Souris Hospital Junior Aid Meets

The Annual Meeting of the Junior Aid of the Souris Hospital was held in the United Church Hall on Wednesday, October 13th, with eighteen members in attendance.

The returning President, Mrs. A. Wright, presided. Mrs. W. A. Acorn, Secretary, read the minutes of the last annual meeting which were adopted as read. Mrs. Wright then reviewed the activities of the Society during the past year speaking in detail on the electrocardiograph machine which the Aid were purchasing for the Hospital. The President also mentioned the wonderful co-operation of the Women's Institute Branches of the surrounding districts in assisting with the Radio Lottery sponsored by the Aid.

The radio was drawn recently at the Souris Theatre and won by Laura MacDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anselm MacDonald, Norris Pond. After thanking the officers and members for their splendid support during the year the President asked Miss Mildred Fraser to present the treasurer's report which showed the Aid in a sound financial state.

Mrs. A. H. Smallwood, Convener of Sewing, presented her report and also read the Girl Guide report in the absence of the Convener, Mrs. Claude Richards. Mrs. Smallwood also moved a vote of thanks to the retiring officers and spoke to the group on the importance of attending the meeting.

Mrs. Edward Kassner, Convener of the nominating committee presented the slate of officers for 1955. Mrs. George Roach was elected President; Mrs. Bruce Stewart, Vice-President; Mrs. Stewart McAulay, Secretary; Mrs. Wallace MacKenzie, Treasurer. The meeting was then adjourned and the remainder of the evening was spent watching films. Refreshments were served.

In the afternoon a show was sponsored for the School Children and Mr. Eugene MacDonald, Manager of the Potato Chip Plant donated chips for the occasion.
