost, Supernumerary.

Bedford—Rev. Edwin C. Turner.
Bideford—Rev. Edward Bell.
Little York—Rev. M. R. Knight, M. A.
Margate—Rev. C. W. Hamilton.
Mount Stewart—Rev. G. C. P. Palmer.
Montague—Rev. John Goldsmith.
Murray Harbor—Rev. J. S. Phinney.
Pownal—Rev. George Steel.
Souris—Rev. D. H. Lodge.
Summerside—Rev. W. Tippet.
Tryon—Rev. H. P. Cowperthwaite, A. M.
Rev. Geo. Harrison, Supernumerary.
Winsloe—Rev. E. Slackford.
West Cape—Rev. Wm. Wass.
Rev. H. P. Cowperthwaite, Chairman.
Rev. C. W. Hamilton, Financial Secretary.

ORDINATION SERVICE.

Monday evening the Rev. George F. Dawson, B. A., was ordained by the laying on of hands. The church was quite full. Service proceeded in the usual way according to Discipline. Dr. Pope led in prayer. Mr. Dawson related his religious experience and call to the ministry. He was presented with his parchment and a Bible. Then the ex-President, Dr. Wilson, gave a short, but very appropriate charge. He exhorted the young minister to take care of his health—without health he would work at a great disadvantage. He was also to take care of his intellectual powers. Endeavor, said Mr. Wilson, to keep fully abreast of the times in all matters of public interest. Read the best authors. Then he was to take care of his spiritual life. He was to expect the power of God in his studies, his pastoral visitations and his pulpit ministrations. The charge was most suitable to the occasion. The choir rendered some excellent pieces of music. Altogether the service was one of much interest and was closed in the usual way.

On Monday evening an open air service was held on Main street. It was conducted by Rev. W. W. Brewer. Then a service of great interest was held in the Opera House. It was about two-thirds full. The people were attentive and the results were encouraging. These evangelistic services have been a special feature of the Conference, and have shown what a great amount of platform as well as pulpit ability the Conference possesses.

Diocesan Synod.

(Special Correspondence of The Examiner)

THE Diocesan Synod of Nova Scotia and P. E. Island closed its session on Tuesday evening. The Bishop's opening address was admirable, and so well suited to meet many of the questions of the day as affecting the Church, that at the unanimous request of the Synod, His Lordship graciously consented to have it printed for immediate and general distribution in the Diocese.

Many important motions, held over from previous Synod were passed, and other deferred motions received due consideration.

The most important matters brought before the Synod were the consolidation scheme of uniting King's College, Windsor, with Dalhousie, Halifax, and the bill for the superannuation of the clergy.

The consolidation of King's with Dalhousie was participated in by a number of the clergy and lay delegates in most excellent speeches. The Revs. Canon Brock, Dr. Hole, Dr. Ambrose, Dr. Bowman, Dr. Maynard and others of the clergy, and Hon. A. G. Jones, Dr. Slayter, Judge Townsend, in stirring addresses, gave their views on the question.

The following resolution, moved by J. T. Wythe, Esq., was adopted by a large majority of the clergy, and unanimously by the lay house:

"His Lordship the Bishop, in his opening address, having pointed out the peculiar position held by King's College, in consequence of its possessing a royal charter, the Synod desires to express its approval of action being taken with a view of extending to other colleges in the Dominion the advantage of such position, and would recommend the Board of Governors to endeavor its accomplishment."

And that the Board of Governors of King's College, Windsor, be requested, and are hereby authorized, to confer with the Board of Governors of Dalhousie College with the object of carrying out a scheme of consolidation of the respective Colleges."

The report of the committee on the Superannuation Fund elicited a very animated discussion.

Rev. Mr. Johnstone, of Crapaud, moved, seconded by Rev. Mr. Simpson, that the clergy of the Island participate in all the benefits of the fund accorded to the clergy of Nova Scotia proper. No decision was arrived at, and the whole matter was deferred for further consideration at the next Synod.

The site of the new Cathedral received full consideration, creating an animated discussion.

The vote being taken, resulted in the unanimous choice of the present site. The bishop stated before putting the question that he was pleased that the matter had been touched upon in his address and had elicited the discussion. He hoped that all would now unite in making the cathedral a reality by doing all in their power to forward its erection.

Resolutions of condolence with the families of the late Archdeacon Reid, of P. E. I., and the late Rev. Abram Jordan, and regretting their loss to the church, were adopted.

Islanders Abroad.

OUR friends, Mr. and Mrs. Sharp, who left here a few weeks ago for a trip to the Pacific Coast, have returned to Charlottetown after having enjoyed a very pleasant holiday. Mr. Sharp speaks in the highest terms of the country, and especially of the people with whom he met. On the Pacific Coast, at St. Paul, The Dalles and elsewhere, he met with many Islanders who are all doing well, and who received him in a most cordial manner. At St. Paul Mr. Sharp met with W. H. Hazzard, Daniel Davies, Geo. Davies, Wallace Davison, Charles Cooper and others, and in The Dalles, D. M. McLeod, Joseph McEachern, James Webster, Alex. McLeod, Malcolm McInnis, W. H. Lochhead and others. In Vancouver the Islanders are numerous as will be seen by the names attached to the following address presented to Mr. and Mrs. Sharp which speaks for itself. Mr. Sharp wishes us to state that he will only be too happy to meet with any of the friends of those whom he met in the West, and supply any information he has obtained which is evidently of the most favorable character, as all the boys in the West seem to be possessed of a spirit of enterprise and perseverance, which, coupled with unimpeachable, temperate habits, places them in positions of responsibility and trust in their adopted country. Mr. Sharp predicts a successful future for our Island boys in the west.

Below is the address presented to Mr. and Mrs. Sharp by Islanders in Vancouver: VANCOUVER, B. C., June 20th, 1888. To Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Sharp.

DEAR FRIENDS,—It is with feelings of warmest friendship that we assemble here this evening, to bid you a cordial welcome, on this your first visit to the Pacific coast. Though far removed from our native home, we fondly cherish the old friendships and pleasing associations we there enjoyed; and while possessing a spirit of good will towards all men, we especially entertain kindly sentiments towards those of our native Province. Whilst we shall ever cherish the most tender recollections of our Island home, we desire to express a degree of satisfaction with the province of British Columbia, wherein we have cast our lot.

With the earnest hope that your journey may prove as agreeable to you as this meeting is pleasing to us, we cheerfully subscribe ourselves:

- J. M. Stewart, A. H. B. McGowan, Simon McLeod, Albert Hale, J. H. Graves, J. R. L. Graves, N. McLeod, J. O. McLeod, Stephen Saunders, Thos. D. Desbrisay, J. W. Robinson, R. A. Anderson, H. Mason, C. Boyer, W. C. Scott, M. Matheson, J. R. McNeill, Jas. Peake, W. P. Baker, W. W. H. Lowe, Walter Lowe, John B. Hill, P. D. Falconer, Wm. Hagan, A. Morrison, Geo. H. Lockery, R. E. Palmer, M. W. McLeod, and others.

OWING to the number of auction sales this spring, great bargains may be expected at Mr. Green's sale. The furniture may be seen between 9 and 11 to-morrow.
