JUST RECEIVED—A large lot of beautiful Velvet Photograph Frames at the Agricultural Store.—ROBERT MAY.—[dec 4, 3i]

SEVERAL heretofore considered respectable grocers in suburban districts of Quebec are being prosecuted for selling liquor without a license.

JUST RECEIVED, at the Agricultural Store, CLARK'S DIAMOND DUST POLISH. It cleans Gold, Silver, Nickel, Glass, &c., better than anything yet discovered. ROBERT MAY.—d1 3i

HON. NEIL McLEOD returned from Ottawa on Wednesday evening. He reports that the Island deputation was cordially received by the Dominion Government; and that their representations respecting the several matters the Island is interested in having settled were attentively heard.

AN ANGRY PRESIDENT.—President Hayes is said to be very angry at the recent publication in advance of the Presidential message. The publication is said to have created considerable excitement at Washington. The entire force of the secret service are endeavoring to discover the thief, who was probably bribed by over-enterprising publishers.

AN Ottawa telegram says: "The great success of the banquet to Sir John, and the imposing and magnificent nature of the great demonstration, is the whole talk of the city to day. All respectable Reformers admit that it was the most magnificent affair of the kind ever witnessed here, if it was ever equalled in any part of the Dominion."

A HALIFAX BRIGANTINE LOST.—The Halifax brigantine "Nancy Ross," Capt. William Whittier, from St. John's, Nfld., for Sydney, C. B., was abandoned at sea on Nov. 19th, eighty miles off St. Pierre, Mig., after a terrible gale. The captain and crew were rescued by the schooner "Edith Weir," and landed at St. John's, Nfld. The "Nancy Ross" was owned by Captain Whittier and was uninsured.

AN Ottawa despatch says the following members of the Government will be present at the workingmen's social on Tuesday night next, at the Rink Music Hall, Ottawa: Right Hon. Sir John A. Macdonald, Sir Charles Tupper, Hon. H. Langevin, Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, Hon. J. C. Aitkens, Hon. James McDonald, and Hon. John O'Connor. Notwithstanding the sneers of the Grit papers at the workingmen daring to have a social, the affair promises to be a great success.

The following "personal" is published in Canadian papers: Susannah Elkinton, the wife of William Elkinton, is informed that on sending her address to Messrs. Millington & Simpson, Solicitors, Boston, Lincolnshire, England, she will be entitled to receive her share of the estate of her father, George Martin, late of Haven Bank, Lincolnshire, England. In the event of the said Susannah Elkinton being dead, any of her children who may be living are requested to communicate with Messrs. Millington & Simpson.

The intense feeling engendered by the land controversy throughout Ireland grows deeper if not more demonstrative. A bailiff, on attempting, a day or two ago to serve a decree of ejectment upon a farmer occupying a small holding in Kerry, was attacked and killed by the farmer's wife. The populace assembled on the scene in great numbers, and threatened to resist by force any attempt which might be made by the officers of the law to arrest the woman.

SIR CHARLES TUPPER put the case of the steel rails pretty strongly in his speech at the Ottawa banquet. The account with interest or other incidents, stands thus:—
50,000 tons at $54.00 . . . . . $2,730,000
50,000 tons at $24.24 . . . . . 1,212,000

Total loss to the country . . . . . $1,518,000
But the purchase of Sir Charles Tupper at $24.24 was not only good compared with Mr. Mackenzie's former purchase in 1874; it is good as compared with prices at present ruling, which are higher now than when he bought. At present the account reads thus:—
50,000 tons at $24.24 . . . . . $1,212,000
50,000 tons at $7 5s. stg. . . . . 1,764,163

Saving to the country . . . . . $ 552,165
Thus, any way the case is looked at, the purchase of Sir Charles Tupper is a most creditable thing compared with the purchase of Mr. Mackenzie.

MARRIAGE BELLS.—A few months ago Alfonso, King of Spain, lost his beautiful young Queen, and there was mourning for her not only in Spain but all over Europe. On Saturday the blank made in the Royal House of Spain was filled up, and King Alfonso became the happy husband of a beautiful, amiable, and accomplished Princess. Marriage bells drove out the remembrance of the sad funeral bells of a few months ago. It is the way, and has been the way, of the world. We wish Alfonso and his Queen a long and happy life. There were in Spain on Saturday two sad-hearted ex-Queens—Isabella who had been driven from the throne of Spain, and poor bereaved Eugenie, ex-Empress of France. Sorrow and desolation come to crowned heads as well as to the poorest of the poor.

The Czar will inform the nobility of Moscow, at the reception to-day, of his determination to call a number of unofficial advisers to assist him in the Government. The Council will be purely deliberative, without any right of control or interference, and will be chosen partly by the suffrages of the middle and peasant classes and partly by direct nomination by the Czar from the ranks of the hereditary nobility. Other measures of local reform will also be announced. These innovations have been strongly advocated by the Czar's wife.

Read and Learn for Yourself.

Many valuable discoveries and much useful knowledge is kept from the world, because of the immense expense in making them known to the people. This is not the case with Boschees German Syrup, although but a few years introduced into this country, its sale now reaches in every town and village in the U. S. Its wonderful success in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Pneumonia, Asthma, and all other diseases of the throat and lungs, was first made known by distributing every year, for three years, over 400,000 bottles to the afflicted, free of charge, by Druggists. No such a test of merit was ever given before to any other preparation. Could you ask more? Go to your druggist and get a bottle for 75 cents and try it. Sample bottles 10 cents.
