CAMPING NEAR WHITE HOUSE

A group of Negroes from the Mississippi Delta area Sunday night pitched tents and camped in Lafayette Square, across Pennsylvania avenue from the White House in Washington.

A number of the campers stand in the grass between the tents and the tulip beds which ring the Square. The sign on the one tent reads "Houses instead of Tents."

The group came to Washington last week, seeking aid from the Office of Economic Opportunity to obtain housing. (AP Wirephoto)

$250 Million Profits Tax Planned For Deep Freeze

By JAMES NELSON
OTTAWA (CP)—The $250,000,000 which Finance Minister Sharp expects to skim off the top of Canadian business profits this year with his new refundable tax is supposed to go into a new kind of accounting deep-freeze.

Mr. Sharp says the money, which will be collected over the next 18 months and paid back at five per cent interest in the subsequent 18 months, isn't intended to be used in the normal course of government operations.

It will be put in the bank. But it will be a powerful tool in the exercise of monetary policy when the decision is made as to whether it should go into the Bank of Canada or into the chartered banks.

Relaxed Divorce Laws Considered By N.Y.

By CHARLES DUMAS
ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—After resisting change for 178 years, New York State is on the verge of relaxing the most stringent divorce law in the country.

The law permits divorce on only one ground—adultery.

Leaders of the state legislature have agreed on a bill that would establish additional grounds. The bill, however, would cut off New Yorkers' opportunity to obtain "quickie" divorces in other states.

The legislation is scheduled for action late this month. Because the legislature is in a mood for change, and because the bill was drafted by the most powerful Republican and Democratic leaders, the measure appears almost certain to be approved.

For many years, the most effective opponent to revising the law has been the Roman Catholic Church but Catholic spokesmen now are taking an acquiescent attitude.

Quiet on Issue
Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller, expected to sign the bill, has had little to say about the issue. He was divorced by his first wife in Nevada in 1962 on the ground of mental cruelty.

when it is received in company treasuries. It will be treated for tax purposes the same way as interest earned on a bond.

But the repayment of the principal amount probably won't be taxed again when the companies receive it back. And during the time it is in the government deep-freeze, of course, it will appear on the assets side of a company balance sheet.

His present wife divorced her first husband in Idaho in 1963 on similar ground.

Under the bill, adultery as a ground would be expanded to include homosexual or other deviate acts.

It would add these grounds:—Abandonment for at least two years.

—Imprisonment of a spouse for at least three years.

—Cruel and inhuman treatment, defined as conduct that endangers the physical or mental well being of the plaintiff so as to make it unsafe or improper for the plaintiff to cohabit with the defendant.

—Living apart voluntarily for at least five years, provided the couple first obtains a legal decree of separation.

A person would have to live in New York State at least a year to be eligible to sue for divorce and would have to wait six months before remarrying.

The bill would declare null and void any out-of-state divorce if the person did either of the following:

—Obtained the divorce within 12 months after leaving the state.

—Returned to this state within 18 months after leaving to obtain a divorce.

—Maintained a residence in New York while fulfilling residency requirements of another state.

These provisions are designed to stem the brisk traffic between New York and divorce courts in Nevada, Idaho and Alabama as well as Mexico. New York's highest court has

Rerieved Man. Gold Mine To End Operations In June

WINNIPEG (CP)—A gold mine which received a reprieve on life through an unprecedented provincial government loan three years ago will cease operation at the end of June.

Mines Minister Sterling Lyon told a press conference Saturday that San Antonio Gold Mines Ltd. of Bissett, the sole industry in the town 110 miles northeast of Winnipeg, informed the government of its decision Friday. He said the firm said it could not continue to operate economically with its reduced work staff and rising costs.

San Antonio received a $240,000 loan from the Manitoba government in 1963 and has been getting a $15,000 monthly federal provincial subsidy since last December.

KEPT TOWN ALIVE

Mr. Lyon said the sole purpose of the loan was to keep the town of 800 alive and added that the loan is secured by a first mortgage which gives the government every hope of being repaid from salvage of the company's assets.

After a request for aid from San Antonio last fall, the Manitoba government sought a federal subsidy but had to settle for a 50-50 split. The total subsidy of $90,000 is payable at $15,000 a month starting last December and Mr. Lyon said it will be paid through May as long as operating conditions are met.

While the government regrets management's inability to carry on, Mr. Lyon said it was felt the loan was justified. It came at a time of manpower surplus and the government would have faced substantial social assistance payments had the mine closed, stopping the $1,000,000 annual payroll in the community.

SUGGESTS TOURISM

Municipal Affairs Minister Robert Smellie said many employees should be able to find employment elsewhere and it is hoped to keep the town alive as a tourist and recreation centre.

A municipal affairs official will go to Bissett to co-ordinate the work of assisting the population through the transition period.
