Minor Game Tonight

CHARLOTTETOWN Minor Hockey Association is presenting another Juvenile-Midget skirmish tonight at the Forum at 8.30.

These Saturday night games are becoming decidedly popular and crowds are certain to increase each night. Promoters are looking forward to a much better turnout of parents and friends tonight than was the case a week ago. However, the number of folks there last Saturday was indeed highly encouraging and all of them went home well satisfied with the brand of entertainment served up.

Tonight the teams have gone political. The Conservatives are taking on the Liberals and you can be sure there will be no absentees. Everyone of the players wants to win this 'election' and a bitter rivalry should develop. The teams have been selected so as to give a desired balance to the loop. Last Saturday's tussle was up for grabs most of the night and the same should surely be the case tonight.

If you're interested in promoting minor hockey in Charlottetown, then you have an excellent chance tonight. Be on hand when the Conservatives tackle the Liberals in the minor hockey game-of the-week.

The time is 8.30.

Bears And Giants

CHICAGO Bears and New York Giants tangle tomorrow, Sunday, at Wrigley Field, Chicago with the National Football League champions up for grabs.

The weather has been anything but summer-like around the city of wind and there are some worries about playing conditions for this big one. Those in charge are in fear of a blizzard taking over. That's bad enough anywhere but it's much worse at Wrigley Field where there are no lights. Because of Chicago time. That will mean we will get it here on Prince Edward Island at 2 o'clock.

We remember listening to radio a few years back and the announcer of a WIFU playoff game admitting that he couldn't follow the play at all. Only between 'blows' could he tell us what was going on. Let's hope this is not the case Sunday because the Bears-Giants struggle shapes up like a terrific one.

We Like The Giants

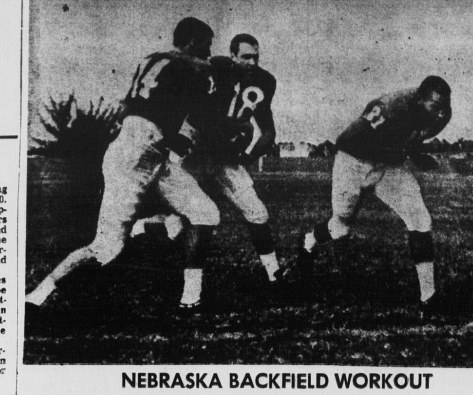
THE Bears have been waiting a long time for this chance. The Giants had their chances the last couple of years but were badly mauled in the big one.

However, we are of the opinion that this man Tittle will have another great day, just as he had a couple of weeks ago. But it must be remembered that the Bears have solutions for at least they think they have) for Mr. Tittle. This is no ordinary football squad that the Giants face this Saturday. It's a rough, tough club that can really throw up a solid defence. Although their defence has been more played up than their offence, this latter stage of the game has proved mighty smart.

Regardless of the outcome, we should witness one of the greatest football spectacles ever. Our choice of the Giants is based solely on our great admiration for this old man Tittle. Perhaps the Bears can hold him in check Sunday afternoon. If they can the folks at Wrigley Field will be delighted. If they can't, then the crown will go to Sherman's boys who have played second fiddle for the past two years.

BIG GAME TONIGHT

Carl McQuaid, left, former star goalie with last year's Penguins will be between the pipes tonight for the Liberals when they meet the Conservatives in minor hockey's Game of the Week. Big Jack MacEachern, right, who is 6 ft. 1 in. tall and weighs 180 pounds will be leading the attack for the Conservatives. The game is scheduled to get underway at 8:30 with the box office opening at 7:45.



NEBRASKA BACKFIELD WORKOUT

Rangers Edge Chicago 4-2 In League's Lone Activity

NEW YORK (CP) — Seven came up lucky for New York Rangers Friday night as they defeated Chicago Black Hawks 4-2 in a National Hockey League game. It was Rangers' first victory over the Hawks in seven meetings this year.

Lightweight forward Camille Henry scored the winning and clinching goals—his 14th and 15th of the season—in a three-goal Ranger outburst in the third period.

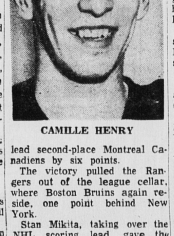
Chicago, which had beaten Rangers five times and tied them once earlier this season, fired shots at Jacques Plante, the peppery Ranger goalkeeper, at the rate of one a minute in an attempt to salt away the game in the first period But the period ended without scoring.

Each team scored once in the second period, and the Rangers outscored the Hawks 3-1 in the final session.

PLANTE PEPPERED

Plante ended up with 41 saves compared with 34 by Glenn Hall in the Chicago nets.

The defeat was the fifth in their last eight games for the slumping Hawks, but they still lead second-place Montreal Canadiens by six points.



CAMILLE HENRY

The victory pulled the Rangers out of the league cellar, where Boston Bruins again reside, one point behind New York.

Stan Mikita, taking over the NHL scoring lead, gave the Black Hawks a 1-0 lead early in the second period with his 21st goal on a deflection off Ranger defenceman Larry Cahan. Harry Howell tied the score two minutes later on a 40-footer.

BATHGATE SCORES

Early in the third period Andy Bathgate's 13th goal put the Rangers ahead, but 20 seconds later Ab McDonald scored for the Black Hawks and the stage was set for Henry's two goals.

Henry's first came on a high shot from about 20 feet in front of Hall. The 145-pound left-winger, lightest player in the NHL, had taken a pass at the blue line from Jean Ratelle.

Henry's second goal was scored into an open net after Hall had been removed for a sixth skater.

SUMMARY

First period—No scoring. Penalties—Howell 3:07, Fleming 6:44, Howell 18:33, Pilote 18:44.

Five Contests On Tap Today

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The U.S. football season continues its year-end fling today with four games for college players and a professional playoff.

Two of the year's more exciting college teams, North Carolina and the Air Force Academy, clash in the No. 1 bowl game—the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla.

Then there are the two big all-star shows for college seniors, the East-West Shrine game at San Francisco and the Blue-Gray game at Montgomery, Ala., plus the Tangerine Bowl meeting between the Coast Guard Academy and Western Kentucky at Orlando, Fla.

Pro football offers its fans an added attraction when the Buffalo Bills and Boston Patriots play off at Buffalo for the Eastern Division championship of the American Football League. The winner will play the San Diego Chargers for the league championship Jan 5.

On Sunday the National Football League's divisional winners, Chicago Bears and New York Giants, meet in that league's championship game.

The Gator Bowl game will see one of the season's most versatile quarterbacks, Air Force's Terry Isaacson, against a North Carolina team which has specialized in rendering good quarterbacks ineffective. North Carolina's top offensive men are quarterback Junior Edge and end Bob Lacey.

Don Trull, Baylor's star passer, is slated to lead the West against an East team that has a big, rugged line in front of such backs as Ron DiGravio of Purdue and Pete Liske of Penn State. Featured performers in the Blue-Gray game are expected to be Georgia quarterback Larry Rakestraw and his favorite receiver, Mickey Babb.

Americans Need One More Win

By WILL GRIMSLEY

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP) American Davis Cup fever equals Adelaide's sweltering temperatures as Dennis Ralston and Chuck McKinley go into the final two singles matches today needing only one more victory to send the cherished tennis trophy back to the United States.

The Americans moved to within a step of final triumph Friday when McKinley and Ralston cut down veterans Roy Emerson and Neale Fraser in the doubles 6-3, 4-6, 11-9, 11-9 for a 2-1 edge in the best-of-five series.

They advanced over the futile and failing racket of Fraser, a 30 - year - old left-hander who drowned his country's hopes in a cascade of errors. Even a superb performance by Emerson, the best player on the court, couldn't make up for Fraser's failings.

The outcome could be decided in today's first match when Ralston, the hottest amateur in the game at the moment, meets Emerson, the Australian champion.

Then McKinley, the bounding bomber from St. Ann, Mo., plays Australia's sensational 19-year - old rookie, John Newcombe, in the final match.

Betting-minded Aussies were laying 4-1 odds that the Yanks would bring off their first cup triumph since 1958 and even money that the issue would be decided in the first match of the day.

Leafs Facing Black Hawks Sunday Night For Rematch

By DAVE BETTS
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Watching a National Hockey League game these days is somewhat like sitting through an old slapstick silent movie. Everyone gets slapped around but no one gets hurt.

When the projectors start grinding in Chicago Sunday night for an episode starring the Black Hawks and Toronto Maple Leafs, fans will find out whether they're watching a serial or the start of a fresh story.

Many questions raised after a furious Dec. 7 brawl between the two clubs in Toronto, will be answered at Chicago Stadium in this first rematch.

Did $1,000 fines imposed by league president Clarence Campbell modify the attitudes of coaches Billy Reay of the Hawks and Punch Imlach of the Leafs? Will Eddie Shack shy away from Reggie Fleming? Will Bob Baun attend strictly to the business of patrolling the blueline? Will Puglistic success spoil Carl Brewer?

In other NHL action this weekend the Leafs are at home to Boston Bruins tonight and Detroit Red Wings play at Montreal. Sunday the Canadiens move to New York to take on the Rangers and the Bruins travel to Detroit.

WATCH CHICAGO

Most interest is centred in Chicago where almost 20,000 fans are expected to be shouting for blood.

Reay has been silent about his plans for keeping the Hawks under control, but Imlach said Friday: "We won't go into Chicago looking for trouble, but we won't back away from any challenge the Hawks hand out."

BULLETIN

ADELAIDE, Australia (Reuters)—Australia's Roy Emerson won the opening set of the key fourth contest of the 1963 Davis Cup challenge round today, defeating American Dennis Ralston, 6-2.

For those whose minds have been filled with peaceful thoughts during the Christmas season, here is a brief history of the war: More than a month ago in Chicago Fleming came off the bench and made an apparent effort to decapitate Shack. In Toronto Dec. 7 Shack returned the compliment, stick to chin.

Later in the game Fleming rammed Shack amidships with the butt end of his stick. Fleming went to the penalty box. Baun went after him. Chaos erupted in a brawl involving all players except the goalies.

Ti-Cats Picked As Team Of Year

By JACK SULLIVAN
Canadian Press Sports Editor

TORONTO (CP) — Name it, and the Canadian Football League had it in 1963.

It was as simple as that as Canada's sports editors and sportscasters jogged their memories to give the answers to questions posed in the Canadian Press year-end poll. Results of the balloting were announced today and the chaps who provide the country's sports entertainment in the fall on fields from Montreal to Vancouver dominated it.

Outstanding team honors went to Hamilton Tiger - Cats, the bruisers in black and gold who logged to an easy 21-10 Grey Cup victory over British Columbia Lions, the Western champions.

Football also produced these results by the voters:

Disappointment: Who else, but the sad Toronto Argonauts who managed three victories in 14 league starts although they had been ballyhooed as the club to beat long before the season's opening kickoff.

BIGGEST THRILL

Thrill, surprise, oddity and comeback: All of these were supplied in the second Calgary Stampeder - Saskatchewan Roughrider game of the total-point Western Conference semi-final when the Roughriders overcame a 26-point deficit to sideline the heavily favored Stampeders 48-47 on the round.

The selectors were asked to name the three outstanding Canadian teams, any sport, professional or amateur, and the Ticats won it by a comfortable margin over Toronto Maple Leafs, Stanley Cup titleholders. On a basis of three points for a first choice, two for second and one for third, Ticats ended with 270 points against 216 for the Leafs.

The Ernie Richardson rink from Regina, winner of the Canadian curling championship and the Scotch Cup, emblematic of the world title, placed third with 128 points.

It was a tight fit for fourth spot between the Canadian junior hockey champion Edmonton Oil Kings and the Canadian team at the Pan-American Games in Brazil. It went 53-49 to the Kings. Memorial Cup winners, over the Canadian team that won a total of 63 medals, including 10 golds.

PARKER GETS VOTES

The disappointment vote was close between Argonauts and the Stampeders. Many Argonaut ballots went to the team and to Jackie Parker, its halfback-quarterback-kicker who joined the team in a five-for-one swap with Edmonton Eskimos and had a sorry season.

Argonauts received 26 votes, the Stampeders 22.

Next in line with 19 were the Trail Smoke Eaters who finished fourth in the 1963 world hockey tournament. Following with 18 were Windsor Bulldogs who lost eight games in Russia and Czechoslovakia during an exhibition swing earlier this month.

The thrill to 84 of the 154 participating voters was Saskatchewan's dramatic win over Calgary. Following this was Goal No. 545 on Nov. 10 for Gordie Howe of Detroit Red Wings, which made him the all-time high National Hockey League goal scorer.

The Roughrider - Stampeder clutch game headed the surprise and oddity categories with comfortable margins.

REVERSE ROCKS

Bill Good of CBC Vancouver gave his oddity vote to the 1963 Canadian curling championships in Brandon, Man., "when the rocks on one sheet of ice actually ran backwards."

Here's how Good saw it: "A rock approaching the house on sheet five would hit the 12-foot circle, stop, and suddenly launch back from whence it was thrown."

Milt Dunnell of the Toronto Star gave his oddity vote to the Maple Leaf Gardens barnyard early in December. The National Hockey League game at Toronto was held up while men worked frantically to clean the ice of dirt left over following a rodeo staged at the Gardens that week.

The comeback of the year, naturally, went to Saskatchewan Roughriders. The selectors were given the choice of a team or an individual and the Roughriders took it in a sweep.

Subsequently Campbell fined both coaches and amost every player amounts ranging from $25 to $1,000.

NOBODY HURT

No one was hurt seriously in the fight. It remains to be seen whether the players suffered from the blow to their pocket books. The fines wound up in the players' pension fund.

The league didn't suffer—it was wonderful publicity. Certainly Chicago Stadium and Toronto's Maple Leaf Gardens were unscathed — they'll be packed to the rafters for every Leaf-Hawk game the rest of the season.

Tonight in Montreal, goalie Terry Sawchuk will celebrate his 34th birthday by returning to the nets after a 2½-week layoff with a back injury. Manager-coach Sid Abel said the return of Sawchuk is designed to take some pressure off rookie Roger Crozier, who will return to the Detroit cage after two or three games.

Boston will be out tonight to avenge a 5-1 defeat at the hands of the Leafs in Boston Thursday night.

Juniors Defeat S'side Combines

SUMMERSIDE — Three unanswered third period goals propelled Junior Legionaires to a 7-4 victory over the Combines in a regular Prince County Hockey League game at Civic Stadium last night.

The victory left the Juniors all alone at the top of the four-team league with nine points compared to seven for the previously unbeaten Combines. The Borden entry is in third spot with two points while the O'Leary team remains pointless.

It was a shattering debut for Benny Grady who took over the coaching chores from Coke Grady prior to last night's game. Some 275 fans braved the chilly weather to watch the Juniors come from behind and garner the victory and the league lead.

Prior to the start of the game a cheque from the MAHA was presented to Thane Mann by Dr. Hillard Clark, vice-president of the association.

Thane is recuperating from injuries received in a car accident this summer. A benefit game was held for the popular Kensington netminder Thursday between Moncton Junior Canucks and Summerside Junior Legionaires. Winners of this contest were the Legionaires by a lopsided 10-4 score.

Rearguard Lloyd 'Toy-Toy' Gallant and Paul MacWilliams paced the Grand Grady-coached Juniors with a brace of goals each while Dave Martin, Nick Fillmore and John Poirier potted singles.

Combines' snipers were Allie DesRoches with a pair, Carl 'Agape' Arsenault and Greg Deighan.

After one period of play the Juniors were trailing 3-2 but they bounced back in the sandwich session with a brace compared to a single by the losers for a 4-4 draw. The Legionaires then came on strong in the final stanza with their three unanswered markers for the margin of victory.

Officials Glen Matthews and Red Gravelle handed out a total of ten penalties, all minors, each team garnering five.

First Period: 1.—Juniors, L. Gallant (A. Gaudet, P. MacWilliams) :31; 2.—Combines, C. Arsenault (C. Gaudet) 10:48; 3.—Combines, A. DesRoches (R. Gallant) 12:03; 4.—Juniors, P. MacWilliams (A. Gaudet) 16:32; 5.—Combines, A. DesRoches (C. Gaudet) 17:21. Penalties: C. Grady 3:01; L. Gallant 15:20; G. Deighan 16:06.

Second Period: 6.—Juniors, D. Martin (D. Gaudet) :23; 7.—Combines, G. Deighan (A. DesRoches) 15:48; 8.—Juniors, L. Gallant (D. Martin, G. Dalton) 16:26. Penalties: Combines (too many men on the ice, served by Carl Arsenault) 4:10; L. Gallant 5:18; J. Arsenault 19:56.

Third Period: 9.—Juniors, P. MacWilliams (D. Martin, A. Gaudet) :20; 10.—Juniors, N. Fillmore (A. Gaudet, D. Martin) 6:32; 11.—Juniors, John Poirier (N. Fillmore, G. Dalton) 18:10. Penalties: D. Gaudet 1:35; G. Deighan 12:00; N. Fillmore 12:00; A. Gaudet 15:32.

SAVES CAT

DEAL, England (CP) — A fireman who rescued a cat from a blazing bungalow in Kent revived it after it was thought to be dead. He used the mouth-to-mouth method of artificial respiration.

Locals Take First Game

Charlottetown's Pee Wee Centennials won their first game of the Invitational Pee Wee Tournament yesterday when they defeated Wolfville 5-1.

The local boys controlled the play during most of the game but ran into stiff goaltending from the Wolfville goalie.

Colin Younker scored the first tally with an assist from Gordie Beck. Peter Williams with Tom Irwin helping collected the second tally and Barry MacKinnon scored the third goal on a pass from Philip Campbell. David Doiron picked up the fourth tally for the winners with help from Darcy Murphy and Tom Irwin while Kenny Doiron hit paydirt with assists from Billy Doherty and Bobby MacMillan for the final goal.

Meeting Set For Monday

The Christmas executive meeting of the Provincial interscholastic athletic association will be held this Monday, December 30 commencing at 10 o'clock at St. Dunstan's University.

It is important that all members attend as all winter term activities will be discussed at this meeting.

Racing Goes Here Today

The harness racing card, originally scheduled for Charlottetown Driving Park Thursday afternoon, will be raced this afternoon commencing at 1.45.

Promoter Frank Acorn has announced that provision has been made to have a large number of cars park in front of the grandstand. It is hoped that this will help a large number of the spectators keep warmer than usual. For those without cars, Frank assures them plenty of heat under the grandstand.

The card looks like a good one. Eight dashes are on the menu and competition should be mighty keen. Win and place betting will be available on all dashes in addition to two daily doubles and two quarters.

The entire program has the appearance of a crowd pleaser. Why not drop around and enjoy the fun.

Hockey Practice

There will be a hockey practice for Johnny's Flying Hawks Sunday evening at the Forum from 5:30 until 6:30. All players are requested to attend.
