LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

MANTLES, a specialty—Beer Bros.

CROWDED OUT.—Editorial and other matter crowded out.

I. O. O. F.—Regular meeting Port La Joie encampment to-night.

B. I. S.—Regular monthly meeting this (Wednesday) evening at 8 o'clock.

FIRST OF THE SEASON.—We learn that fresh herring were caught in Georgetown harbor on Saturday last.

BOARD OF TRADE.—The general quarterly meeting of the Board of Trade will be held at the Guardian Office, Cameron Block, this evening at 8 o'clock.

THE STANLEY left Georgetown at the usual time this morning, but no report of her arrival at Pictou was received up to half-past two this afternoon.

SEE IT.—A photograph of part of the interior of the Masonic Temple Opera House is on exhibition in the show window of Lewis' photographic studio.

NEW LIGHT-KEEPER.—Mr. Frank J. Cahill, of Alberton, has been appointed light-keeper at Sandy Island, Cascumpec Harbor, vice John McCabe, resigned.

RATHER EARLY.—Quite a number of fishing concerns ran their back lines for lobstering at Mimimigash last week. The weather seems to say: "Rather Early."

CABOT CRICKET CLUB.—The annual meeting takes place this (Wednesday) evening in the Cabot Club Rooms, Scott's Hall, Kent Street. Everybody interested in the game is invited to attend.

POLICE COURT.—A merchant, for allowing empty boxes in front of his store, was fined $1 and costs; and a charge against a young man for using profane language on the street was adjourned until to-morrow.

DRAMATIC.—The Souris amateurs repeated their dramatic entertainment in Kingsboro Hall on Friday evening last. The proceeds, which go towards the purchase of a library for Colville school, amounted to over $20.

CITY COUNCIL.—At the adjourned meeting, held last evening, the motion of Councillor Tanton to abolish the Water Commissioners was negatived. A committee of three was appointed to look into the cells in the city lockup.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—An interesting and successful temperance meeting was held in the Baptist Church last evening. Rev. Mr. Emery presided, and Mr. Sutherland, Mr. B. Rogers and J. H. Bell delivered addresses. Mr. Davison and Mrs. Ritchie each sang a solo.

AN AGED LANDMARK GONE.—The funeral at Rollo Bay, on Sunday last, of the late Mr. Luke Deagle, was largely attended. He was in the 87th year of his age, and was one of the early settlers of the place. Up to within a few days of his death he was active and quite able to attend to ordinary farm work, enjoying as he did from his youth up, the very best of health. He had many friends and no enemies. Many a day will go by before "Uncle Luke," as he was familiarly called, will be forgotten.

THE MISSING GIRL.—No traces of the missing girl at Morell, except those already reported, have as yet been discovered. Since her disappearance crowds of men have been daily dragging the river in the hope of recovering the body. A pocket handkerchief was picked up on Thursday from the bottom of the river with the letter S worked on one corner of it, but those who know say that it does not belong to her. A diving suit has been sent for, and two young men belonging to the place intend using it as soon as the weather clears up. Several very deep mudholes are said to be near where she is supposed to have jumped over, which adds to the difficulty of securing the body.

A LIGHT NEEDED.—A light should be placed on Souris Bridge at night while it remains in its present dangerous condition. The contractors are now at work driving piles for the new bridge through the covering and alongside of the old one. East of the draw, the railing has been torn away and planks torn up, necessitating a temporary tramway on which travellers cross over. We write, not for the purpose of finding fault with the contractors, but merely to notify the public that work is going on on Souris Bridge which makes crossing at night dangerous, and to suggest that a light be placed there before some serious accident happens for want of it.

B. FAY MILLS SERVICES.—The general committee having the superintendence of the above services met in the Y. M. C. A. Parlor on Monday afternoon. Rev. W. Hamlyn was elected chairman and J. S. Raymond, secretary. In accordance with the book of instruction sent by Mr. Mills the following committee were appointed a general committee, to consist of the pastor and two members of the churches represented. 1st Methodist, Rev. W. W. Brewer, W. C. Turner, G. F. Beer; 2nd Methodist, Rev. G. C. P. Palmer, George Ritchie, Dr. Ayers; Zion, Rev. D. Sutherland, W. T. Huggan, Adam Fife; Baptist, Rev. C. W. Corey, A. W. Sterns, J. K. Ross; St. Paul's, Rev. W. Hamlyn, J. J. Chappelle, S. C. Moore; Y. M. C. A., J. S. Raymond, Executive: The pastors of churches represented and Secretary of General Committee, ex officio, W. C. Turner, J. J. Chappelle, W. T. Huggan, George Ritchie and A. W. Sterns. Finance: G. F. Beer, John M. Campbell and A. W. Sterns; Advertising: Rev. W. W. Brewer, J. J. Chappelle, J. D. Seaman, Prof. Harcourt; Canvassing: Miss Mary White, Miss F. Wright, Miss Mary C. Davies, Miss T. McIsaac, Mrs. Thomas Pickard; Music: W. C. Turner, S. C. Moore, J. R. Davison, J. K. Ross, Robert J. Campbell; Ushers: Col. F. S. Moore, Jas. Carter, J. T. McKenzie, Sidney Grey, E. D. Sterns; Ladies: Mrs. Wm. Heard, Mrs. Jas. DesBrisay, Mrs. L. E. Prowse, Miss Rogers, Miss B. McLaren; Devotional: The pastors of the churches represented. A further meeting of the General Committee in connection with all these committees will be held in the Zion Church lecture room on this (Wednesday) evening at nine o'clock when organization will be effected and plan for work adopted. At this meeting also the Executive Committee will report progress and the plan for holding these services.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

ANOTHER POINT.

SIR,—There was one point that you missed when writing about Sir John Thompson's condemnation of the Two-Thirds clause. That was the justification it affords for the action of Lieutenant-Carvell in reserving the first bill. That which was so clearly unconstitutional ought not certainly to have been passed by the representatives of the Crown, especially as it was not then known that the clause would be "wholly inoperative."

JUSTICE.

DID THE COLUMBIA DO IT?

Sir,—In your issue of yesterday is a local headed "Gathered to his fathers" wherein is stated that a celebrated Methodist Divine rode a Columbia Bicycle and then died. Will your contributor please say if it were the Columbia that killed him. That seems to be the only inference.

ENQUIRER.

A QUESTION.

SIR,—Isn't it a reflection upon the intelligence of our people to import an orator from abroad to tell them how to vote upon the Scott Act? I am very sure that if our leading temperance men would meet together, put their hands in their pockets, make up a good big fund of money, and appoint men to enforce the Scott Act, if carried, the fact would have a greater influence upon voters than all Mr. Spence's oratory.

COMMON SENSE.

"OBSERVER" CRITICISED.

SIR,—I was surprised to read such a letter as that of "Observer" in your columns last night. "Once you have made a traffic disreputable," he writes, "you have advanced a long way towards it-overthrow, and this, we claim, the Scott Act did." "Observer" may be an oracle, and yet have something to learn about human nature. But what right have you to make a traffic disreputable, brother "Observer?" How would it suit you to have your own business put under the ban of the law, so that you would have to carry it on clandestinely, or starve?

If a traffic is both bad and unnecessary, let the law suppress it. But, as long as men are permitted to engage in it, and called into it by the demands and requirements of their fellow men, in the name of decency let it be as reputable as possible. If one thing is surer than another it is that as long as there are men to demand and pay for an article, there will be men willing to supply it at all risks.

Again: "The strongest point in favor of the Scott Act is its educative influence; it certainly has had a good effect upon our young people."

Those who saw the class of witnesses on Scott Act prosecutions can judge whether this be true—unless, indeed, by "education" you mean a training up in the ways of sneaking, equivocation, prying, and law-breaking.

Get a better bolster for a rotten cause.

CRITIC.

April 11, 1894.

MOCK PARLIAMENT.

The Mock Parliament sitting last night was well attended. A large number of members were in their seats on time. Hon. D. Laird, Speaker, took the chair, and the clerk read the journal of the previous meeting, after which the following new members subscribed to the roll and took their seats: F. Hutchinson, Dr. Ayer and Principal Seaman.

On motion of Mr. R. N. Campbell, seconded by Mr. Macdonald, the House resumed the adjourned debate on the question: That in the event of the Scott Act being defeated at the polls in this city, on the 19th April, inst., it would be advisable to enact a stringent license law in place of the present Free Rum Liquor system.

At the close of a very lively debate, well kept up by strong arguments and sound reasoning on both sides, which evinced commendable culture on the part of the speakers, the House divided on the question, the result being an overwhelming majority in favor of the re-enactment of the Scott Act.

Capt. Weeks, Leader of the Opposition, gave notice that at the next sitting of the House, he would introduce a bill, the purport of which would be to sell and dispose of a certain portion of the Government Farm, for the general revenue of the Province.

Then the House adjourned till Tuesday next, April 17th, at 8 p. m.

DIED.

At his residence, West River, Lot 65, on the 10th inst, Malcolm H. MacNeill, in the 86th year of his age.

[Funeral to-morrow (Thursday) at 2 o'clock p. m.]

At his son's residence, Murray Harbor, on Jan. 12th, 1894, John Jenkins, formerly of Pownal, Lot 49, aged 83 years.

At Covehead, March 30, of heart failure, Eliza Manson, aged 80 years, relict of the late William Auld.

PERSONAL.

It is expected that Mr. Spence will be here to-morrow.

To Swap Horses

in a stream is not considered good judgment, neither is it a good thing to allow your horses to get out of trim for lack of a condition powder. We have Peel's Compound Condition Food, which has been used by numbers of our best known horsemen here with most excellent results. It is done up in bags containing 12½ lbs., which will cost you $1.00, making it the cheapest as well as the best Condition Powder in the market.

The prize winners in the Bazaar Co's. Room Paper (Problem) competition are: 1st, H. E. Sterns, Hillsborough St.; 3nd, Geo. W. McLeod, Fitzroy Street; 3rd, R. E. Smith, Great George Street.

They show that a 16 yard roll contains 74 square feet.
" " 12 " " 63 "

Difference in favor of the 16 yard roll, 11 "
or 1584 square inches.

That the number of 16 yard rolls required, $8\frac{34}{37}$
" " 12 " " $10\frac{10}{21}$

Difference in cost at 60c. per roll, 93 $\frac{113}{238}$c.

or that if they had to buy whole rolls, the difference would be still greater, it taking, of 16 yard rolls, 9; of 12 yard rolls, 11. The difference then would be $1.20 in favor of 16 yard paper.

☞ Note that the difference, 93c., is correct, as we do sell a portion of a roll.

It is not hard to see from the above that the difference in the two rolls is considerable. Therefore we repeat: "Do not imagine you are getting a DOUBLE roll of English Paper"; it has only 12 yards., 1584 square inches less than a double.

We justly claim to lead in the Wall Paper business—sell 16 yards for a double roll—have the very latest American and Canadian Paper. We will sell any portion of a roll or take back any that is left. Prices away down.
